WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the nation's oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). As his involvement with the team enters its eighth different decade, few achievements in that time compare with the team's current run of success. The Cardinals have captured back-to-back division crowns in 2008 and '09, won their first NFC title and advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in team history following the '08 season.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill continues to have a daily presence at the Cardinals training facility and is a popular fixture at team events, charity function and football activities.

Arizona hosted its second Super Bowl when the game was played at University of Phoenix Stadium in February of 2008. Bidwill was also credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January of 1996.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

He also serves on the Player Dire Need Fund committee as well as the Hall of Fame Committee. In August of 2007 he was named to the Board of Trustees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the governing body of the Canton-based organization.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

RECOGNITION FOR MR. B

While he is well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, the last year has seen Bill Bidwill receive attention for his many contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

TANK YOUNGER AWARD: At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. The Paul "Tank" Younger Award has been presented annually since '03 for extraordinary contributions towards NFL diversity and previous winners include Tony Dungy, Dan Rooney and Bill Walsh.

"When you look back over the years, Mr. Bidwill has a long history of hiring minorities to administrative and authoritative positions," said FPA Chairman John Wooten. "He has really helped level the playing field and that is what this award is all about."

SPORTS FAITH HALL OF FAME: Also in February of 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. "(He) was honored as a long-time contributor to the NFL and for his contributions to charity, which he has conducted in a very quiet, very generous manner," said Patrick McCaskey, chairman of the group's advisory board and grandson of Chicago Bears legendary head coach George Halas. Bidwill joined Brian Piccolo, the former Bears running back, Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers, and John Gagliardi, head coach at St. John's (MN) University and college football's all-time wins leader.

FLAGSTAFF SPORTS HALL OF FAME: In August of '09, Bidwill was inducted into the Flagstaff Sports Foundation's Hall of Fame in recognition of what he and the team have done for that community. Said NAU President John Haeger, "(The Cardinals) bolster the economy of the northern Arizona region—something for which businesses and workers are very appreciative." He added that the Cardinals have been directly responsible for bringing millions of dollars of economic activity over the last two decades.

MICHAEL BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

After practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor, Michael Bidwill joined the Cardinals organization in 1996 as Vice President/General Counsel and today serves as team President. In that time, no one has been more influential in steering the organization on the path that has led to back-to-back NFC West titles and the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance.

In addition to guiding the Cardinals, Bidwill has also taken on an ever-increasing role in the National Football League and the greater Phoenix business community as well. In 2007, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Michael to the league's Business Ventures Committee, one of the NFL's most prominent.

From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chair of the influential Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders.

This past April, Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's" for 2010. In October of '09, he also received the Leader for Tomorrow award from the Boy Scouts of America.

Within the league, Michael chairs the NFL Security Advisory Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities. He additionally serves on Arizona's Super Bowl Host Committee which successfully staged Super Bowl XLII at University of Phoenix Stadium and will seek to bring the game back to the state. Bidwill is also a member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation.

Among his most significant roles with the Cardinals has been the development of University of Phoenix Stadium, a project that he spearheaded from its inception. The venue has been a major factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the team's success. It has received worldwide acclaim for its distinctive architecture and cutting-edge design and Even before it opened, it was selected by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world and has received numerous honors in its first four years of operation.

From 1990-96, Bidwill was an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Department of Justice in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases.

Bidwill earned a bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

BIDWILL IN THE COMMUNITY

Strong community involvement has also been a hallmark of Bidwill's tenure with the Cardinals and a particular emphasis has been placed the value of youth sports.

That awareness was recognized in 2005 when the Cardinals were selected as the NFC recipient of the "Pop Warner NFL Team of the Year" for their commitment to the development of youth football in the Arizona area. Two years earlier, that same organization presented Michael with the Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity.

In October of '08, Bidwill was also honored by Midwestern University and local community leaders with the COMET (Community Outreach: Motivating Excellence for Tomorrow) Award at the annual "Bright Lights, Shining Stars" Gala. More recently, he was honored by the Boy Scouts of America with the Leader for Tomorrow award and last April was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its "25 Most Admired CEOs" for 2010.

A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico.

RON MINEGAR

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Ron Minegar is beginning his 10th season with the Cardinals after joining the organization from Disney Sports in 2000.

In his current position, the 51-year old Minegar is responsible for developing the club's strategic plan and overseeing all aspects of the Cardinals business operations. He serves as the team's primary negotiator on all broadcast agreements, training camp agreements, concessionaire contracts, ticketing agreements and retail merchandise contracts. Additionally, Minegar was a part of the project team during the design and construction of University of Phoenix Stadium and works closely with the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority and the stadium's facility management firm on business and operational issues.

Minegar also serves as Chief Operating Officer of Rojo Hospitality Group LLC which was awarded the food and beverage contract at University of Phoenix Stadium. Additionally, he serves in the same capacity for Rojo Event Management LLC. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce and Industry. He was recently appointed to the role of Vice Chairman of Marketing for the Board's Executive Committee, serves on the Finance Council and is past Chairman of the Energy Committee.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Minegar served as Vice President, Sales and Marketing for Anaheim Sports, Inc., a division of the Walt Disney Corporation. Originally hired to direct marketing and sales for the Anaheim Angels, Minegar ultimately assumed the additional responsibility of overseeing the marketing and sales efforts for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

Minegar began his sports career with the La Crosse, WI franchise of the Continental Basketball Association serving as team President and representing the club's ownership on all league issues from 1985 to 1990. He was a two-time "Executive of the Year" recipient in the CBA as a result of the team achieving league attendance records and a CBA championship. From 1991-1995, he served as the Director of Corporate Sales for the Minnesota Timberwolves and the Target Center. Minegar left the Timberwolves to assist in the start up of the Minnesota Moose, an expansion franchise in the International Hockey League. In his role as Vice President of Business Operations, he developed the organization's overall business and operational plan and oversaw the launch of the wildly popular Moose logo that resulted in record league merchandise and promotional sales. Upon the announcement of the NHL's return to the Twin Cities in 1997, Minegar assisted in the relocation of the IHL franchise to Winnipeg, Manitoba, then became CEO of Diamond Sports Group and was involved in acquisition projects within minor league baseball, basketball and hockey.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1981 and in 1984 earned a master's degree in Business Administration from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.

Born in Pittsburgh, PA, Minegar resides in Phoenix. He and his wife, Margaret, have two children: daughter, Jenna and son, Craig.

CARDINALS UNVEIL ALTERNATE UNIFORM

On April 22, 2010 the Cardinals unveiled a third uniform at the team's draft party at Majerle's Sports Grill.

The design is consistent with the team's current uniforms and consists of a predominantly black jersey that is complemented by white game pants featuring a black stripe with red accent as well as black socks.

The new uniform will not replace the current uniforms which the Cardinals will continue to wear for the majority of their games. Under NFL rules, teams are permitted to wear their alternate uniform as many as three times per season – once in the preseason and twice in the regular season (not permitted in the postseason). It has not yet been determined how many times or in which games the Cardinals will wear their alternate uniforms.

"Our coaches and players have done a tremendous job creating a specific and well-defined identity as a team that is powerful, aggressive, progressive and exciting," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "We think these uniforms reflect all of those same things. As an organization you want to make sure you keep moving forward, both on the field and off, and this new uniform is part of an overall organizational effort to continually keep things dynamic and innovative. We're excited about them and we know our fans will be too."

ROD GRAVES

GENERAL MANAGER

Rod Graves is entering his 14th season with the Cardinals organization after joining the team in 1997 as the Assistant to the President. He was promoted to Vice President, Football Operations in 2003 and was named General Manager in 2007. In February of 2010, he was rewarded for his role in shaping the team into back-to-back division champions when he received a contract extension through 2013.

Graves, 51, is responsible for all facets of the Cardinals football operations. He has provided leadership in hiring, planning, budgeting, player acquisitions, negotiations, and scouting. Graves has represented the Cardinals on a number of NFL committees and currently serves on the board of directors of National Football Scouting, Inc. and National Invitational Camp, Inc. (Indy Combine). In June of '08, Graves was named to the NFL's new General Managers Advisory Committee, an 11-member group that provides recommendations and other feedback to the league's Football Operations Department.

As General Manager, Rod has been particularly successful building the team through the NFL Draft and free agency. Of the 22 Cardinals starters at the end of the 2009 season, 13 were draft choices of the team during Graves' tenure while one other starter joined the team as an undrafted rookie free agent.

One of the league's longest-tenured personnel decision makers, Graves is also one of five African American general managers in the NFL, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome, Houston's Rick Smith, Detroit's Martin Mayhew and the Giants Jerry Reese.

Consistent with the Cardinals efforts to become champions in the community, Rod and his wife Dreama, devote their time and resources to supporting Cardinals Charities, The United Way, and the American Diabetes Association.

A native of Houston, TX, Rod began his career in professional football in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993. He was promoted in 1994 to director of player personnel.

Graves is a graduate of Texas Tech University. He is also the son of the late Jackie Graves, former player personnel executive of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod and Dreama reside in Phoenix with their three children: daughters, Brittany & Taylor, and son, Joshua.

CARDINALS ALUMNI PROGRAM

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club stays connected with its former players through the alumni program. The Cardinals are one of the NFL's most historic franchises and players contribute while they are on the field as well as when their playing careers are over.

Cardinals alumni participate in community events such as the team's annual alumni charity golf tournament.

At each Arizona home game the Cardinals have an alumni captain and every season the Cardinals hold a get-together for former players each time they play the Rams in St. Louis, the city the Cardinals called home from 1960-1987.

"It's history, and history is one of the important things you can learn from," Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson said. "When you have guys here, behind the football club, and out talking in the community, it sheds good light on what this club has done."

"I think the Cardinals have made so many strides for making the team better on the field and off the field. I am very appreciative of it, and I sit back and smile when I think about it."

- Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on January 14, 2007. He came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end/H-Back.
- After establishing himself as one of the NFL's top head coaches in his first three seasons, was rewarded with an extension on February 25, 2010 that keeps him under contract with the Cardinals through 2013 with a team option for 2014.
- Is the first coach in franchise history with a .500 record or better in each of his first three seasons (8-8 in 2007; 9-7 in 2008; 10-6 in 2009). The Cardinals are one of just two NFL teams (Minnesota) to improve its win total each of the last three seasons.
- His 31-23 overall record through three seasons has him in fourth place on the franchise career wins list and his 4-2 postseason record is among the league leaders in winning percentage.
- Led the Cardinals to NFC West titles in 2008 and '09, the team's first back-to-back division crowns since 1974-75; also guided Arizona to its first NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance.
- Arizona's 8-8 record in Whisenhunt's first season (2007) was its best since going 9-7 in 1998.
- The memorable 2008 season was even better as Arizona secured the franchise's first postseason appearance since '98 with a 9-7 mark, first division crown since '75, thanks to a 6-0 record within the NFC West, and first home playoff game since 1947. It ended with the franchise's first-ever conference title and Super Bowl appearance. Arizona's 12 total wins in '08 were the most in team history and the Cardinals won more postseason contests that January (3) than they had in their entire history (2).
- After their '08 Super Bowl season, the '09 Cardinals won 10 regular season games for the first time since 1976 with six of those wins coming on the road, the most since 1963. They also became just the 3rd NFL team since 1999 to return to the postseason after finishing as the Super Bowl runner-up the previous season.
- In his three seasons as head coach, has led Arizona to a 13-5 record against NFC West opponents and the Cardinals have won twice as many playoff games under Whisenhunt (4) as they had in their postseason history prior to his arrival (2).
- In the 54 total games played during Whisenhunt's three seasons as head coach, the Cardinals have scored 20-or-more points in 41 of them (76%) and 30+ points in 22 (41%).
- In 2007, Arizona set a franchise record for passing TDs in a season (32) and the team's point total of 404 was the second-highest in team history. In '08, the Cards offense was again explosive and scored a franchise record 427 total points. They added 188 more points in the postseason, the third-highest total in NFL postseason history. The 2009 AZ offense led the NFL in red zone scoring (70.4%) as well as red zone TD efficiency (65.1%).
- Before coming to AZ, Whisenhunt spent the previous six seasons with the Steelers. For the first three he was tight ends coach and then was offensive coordinator for the next three, helping the team earn a victory in Super Bowl XL.
- Previously coached at the pro level with the Jets (2000), Browns (1999) and Ravens (1997-98); began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt (1995-96).
- Selected in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta; went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93).
- Entered Georgia Tech as a walk-on and finished career ranked second on the school's all-time receiving yardage list and fourth in career receptions; earned degree in Civil Engineering.

Ken Whisenhunt was named Arizona's head coach on January 14, 2007 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth. In his first three seasons, he has clearly established himself as one of the top coaches in the National Football League and on February 25, 2010 was rewarded with an extension that keeps him under contract through 2013 with a team option for 2014.

Whisenhunt is the first coach in franchise history with a .500 record or better in each of his first three seasons (8-8 in 2007; 9-7 in 2008; 10-6 in 2009) and the Cardinals are one of just two NFL teams (Minnesota) to improve its win total each of the last three seasons.

In his first three years as head coach, the Cardinals posted a 16-8 regular season record at University of Phoenix Stadium (19-8 including postseason). In 2009, they went 6-2 on the road, giving them their most road wins in a single season since 1963 (6); they opened the year with five straight road wins for the first time since 1948.

The Cardinals have also scored 20-or-more points in 41 of 54 total games played (76%) in the last three seasons and 30+ points in 22 of them (41%).

2009 SEASON: Led Arizona to a 10-6 regular season record and second straight NFC West title, giving the Cards back-to-back division titles for the first time since 1974-75. It was the team's best regular season record since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. It marked the first 10-win season for the franchise since 1976 and its sixth all-time.

The Cardinals avoided back-to-back losses in '09, the first time they've accomplished that feat since 1975; AZ was the only team in the NFL without back-to-back losses in '09. The team posted a 6-2 road record in '09, their most since 1963 (6). With a win at St. Louis in week 11, the Cards rattled off five straight road wins in a season for the first time since 1948.

With a thrilling OT Wild Card win vs. Green Bay, the Cards improved to 4-0 all-time at home in postseason play and gave the team back-to-back home playoff wins in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history.

2008 SEASON: After a solid inaugural campaign as head coach, Whisenhunt's second one resulted in the most successful season in team history. The Cardinals secured the franchise's first postseason appearance since 1998 with a 9-7 mark, first division crown since '75 thanks to a 6-0 record within the NFC West, and first home playoff game since 1947. That of course led to Arizona's first-ever conference title and Super Bowl appearance.

Arizona's 12 total wins in '08 were the most in team history and the Cardinals won more postseason contests in January (3) than they had in their entire history (2).

2007 SEASON: In his first year as an NFL head coach, Whisenhunt led Arizona to its best record in 10 years (8-8) and the team recorded a 6-2 mark at home, its best since 1976. Year one had its share of excitement and last-second finishes as seven of the season's first eight games were decided by 7 points or fewer. In all, the Cardinals played an NFL-leading 12 games decided by eight or fewer (six by a field goal or less). Arizona's three-win improvement in '07 was the largest of any of the NFL's five teams with first-year head coaches that year.

In 2007, the Cardinals set a franchise record for passing TDs (32) and recorded the second-highest season point total in team history with 404 (423 in 1984).

COACHING CAREER:

Whisenhunt came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end and H-Back.

Immediately before coming to Arizona, Whisenhunt served six seasons as an assistant on Bill Cowher's staff with the Pittsburgh Steelers. After three years as tight ends coach, he spent the 2005-07 seasons as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator and helped the team to a victory over Seattle in Super Bowl XL.

In his first year as coordinator, the Steelers rushing attack improved from 31st to 2nd and the overall offense ranked 16th behind rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger. His second year ended with an NFL title after the Steelers offense averaged 26.8 points per game in the playoffs. Pittsburgh's 2006 offense ranked 7th overall (9th passing and 10th rushing).

WHIS TO A TEE

As a native of Augusta, it is no surprise that Whisenhunt is also an avid golfer. Like many Augusta residents, he worked the Masters tournament as a teenager, handling the manual scoreboard on the 18th hole. He's had the opportunity to play the course on several occasions; the last time was in May of 2008 when he shot an even par 72 that included an eagle on the par four 11th hole. At one point he considered playing the sport professionally. After concluding his nine-year NFL playing career in 1993, Whisenhunt took a year off during which he played a lot, including an appearance at the 1994 U.S. Mid-Amateur at Hazeltine. His career-best score is a 65 and he has made two holes in one over the years. (That doesn't include another that came after his first ball went out of play, resulting in a three on the scorecard).

Whisenhunt took over as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator in 2004 when Mike Mularkey became head coach of the Bills. That was the same year the team drafted Roethlisberger and the rookie QB went on to set an NFL record with wins in his first 13 career starts en route to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. The next season he became the youngest QB in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and finished third in the league in passer rating (98.6).

Whisenhunt joined the Steelers in January of 2001 as tight ends coach when Mularkey was elevated from that position to offensive coordinator. He previously coached at the pro level with the New York Jets (tight ends, 2000), Cleveland Browns (special teams, 1999) and Baltimore Ravens (tight ends, 1997-98). He began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt for two seasons (1995-96)

PLAYING CAREER:

Whisenhunt was drafted in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta out of Georgia Tech. He went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93). In 74 career games (37 starts), he caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six TDs.

After going to Georgia Tech as a walk-on, he finished his college playing career ranked second on the Yellow Jackets' receiving yardage list (1,264 yards) and fourth in career receptions (82). He was a consensus All-ACC and honorable mention All-America selection as a senior in 1984 when he averaged 19.1 yards-per-catch.

PERSONAL:

Born February 28, 1962 in Atlanta, GA, Whisenhunt was raised in Augusta and is a graduate of Richmond Academy. He earned a degree in Civil Engineering from Georgia Tech. Ken and his wife, Alice, have two children – son, Kenneth, Jr. and daughter Mary Ashley.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME: 2010 Inductee

Hall of Fame guard Russ Grimm begins his fourth season with the Cardinals as the assistant head coach/run game coordinator/offensive line after joining the team on 1/23/07. Grimm spent his first two seasons as assistant head coach/offensive line and was given the additional title of run game coordinator on 2/18/09. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the same capacity, Grimm is beginning his 19th season as an NFL assistant after playing 11 years at guard for the Washington Redskins. He was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame this past February after having been a finalist the past four years (2006-09).

Grimm, 51, spent six seasons with the Steelers coaching with Ken Whisenhunt before coming to Arizona. He joined the Steelers staff in 2001 as only the second offensive line coach in Bill Cowher's tenure and made an instant impact in developing Pittsburgh's offensive line. Grimm's value to the coaching staff was recognized by Cowher, who promoted Grimm to assistant head coach prior to the 2004 season, the only coach to hold that title under Cowher.

Last season, the Cardinals finished with 16 rushing touchdowns, the highest team total since recording 18 in 1998. Rookie running back Beanie Wells rushed for 793 yards, the second most in the NFL among rookies and his seven touchdowns in 2009 were tied (Knowshon Moreno) for tops among rookie running backs. In 2008, Grimm's five regular offensive linemen started all 20 games during the regular season and postseason including Super Bowl XLIII. The offense finished with a top five ranking (4th overall) for the second consecutive season and rookie running back Tim Hightower set a franchise rookie mark with 10 rushing touchdowns.

Grimm made an immediate impact in his first season with Arizona in 2007. His offensive line allowed only 24 sacks, 6th best in the NFL and the fewest given up by the Cardinals since 1978 (22). Grimm's offensive line also paved the way for running back Edgerrin James to rush for 1,222 yards, the fifth best total in team history.

The 2006 Steelers offensive line helped pave the way for running back Willie Parker to gain 1,494 yards and 13 touchdowns on 337 carries (4.4 yard avg.) and earn his first Pro Bowl selection. Pittsburgh's offense finished the 2006 season with the 10th best rushing attack in the NFL, helping to give the Steelers the 7th ranked total offense in the league. Parker finished the season with the second and third top rushing performances of the year in the NFL with 223 rushing yards (32 att., TD) against Cleveland (12/7) and 213 yards (22 att., 2 TDs) vs. New Orleans (11/12).

Under Grimm's guidance in 2005, the Super Bowl champion Steelers averaged nearly 140 yards rushing per

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/23/07 when he became the team's assistant head coach/offensive line.
- Given the additional title of run game coordinator following 2008 season on 2/18/09.
- Selected to the seven-member Class of 2010 for the Pro Football Hall of Fame on 2/6/10. Was among the 15 finalists for the Hall of Fame in 2010 after being a finalist for the past four years (2006-09)
- In 2008, his five offensive linemen started all 20 games during the season including Super Bowl XLIII.
- In 2007, Arizona's offensive line ranked sixth in the NFL by allowing only 24 sacks, the lowest total for the team since 1978 (22).
- Spent 20 seasons with the Washington Redskins, the first 11 as an all-pro lineman (1981-91) and then as an assistant coach for nine seasons (1992-2000)
- In his career, his teams have earned four Super Bowl victories. Three as a player (XVII, XXII and XXVI) and one as a coach (XL).
- Earned four consecutive Pro Bowl selections (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the NFL's 1980's all-decade team.

game during the regular season to rank fifth in the NFL while also grinding out 181 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XL victory over the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Pittsburgh, Grimm molded a formidable and tough offensive front anchored by All-Pro guard Alan Faneca, who earned his sixth trip to the Pro Bowl and his fifth consecutive start in 2007, and center Jeff Hartings, who made his second Pro Bowl appearance in 2006 and developed into one of the best centers in the NFL in just six seasons.

A native of Scottdale, PA, Grimm began his NFL coaching career as Washington's tight ends coach (1992-96) before moving to coach the Redskins offensive line for four seasons (1997-2000). He is credited with the development of Washington tackles Jon Jansen and five-time Pro Bowler Chris Samuels, who each earned starting spots as rookies on the Redskins' offensive line.

SUPER BOWL SUCCESS

Grimm has appeared in six Super Bowls in his 30 years in the NFL as a player and coach, including four championships.

2005	XL	21-10 Win	Asst. Head Coach/Offensive Line/Pittsburgh Steelers
2008	XLIII	27-23 LOSS	ASST. HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE/ARIZONA CARDINALS

Grimm started 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86), was a first-team selection to the 1980s all-decade team, and an original member of Washington's renowned "Hogs" offensive line. During his playing days with the Redskins, Grimm was a teammate of Whisenhunt (1989-90).

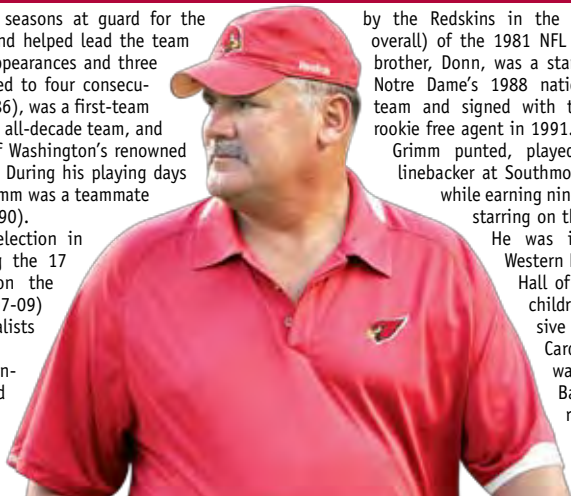

Before his HOF selection in 2010, he was among the 17 finalists for induction the past three years (2007-09) and among the 10 finalists in 2006.

An All-American center at Pitt who helped his team to a 22-2 record over his junior and senior seasons, Grimm was selected by the Redskins in the third round (69th overall) of the 1981 NFL Draft. His younger brother, Donn, was a starting linebacker on Notre Dame's 1988 national championship team and signed with the Cardinals as a rookie free agent in 1991.

Grimm punted, played quarterback and linebacker at Southmoreland High School while earning nine varsity letters and starring on the basketball team.

He was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He has four children, Chad, an offensive assistant with the Cardinals, Cody, who was drafted by Tampa Bay in the seventh-round of the 2010 NFL Draft and fraternal twins Devin and Dylan.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bill Davis enters his fourth season with the Cardinals and second as defensive coordinator after being promoted to the position on 2/18/09. Entering his 19th season as an NFL assistant, Davis originally joined the Cardinals on 1/19/07 as linebackers coach following two seasons as the San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator.

In Davis' first year as defensive coordinator with the Cardinals, his unit allowed 325 points, the fifth-lowest total for the franchise since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. The Cardinals also had 21 interceptions during the regular season, the team's highest total since intercepting 23 passes in 1994. Arizona's defense finished sixth in the NFL with 43 sacks, the third-highest total (59 in 1983, 55 in 1984) for the team since sacks became an official stat in 1982. Safety Adrian Wilson and defensive tackle Darnell Dockett were both selected as Pro Bowl starters in 2009 while free safety Antrel Rolle and cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie were also picked for the Pro Bowl.

During Davis' two seasons as linebackers coach for the Cardinals (2007-08), linebackers Karlos Dansby and Gerald Hayes both eclipsed over 100 tackles each year with Dansby leading the team in 2007 (117 tackles) and setting a new career-high in 2008 (128 tackles). During Davis' first season in Arizona, linebacker Calvin Pace also recorded over 100 tackles for the first time in his career (106) while also collecting 6.5 sacks to finish second on the team.

In 2006, the 49ers defense was highlighted with cornerback Walt Harris' first Pro Bowl selection after tying with an NFC high eight interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown.

Davis joined San Francisco after completing one season (2004) as lineback-

- Promoted to defensive coordinator on 2/18/09 after working as linebackers coach with the Cardinals for two seasons (2007-08).
- 19-year NFL assistant who has worked with seven other teams during his coaching career.
- Arizona's defense allowed 325 points during the regular season in 2009, the fifth-lowest total for the franchise since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.
- Worked for two seasons as defensive coordinator for San Francisco (2005-06) prior to joining Arizona's staff.
- Served as outside linebackers coach in Carolina (1995-98) and helped guide linebackers Kevin Greene (14.5 sacks) and Lamar Lathon (13.5 sacks) to finish first and second in the NFL in sacks while each being selected for the Pro Bowl.
- Coached linebackers for Atlanta for three seasons (2001-03) and helped Keith Brooking reach the Pro Bowl in each of those three seasons.

ers coach for the New York Giants. Prior to the season in New York, Davis spent the previous three campaigns as the Atlanta Falcons linebackers coach. During that span, linebacker Keith Brooking was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his three seasons under Davis. In 2002, Davis was instrumental in helping Atlanta's linebackers adjust to a new 3-4 defense installed by defensive coordinator Wade Phillips.

As a youngster, Davis observed as a ball boy under Dick Vermeil (Philadelphia) and Don Shula (Miami) while his father, Bill, served 13 years in the NFL, including six years as the Cleveland Browns vice president of player personnel.

After beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan State, Davis joined the NFL in 1992 as a defensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers under Bill Cowher. With a playing and coaching career primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Davis worked for three successful seasons with the Steelers on the defensive side of the ball.

As a defensive assistant coach, Davis sat in meeting rooms with a list of former and current head coaches including Cowher, Dom Capers, Marvin Lewis and Dick LeBeau.

In 1995, Davis began a four-year stretch as the outside linebackers coach with the Carolina Panthers under Capers. With Davis as their coach in 1996, linebackers Kevin Greene and Lamar Lathon finished first and second in the NFL in sacks, with 14.5 and 13.5 respectively. Each made the Pro Bowl and the second-year Panthers advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

After leaving Carolina, Davis had a pair of one-year stops, first with the Cleveland Browns (1999) as a defensive assistant/linebackers and next with the Green Bay Packers (2000) as a defensive assistant/defensive line.

A native of Youngstown, OH, Davis was a college quarterback and receiver at the University of Cincinnati from 1985-88. He also spent time in training camp as a wide receiver with the Miami Dolphins.

Davis and his wife, Sherry, have four daughters; Monica, Brooke and twins Grace and Ava and a son, Billy.

CARDINALS HELP EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS IN MEXICO

Last April, Cardinals senior director of community relations Luis Zendejas, and Rolando Cantu, manager of international business ventures, went on a mission to provide some relief to the people of San Luis, a remote Mexican farming community near Mexicali that was brutally ravaged by the earthquake on Easter Sunday.

The area, responsible for 30 percent of Mexico's wheat production, found itself flooded and ripped apart by the 7.2 quake. There had been about 900 smaller earthquakes registered in the week before the large one hit. When the big one did arrive, it burst the natural water wells and irrigation ditches, not only ruining the crops but setting the area back years.

Some 1,400 people – mainly women, children and the elderly – found their way to a nearby mountaintop plateau where makeshift tents served as housing. Cantu said the spot is so remote even the Mexican government didn't know the extent of the problem.

The two drove to the spot and delivered blankets and Cardinals gear for the displaced residents. They gave out Gatorade and basic necessities – paper plates, plastic utensils, toilet paper – that are so hard to get.

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

Eleven-year NFL assistant Mike Miller begins his fourth season with the Cardinals and second as passing game coordinator after being promoted on 2/18/09. Previously Arizona's wide receivers coach for two seasons (2007-08), Miller joined the Cardinals on 2/6/07 as an offensive assistant and was promoted to receivers coach on 3/21/07. He came to Arizona after splitting 2006 between the Berlin Thunder (quarterbacks/receivers) of NFL Europe in the spring and Robert Morris University (defensive line) in the fall. The Cardinals are the third NFL franchise Miller has worked for as an assistant after previous jobs with the Buffalo Bills and Pittsburgh Steelers.

In his first season as passing game coordinator in 2009, Miller helped guide quarterback Kurt Warner to 3,753 passing yards and 26 touchdown passes. Wide receivers Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin both eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards as Fitzgerald also tied for the league lead with 13 TD receptions, while also earning his third straight Pro Bowl selection and fourth overall.

During his two seasons as wide receivers coach (2007-08), Boldin (160 receptions for 1,891 yards and 20 TDs) and Fitzgerald (196 receptions for 2,840 yards and 22 TDs) combined for 356 receptions and 4,731 yards to go along with 42 touchdowns. The duo also combined for three Pro Bowl appearances (Fitzgerald 2007-08, Boldin 2008). Fitzgerald led the NFC for two consecutive seasons in both receptions and receiving yards (96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, 100 receptions for 1,409 yards in 2008) while also leading the NFL with 12 touchdowns in 2008. Even though Boldin missed four games due to various injuries in 2008, he still caught 89 passes for 1,038 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. Second-year receiver Steve Breaston had career-highs with 77 receptions for 1,006 yards, giving the Cardinals three 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in team history and only the fifth time in NFL history. Arizona finished the season with NFL rankings of 4th in

NOTE CARDS

- Promoted to passing game coordinator on 2/18/09 after working as wide receivers coach with the Cardinals for two seasons (2007-08).
- Helped tutor wide receivers Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald for the past three seasons. The duo combined for four Pro Bowl selections since 2007.
- In 2008, three of Miller's players went over 1,000 receiving yards (Fitzgerald-1,431, Boldin-1,038, Breaston-1,006) for the first time in team history and only the fifth time in NFL history.

total offense and 2nd in passing offense as Warner threw a franchise record 30 touchdown passes. In both of Miller's first two seasons with the Cardinals, the passing offense finished with a top five ranking in the NFL (5th in 2007).

Miller joined the Thunder in the spring of 2006 from the Buffalo Bills where he was quality control/tight ends coach in 2004 and tight ends coach in 2005. He previously served as an offensive assistant for four years with Ken Whisenhunt and Russ Grimm with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1999-2003).

The Pittsburgh, PA native got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant coaching running backs at Robert Morris University (PA) for two seasons (1997-1998). He also worked as a public relations and operations intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1994-95) and Indianapolis Colts (1996). After attending Plum Senior High School, Miller received his bachelor's degree in communications from Clarion University (PA) and his master's degree in Education from Robert Morris.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Veteran assistant coach Ron Aiken enters his fourth season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach the defensive line on 2/14/07. Aiken joined the Cardinals after spending eight seasons at the University of Iowa coaching the same position.

During his tenure with the Cardinals, Aiken has helped tutor defensive tackle Darnell Dockett to two Pro Bowl selections (2007, 2009) including earning his first starting assignment this past year. Dockett led all NFL defensive tackles with seven sacks in 2009 after previously leading the Cardinals and all NFL interior defensive linemen with nine sacks in 2007 when he tied the franchise record for sacks in a season by a defensive tackle (Mark Smith). Aiken has also helped in the development of third-year defensive end Calais Campbell who tied Dockett for the team lead with seven sacks in 2009.

Named the 2002 American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year with the Hawkeyes, Aiken joined Iowa's staff in 1999 and helped lead the Hawkeyes to six straight bowl appearances (2001-06). His defensive line finished the 2005 season ranking 29th nationally in rush defense (126 yards per game) and 22nd in scoring defense (20 points per game), finishing third in the Big Ten in both categories and fourth in total defense.

Future pros he coached while at Iowa include defensive end and two-time Pro Bowl selection (2006-07) Aaron Kampman (Green Bay), defensive end Derreck Robinson (Cleveland), nose tackle Colin Cole (Seattle), defensive end Matt Roth (Cleveland), and defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux (Atlanta).

Iowa led the Big Ten in rushing defense in 2004 and the Hawkeyes were fifth nationally in rushing defense, sixth in turnover margin and 11th in total defense.

Iowa's rushing defense ranked second in the Big Ten for three straight years before leading the league in 2004. The Hawkeyes were fifth in the nation against the run (81.9) in 2002, seventh in 2003 (92.7) and fifth again in 2004 (92.5).

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Aiken spent the 1998 season coaching linebackers at San Diego State where all three of his linebackers earned all-conference honors. He was at the University of Texas coaching defensive tackles in 1997, worked with the defensive line at Vanderbilt from 1995-96 and was at New Mexico coaching linebackers and defensive ends from 1991-94.

Aiken was the head coach at Langston (OK) from 1986-90 where his teams led the nation (NAIA Div. I) in total defense in two of his four seasons. He was special teams coordinator at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1985, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Tarkio College from 1982-84 and he coached the offensive line and special teams at Bethany College from 1980-81. Aiken began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Boiling Springs (SC) High School and in 1979 became head coach at Greenville County (VA) High School.

A graduate of North Carolina A&T, Aiken earned all-conference honors while playing guard and center for the Aggies (1973-76) and was a team captain in 1976.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from North Carolina A&T in 1977 and a master's degree in secondary education from The Citadel in 1982. He and his wife, Sheryl, have three sons: Matthew, Stephen and Joshua.

Assistant strength and conditioning coach Pete Alosi begins his third season with the Cardinals and first as a full time coach after being promoted in June, 2010. He spent his first two seasons as a staff assistant under head strength coach John Lott after being hired in February, 2008.

Alosi previously served internships with the Cleveland Browns (2006) and New York Giants (2007) before working as a sports performance coach at Arizona State University in 2007.

He played collegiately as a linebacker at Salisbury University (2000-02) before serving as a strength and conditioning intern with the Hofstra University football team in the summer of 2003. He then worked as a sports performance coach at Velocity Sports Performance from 2004-05 prior to joining the Browns.

A native of Massapequa, NY, Alosi earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Salisbury in 2004. His brother, Sal, is the head strength and conditioning coach for the New York Jets.

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

With a coaching background entering its 23rd year, Rick Courtright begins his seventh season on the Cardinals staff and fourth as the assistant defensive backs coach. As the defensive quality control coach for three seasons (2004-06) prior to his current assignment, Courtright was instrumental in helping to guide strong safety Adrian Wilson to his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2006.

Wilson also had eight sacks in 2005, the most of any defensive back in NFL history, and was again recognized with Pro Bowl selections in 2008 and 2009. Cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and safety Antrel Rolle also made their Pro Bowl debuts in '09.

A native of Miami, FL, Courtright began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at Hendricks (MN) High School in 1988, before becoming the head coach at Teton County High School in Driggs, ID for two seasons (1989-90). He was then part of the University of Washington staff in 1991-92 that produced two Pac-10 Conference titles, a pair of Rose Bowl appearances, and the 1991 National Championship.

Following his two seasons as assistant offensive line coach at Washington, he joined the staff at Minnesota-Morris as defensive line coach, strength coach, and academic coordinator in 1993. He coached defensive ends at Ohio University in 1994, served as outside linebackers coach at Idaho State (1995) and as linebackers coach, tight ends coach, special teams coordinator, and recruiting coordinator at the University of Idaho (1996-99) before serving one season (2000) as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Murray State. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Courtright spent three seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Western Illinois (2001-03) where he was instrumental in guiding the Leathernecks to a Gateway Conference Championship in 2002 and postseason berths in 2002-03.

Courtright was an All-State linebacker at Miami Christian High School, and played college football at Wheaton (IL) College where he earned a degree in physical education in 1983, which he later complemented with a degree in sports pedagogy (the science of teaching) from Idaho in 1999. Courtright has been married to his wife Lois for 26 years and the couple resides in Phoenix.

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Chad Grimm enters his second season with the Cardinals as an offensive quality control coach after joining the team on 3/2/09.

Born in Fairfax, VA, Grimm played four seasons (2003-06) at Virginia Tech as a linebacker and special teams performer where he appeared in 16 career games. After playing in eight games as a freshman on special teams, Grimm appeared in one as a sophomore, four as a junior and three as a senior.

Grimm lettered for three seasons as an outside linebacker and long snapper at Oakton High School (Vienna, VA). He collected over 100 tackles and 5.5

sacks during his senior season including notching 10 tackles, a sack, and a blocked punt that was returned for a touchdown in the regional championship game. He was also an all-district player and state champion in lacrosse at Oakton.

Grimm's father, Russ, is an assistant coach with the Cardinals and Hall of Fame offensive lineman who played 11 seasons with the Washington Redskins (1981-91). His brother Cody, was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the seventh-round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

He graduated from Virginia Tech with a bachelor's degree in Apparel, Housing and Resource Management in 2008.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing their clocks forward or setting them back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals' local kickoff times during the season.

In 2010, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 14) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 7). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

Donnie Henderson is entering his 10th season as an NFL assistant and first with the Cardinals after being hired to coach defensive backs on 2/22/10. Henderson comes to the Cardinals with 26 years of coaching experience including NFL jobs with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Detroit Lions, New York Jets and Baltimore Ravens.

Henderson spent the 2009 season as a volunteer defensive assistant with the California Redwoods of the UFL. He was the defensive backs coach with Jacksonville in 2008 after working as a consultant to Cincinnati Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis in 2007. He previously worked as the defensive coordinator for Detroit in 2006 as he helped the Lions defense rank 10th in the NFL with 30 takeaways.

He spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator for the New York Jets (2004-05) where he helped the defense improve from 21st to 7th in the NFL in total defense after his first season. The Jets also improved from 23rd to 4th in points allowed and 28th to 5th in rushing defense. The team's 261 points allowed in 2004 was good enough for 2nd in the NFL (Pittsburgh, 251) and ranked third-best in team history. They also had a league leading seven second-half shutouts and held nine teams under 100 yards rushing. Rookie linebacker Jonathan Vilma was named the 2004 AP Defensive Rookie of the Season. In 2005, the Jets finished second in the NFL in total passing yards allowed (172.2 avg.) and finished 5th with 21 interceptions.

Henderson began his NFL coaching career with Baltimore in 1999 as the assistant defensive backs coach until being promoted in 2000 to coach defensive backs. During Henderson's tenure with the Ravens from 1999-2003, Baltimore ranked second in the NFL with 88 interceptions and he tutored a secondary that included Pro Bowlers S Rod Woodson, CB Chris McAlister and S Ed Reed.

In 2000, Baltimore set NFL defensive records for fewest points allowed in a 16-game season (165), fewest rushing yards allowed (970) while also setting franchise records with 23 interceptions and leading the NFL with 49 takeaways. The Ravens secondary was responsible for 12 interceptions, six forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.

Prior to joining the Ravens in 1999, Henderson was an assistant for 16 years at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater Utah State (1983-85) where he also coached linebackers for three seasons (1986-1988) before coaching defensive backs and serving as recruiting coordinator at the University of Idaho in 1989.

He then spent two seasons at California (1990-91) as linebackers coach before joining the Arizona State staff where he coached safeties (1992-94) and defensive backs (1995-97). During Henderson's tenure with Arizona State, former Cardinals safety Pat Tillman played linebacker (1994-97) for the Sun Devils. He spent the 1998 season as the defensive backs and assistant head coach at the University of Houston prior to joining the NFL.

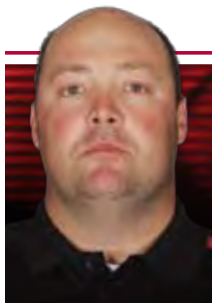

Henderson played two seasons at Santa Monica Junior College before transferring to Utah State where he earned first-team Big West Conference honors as a senior cornerback in 1979. He was selected by the Detroit Lions in the 10th round (251st overall) of the 1980 NFL Draft. Born in Baltimore, MD, Henderson attended Locke High School (Los Angeles, CA).

TIGHT ENDS

Tight ends coach Freddie Kitchens enters his fourth season on the Cardinals coaching staff after beginning his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 2006. Kitchens joined the Cowboys staff with seven years of collegiate coaching experience following a successful stint as a quarterback at the University of Alabama. In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that captured three conference titles and played in seven bowl games.

In 2007, Kitchens' tight ends (Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick, Troy Bienemann) helped the Cardinals finish with the 5th best passing offense in the NFL as well as helping to record 32 passing touchdowns, a new franchise record. As a group, the eight touchdowns caught by the tight ends were the most since 1988 and the trio also recorded six red zone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second best red zone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

With Dallas in 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting in all 16 games.

Kitchens came to Dallas after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, he guided Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round NFL Draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons, to a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped implement the West Coast offense that gained tight end Eric Butler All-SEC freshman recognition.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas from 2001-03 and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles.

In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. During his previous two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens joined the North Texas staff after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tiger staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. He ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions upon his departure. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1994 Citrus Bowl, and the 1996 Outback Bowl.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters Bennett and Camden.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

John Lott, a 15-year NFL assistant, enters his fourth season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 1/19/07. Previously with the Cleveland Browns (2005-06) prior to joining Arizona, Lott served in the same capacity with the New York Jets for eight years (1997-2004) where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt in 2000.

A native of Denton, TX, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. A fixture at the NFL scouting combine each year in Indianapolis, Lott was recognized in February of 2009 at the combine as the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He was also honored as the 2001 Powermag ALL-NFL Team Top Strength Coach by Power Magazine.

During his first season in Arizona, Lott was responsible for overseeing the redesign of the team's weight room. The weight room was completely made over during a six-week span at the cost of several hundred thousand dollars to update equipment and the overall look.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance. He is also responsible for working with injured players on secondary rehabilitation programs.

He originally joined the Jets in 1997 after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston for six years (1991-96) where he supervised the strength and conditioning program for all 14 varsity sports with a primary focus on football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field and the nationally ranked men's golf team. During his tenure at Houston, Lott designed and oversaw the construction of a state-of-the-art 17,000-square foot weight room (the largest in the country at the time of its completion).

Prior to his work at Houston, Lott served two years (1989-90) in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of North Texas, overseeing all 11 varsity sports programs as the school's first strength coach. Lott has a strong track background, having worked as the strength and conditioning coach of the Santa Monica Track Club and trained Olympic gold medalists Carl Lewis, Leroy Burrell and Mike Marsh. Lott also worked with the 1992 and 1996 Indonesian National track teams, as well as with select members of the Japanese National track team in preparation for the Olympics in 1992 and 1996. Overall, the athletes he tutored garnered six world records and 12 Olympic medals.

He played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. Lott was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas where he earned four varsity letters and was named all-conference twice and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and was twice voted a team captain by his teammates and graduated as the strongest man in school history.

Lott earned his bachelor's degree in Corporate Fitness in 1988 with minors in Biology and Kinesiology and later earned his master's degree in Physical Education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus. Lott and his wife Kim have a son, Jasper Ryan, and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Eight-year NFL assistant John McNulty begins his second season with the Cardinals as wide receivers coach after being hired on 2/18/09. McNulty came to Arizona after working five seasons at Rutgers, coaching the last three seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks after originally joining the staff as the wide receivers coach in 2004. McNulty has previously worked in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars (1998-2002) and Dallas Cowboys (2003).

With the Cardinals in 2009, McNulty's top pupil, Larry Fitzgerald, had another Pro Bowl season as he collected 97 receptions for 1,092 yards and an NFL high 13 touchdowns, earning his fourth overall Pro Bowl selection and third consecutive. He became the first receiver in franchise history with three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in addition to becoming the first player in Cardinals history with three straight seasons of 10+ touchdown receptions.

McNulty began his tenure at Rutgers in 2004 as the wide receivers coach before taking on the duties of assistant offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2006. In 2006, McNulty took over the play call duties and the Scarlet Knights finished the season ranked 12th in the country with an 11-2 record. The following season, McNulty was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks and Rutgers set school records for total offense (5,841 yards), points scored (421) and first downs (295). They also became the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teal-3,147 yards), a 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice-2,069 yards), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt-1,232 yards, Tiquan Underwood-1,100 yards) as all five players are currently in the NFL. During McNulty's five seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights posted a record of 38-24 and won three consecutive bowl games while he was in charge of play calling.

Prior to joining Rutgers, McNulty spent six seasons in the NFL, the first five in Jacksonville as an offensive quality control coach (1998-2000) and then as wide receivers coach (2000-02). While in Jacksonville, McNulty worked with one of the NFL's top receiving tandems in Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. During the 2000-01 seasons, the pair combined for 390 receptions and 4,903 yards, while Smith earned All-Pro honors both years. In 2002, Smith had 80 receptions for 1,027 yards, his seventh consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season. McNulty helped Jacksonville to playoff appearances in 1998 (11-5 record) and in 1999 (14-2 record).

McNulty then spent the 2003 season with the Dallas Cowboys as the wide receivers coach as the Cowboys went 10-6 and earned a playoff berth.

Before making the jump to the NFL, McNulty spent three seasons (1995-97) at Connecticut working with wide receivers and special teams.

McNulty was a safety at Penn State (1988-90) and was a member of two Nittany Lion bowl teams. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the wide receivers at the University of Michigan in 1991. Michigan won two Big Ten titles and appeared in four bowl games including two Rose Bowl appearances during his time in Ann Arbor. In 1994, McNulty worked with standout wide receivers and future NFL players Amani Toomer and Mercury Hayes.

After attending Abington Heights High School (Clarks Summit, PA), McNulty received his bachelor's degree in Business Management from Penn State in 1990.

QUARTERBACKS

Former NFL quarterback Chris Miller begins his second season with the Cardinals as quarterbacks coach after being hired on 2/18/09. A veteran of 10 years in the league with three teams (Atlanta Falcons 1987-93, St. Louis Rams 1994-95, Denver Broncos 1999), Miller is a former first-round draft choice (13th overall) by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1987 NFL Draft out of the University of Oregon.

In Miller's first season with the Cardinals, he worked with quarterback Kurt Warner who finished the 2009 season with 3,753 passing yards and 26 TD passes, becoming the first quarterback in team history to throw for 20+ touchdown passes and +3,000 passing yards in three consecutive years.

Miller spent seven seasons as a player with the Falcons before signing with the Rams as an unrestricted free agent in 1994. He sat out of football for three years due to medical advice following concussions, but returned in 1999 with the Broncos for one season before finishing his career. A former teammate of Ken Whisenhunt while in Atlanta, Miller was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1991 season when he threw for 3,103 yards and 26 TDs for Atlanta. He also played in two postseason games for the Falcons in 1991 and threw for 469 yards and three touchdowns.

He finished his NFL career with 1,580 completions on 2,892 attempts for 19,320 yards and 123 touchdowns in 98 games played (92 starts). He also threw for nine 300-yard games during his 10 seasons in the league.

Following his playing career, Miller served as an assistant coach at Sheldon High School, Churchill High School and Marist High School before being named the head coach of South Eugene (OR) High School in 2002 in his hometown. Miller led South Eugene to four straight playoff appearances after the school had 11 consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival. He coached there for five years (2002-06). Beginning in 2006, he served as the executive director of Kidsports, a youth sports organization which provides athletic opportunities for 17,000 children from preschool through high school in his native Eugene and surrounding areas.

During that time, Miller gained NFL coaching experience with the Cardinals as he served as a coaching intern under Whisenhunt during Arizona's training camp in the summer of 2007.

As a collegiate QB at Oregon, Miller broke 13 school records held by NFL greats Dan Fouts, Bob Berry, and Norm Van Brocklin. As a senior, Miller set school marks for passing yards (2,503), completions (216), completion percentage (60.7), and total offense (2,549). He became the first Pac-10 quarterback to earn back-to-back first-team all conference honors (1985-86) since Jim Plunkett at Stanford (1969-70). Miller finished his career with 6,681 passing yards, 42 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns. He was named the MVP of the Hula Bowl and was the Offensive Player of the Game in the Senior Bowl in 1987.

An All-State prep player in football, basketball and baseball at Sheldon High School (Eugene, OR), Miller led the Irish to an 8-1 record and trip to the AAA playoffs as a senior. A former Punt, Pass, and Kick finalist at age eight, Miller was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1983 and the Seattle Mariners in 1985. He played shortstop for Bellingham of the Northwest League in 1986 and batted .556. Miller was inducted into the University of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the state of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and Sheldon High School's Hall of Honor in 2008.

Miller and his wife Lori have six children, daughters Jessie and McKayla, and sons Dillon, Mitchell, Matthew, and Michael.

RUNNING BACKS

Veteran collegiate assistant Tommie Robinson begins his first season with the Cardinals and fourth in the NFL after being named running backs coach on 2/5/10. A 16-year assistant in the college ranks who has coached in eight bowl games, Robinson comes to the Cardinals after working the previous three seasons as running backs coach for the University of Miami (FL).

Robinson joined the Hurricanes after working in 2006 as the running backs coach for the University of Memphis. Prior to that he coached four seasons at Georgia Tech where he worked as an assistant under Chan Gailey, for whom he played for at Troy State. At Georgia Tech, Robinson coached wide receivers for one season (2002) before tutoring tight ends for the next three seasons (2003-05). During the 2002 season, he worked with standout wide receivers Kerry Watkins and Will Glover, who both finished their careers among the top-five receivers in Georgia Tech history. He spent the 2001 season as running backs coach at Oklahoma State where he worked with future NFL running back Tatum Bell.

Prior to coaching at Oklahoma State, Robinson spent three seasons in the NFL as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys coaching under Gailey. With the Cowboys, Robinson worked with the team's wide receivers as well as helping out with special teams.

While in Dallas, he worked with future Hall of Famers Michael Irvin, Emmitt Smith, and Troy Aikman. Before joining the Cowboys, Robinson spent three months working with the running backs at UNLV (1998), four seasons coaching wide receivers at TCU (1994-97) and two years at Utah State (1992-93) coaching running backs.

Following his collegiate playing days, Robinson coached at Woodham High School (Pensacola, FL) in 1986-87 and his alma mater Central High School (Phenix City, AL) from 1987-90 before taking his first college job as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1991.

Throughout his various college stops, Robinson received plenty of experience in the NFL as he served four different minority coaching internships with the New Orleans Saints, St. Louis Rams, Dallas Cowboys, and Miami Dolphins.

A native of Phenix City, AL, Robinson played for Gailey at Troy State where he was part of the 1984 Division II National Championship team. He was a three-year starter at strong safety for the Trojans and served as team captain.

Robinson earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Troy State in 1985. He and his wife Lartonyar have three children, sons Dantrell and Trey and daughter, Tawanda.

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Ryan Slowik enters his second season with the Cardinals as a defensive quality control coach after joining the team on 3/2/09. The sixth-year NFL assistant came to the Cardinals after working four seasons with the Denver Broncos (2005-08). Slowik joined the Broncos in 2005 as a defensive assistant and worked two seasons in that capacity before working as a special teams assistant in 2007 and as the assistant defensive backs coach in 2008.

In 2007, Slowik assisted in the instruction of Denver's special teams. Broncos kicker Jason Elam became the first kicker since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to convert four walk-off, game winning field goals in the same season with two in regulation and two in overtime. In 2005-06, Slowik worked closely with the Broncos defensive backs as cornerback Champ Bailey was the runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions.

A former strong safety in college at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh (2002-03), Slowik began his playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to UW-Oshkosh where he started eight games and collected 62 tackles.

After an injury ended his playing career, Slowik worked as a student assistant secondary coach for UW-Oshkosh in 2004. His secondary played a key role in the Titans posting the ninth best turnover margin in Division III that season.

Slowik's father, Bob, is an 18-year NFL assistant who currently is the defensive backs coach for the Washington Redskins.

Slowik was born in Gainesville, FL.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Twenty-year NFL coaching veteran Kevin Spencer begins his fourth season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach special teams on 1/19/07. Immediately prior to the Cardinals, Spencer was with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2002-06 and was selected as the 2003 NFL "Special Teams Coach of the Year" by the league's special teams coaches.

In 2009, the Cardinals special teams excelled as punter Ben Graham tied the NFL record with 42 punts inside the 20-yard line and kicker Neil Rackers made an NFL best 94.7 percent of his field goal attempts. Graham and special teams captain Sean Morey were both named Pro Bowl first alternates and rookie running back LaRod Stephens-Howling led the team with 23 special teams tackles in addition to returning a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown.

In 2008, Morey was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the unit with 22 tackles. One of the Cardinals more memorable highlights of the 2008 season came from Morey as he blocked a Mat McBriar punt in overtime against the Dallas Cowboys which was returned three yards by Monty Beisel for the victory. Rackers completed his franchise record fourth consecutive season of over 100 points as he collected 119 for the season which was good for second in team history.

In 2005, Spencer guided the Steelers special teams to one of the best units in the NFL. Pittsburgh posted two punt returns for touchdowns in 2005, marking the second time the team accomplished the feat over the course of his five-year tenure with the Steelers. The unit also ranked as one of the best in net punting average, allowing a 34.5 average for 4th in the AFC.

Steelers punt returner Antwan Randle El set a team record with four punt returns for touchdowns during his time with the Steelers (2002-05) while kicker Jeff Reed's 80.0% (112 of 140) career field goal percentage under Spencer was good for second in team history (Norm Johnson, 82.7%).

Prior to joining the Steelers in 2002, Spencer spent four seasons in the same capacity with the Indianapolis Colts (1998-2001). While at Indianapolis, Spencer worked with Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt, regarded as one of the top kickers in the NFL. In 2001, Vanderjagt ranked 1st in the AFC in scoring (125 points) and 2nd in the NFL. During the 2000 season, Vanderjagt connected on 25-of-27 field goals to rank 2nd in the AFC in scoring and tied for 5th in the NFL with 121 points. Under Spencer's guidance, Vanderjagt was the first player in Colts history to post four straight 100+ point seasons.

Spencer also served three seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the special teams and quality control coach (1995), assistant linebackers coach (1996) and a defensive assistant (1997). He started his NFL coaching career in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

The Queens, NY native began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at the State University of New York at Cortland where he coached wrestling and lacrosse. He coached at Detroit Country Day High School (1976-79) in Birmingham, MI, before becoming a graduate assistant at Cornell (1979-80).

Spencer then coached for one season at the Gillman School in Baltimore, MD before holding positions as the head freshman coach (1981-85) and offensive coordinator (1986) at Ithaca College. He served five years (1987-91) as the head coach at Wesleyan (CT) University where he compiled a 14-26 overall record, including a 6-2 mark in 1990. While at Wesleyan, Spencer coached current Cleveland Browns head coach Eric Mangini for two seasons (1989-90).

As a collegian, Spencer played football and lacrosse at Springfield (MA) College from 1972-75 and earned a master's degree from SUNY-Cortland in 1976.

Spencer and his wife, Rosemarie, have two sons Timothy and Jack.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Stevie Baggs and his mother, Lola Robinson, established the CETA Foundation (Creating Empowerment Through Autonomy) in 2004 as a leading advocacy proponent of community awareness, neighborhood preparedness and individual self-sufficiency. Through informational programs, educational workshops, seminars and interactive activities, the CETA Foundation provides individuals, neighborhoods and communities with available resources that lead to self-empowerment, which aids in self-respect and self-worth thus being a contributing member of society.

Baggs has been active in contributing and fundraising for the foundation by hosting the first annual "Stevie Baggs Professional Football Camp and Life Skills Clinic" for kids from the Atlanta Boys & Girls Club in 2009. The foundation also hosted an HIV/AIDS Awareness cocktail reception, golf challenge and bowling competition last year to raise funds for local Atlanta area HIV/AIDS assistance programs.

Last year, while in Saskatchewan, Baggs was selected as the winner of the "Mosaic Outstanding Community Service Award," given annually to the member of the Saskatchewan Roughriders who provides the biggest contributions to the community. He was a regular visitor and guest speaker at various Canadian charitable events as well making appearances at multiple Canadian high school and elementary schools.

THREE WITH 75

In addition to being part of the WR trio that each recorded 1,000 yards in '08, Steve Breaston joined Fitzgerald and Boldin in establishing another milestone. All three receivers posted at least 75 receptions on the year, marking just the fifth time in NFL history that three players on the same team hauled in 75+ receptions in a season. It was just the second time a trio of wide receivers had accomplished the feat.

THREE PLAYERS WITH 75+ RECEPTIONS IN A SEASON

2009	Steelers	WR Hines Ward (95), WR Santonio Holmes (79), TE Heath Miller (76)
2008*	Cardinals	WR Larry Fitzgerald (96), WR Anquan Boldin (89), WR Steve Breaston (77)

NOTE CARDS

- The Cardinals second-round selection was taken with the 50th overall pick after leaving Miami (FL) following his junior season.
- Had a breakout year in his first season as a starter in 2009, tying for the team lead with 7.0 sacks, 53 tackles, five passes defended and also blocked two FG attempts while starting 15 of 16 regular season games.
- Named to the 2009 USA Today All-Joe team as a defensive end.
- Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after blocking a Jacksonville FG attempt in the second quarter that was recovered by Antrel Rolle and returned 83 yards for a TD in week two of the 2009 season.
- Despite suffering a broken thumb in the 2009 regular season finale that required surgery, appeared in both postseason contests and recorded five tackles while wearing a cast on his injured hand.
- Following the 2008 season, attended the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at the Harvard Business School
- At 6-8, Campbell was the tallest lineman ever to suit up for the Hurricanes and was the tallest defensive lineman in the 2008 draft.

2008: As a rookie played in all 16 regular season games and four postseason games (including Super Bowl) as a reserve DE and special teams contributor, finishing fourth on the team with 16 special teams tackles during the regular season ... collected first career tackle in NFL debut @ SF (9/7) ... in just seven plays on defense registered three solo tackles as well as first career special teams tackle vs. Mia (9/14) ... in just 16 plays on defense, registered three tackles, one QB pressure and first career forced fumble vs. Dal (10/12) ... returned one kickoff 16 yards and recorded two tackles on nine defensive plays @ Car (10/26) ... registered a career-high three special teams tackles @ StL (11/2) ... recorded career-high four tackles and one tackle for loss @ NE (12/21) ... played in first career playoff game vs. Atl (1/3/09) ... registered first career pass defended @ Car (1/10/09) ... recorded one tackle and one special teams tackle in each of the four postseason games and his four special teams tackles tied for the team-high in the postseason.

FILLING IN NICELY

When Antonio Smith left for the Houston Texans following the 2008 season, second-year DE Calais Campbell was tabbed to take over the starting role in '09.

He proved himself more than capable of handling the job. Starting 15 of 16 games, Campbell totaled 53 tackles, along with 7.0 sacks, five passes defended and a forced fumble. His 7.0 sacks tied with Darnell Dockett for the team lead. During the 2008 season, Smith, the player Campbell replaced along the line, recorded 54 tackles, 3.5 sacks and no passes defended.

Campbell played particularly well towards the end of the season. Against the Rams in week 16, he recorded three tackles, a tackle for loss, a sack and a QB pressure. In week 14 in San Francisco he had another outstanding game when he recorded five tackles, a tackle for loss and his sixth sack of the season (second in as many games).

Campbell's contributions weren't limited to defense. In week two in Jacksonville, he blocked a 38-yard FG attempt, his first of two blocked FGs on the season. The blocked kick was recovered and returned 83 yards for a TD by Antrel Rolle. His second blocked FG attempt of the season came in week five against the Houston Texans.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowl defensive tackle Darnell Dockett's impact in community was evident this past year as he hosted his first "Happy Holidays with Nine-0" in addition to volunteering at various kids camps and other charitable appearances.

Dockett's "Happy Holidays with Nine-0" allowed the defensive tackle and 10 of his teammates to host 50 kids from South Phoenix to a holiday party and shopping spree at Toys "R" Us. Each child was given money to shop for themselves and for their family to provide a happy holiday season.

He also joined Minnesota Vikings tight end Visanthe Shiancoe to host a free football camp for 300 high school students in his hometown state of Maryland last June. Dockett and Shiancoe hosted the all-day camp which included a Q&A session with the players as well as lunch and football fundamentals broken down by position. Dockett also joined former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and wounded soldiers from Walter Reed Army Medical Center for a lunch cruise along the Potomac River aboard the USS Sequoia last June. Dockett was able to visit with the soldiers and thank them for their service. His connection to the veterans also extends to the season as he donates tickets to each Cardinals home game to those who have returned from combat.

one sack and two QB hits vs. Car (10/14) ... led defensive line with 10 tackles and career-high nine unassisted tackles as well as two sacks and three QB pressures @ TB (11/4) ... recorded three QB hits and recovered a Jon Kitna fumble at the end of the third quarter that would lead to a Cards TD to make it 31-14 vs. Det (11/11); helped hold Lions to -18 rushing yards, the lowest total in the modern era ... recorded one QB pressure, one QB hit and one sack vs. StL (12/30) to give him nine sacks on the season.

2006: A 16-game starter for the second consecutive season ... recovered a TE Vernon Davis fumble in the first quarter of the season opener vs. SF (9/10) which set up a TD that gave the Cards a 21-7 lead ... had a career and game-high 12 tackles @ Sea (9/17); sacked Matt Hasselbeck on the first snap of the game, his fifth career sack, and added a tackle for loss @ Sea (9/17) ... paced all defensive linemen with five tackles, including one for a loss vs. StL (9/24) while helping to hold RB Steven Jackson to a 2.6-yard rushing average ... signed a five-year contract extension on 10/13 that will keep him under contract with the Cardinals through 2011 ... had an outstanding performance vs. Chi (10/16) on Monday Night Football, recording three tackles, an INT and a fumble recovery while helping to hold the Bears to 34 yards rushing ... paced the defensive line for the fifth time in '06 with a solid effort vs. Sea (12/10) when he totaled seven tackles, one tackle for a loss and a Matt Hasselbeck sack which forced a fumble that was recovered by the Cardinals ... had one pass defended, two QB pressures and two QB hits, while part of a defensive line that limited RB Frank Gore, the NFC's leading rusher, to just 51 yards rushing @ SF (12/24).

2005: Started all 16 games at under tackle ... recorded both a sack and an INT of QB Marc Bulger in the home opener vs. StL (9/18); picked off Bulger on a fumbled exchange between Bulger and Steven Jackson and sacked him to end the first half ... recorded five solo stops including one for a loss and split a sack of QB Billy Volek with DE Chike Okefor vs. Ten (10/23) ... recorded four tackles and forced a fumble @ SF (12/4) ... recorded four tackles vs. Was (12/11) and @ Hou (12/18) ... recorded seven tackles and a pass defended vs. Phi (12/24).

2004: Started every game but one (@ Sea 12/26) at under tackle ... recorded his first career start in his NFL debut @ StL (9/12) while notching two solo tackles ... led the team in total tackles with seven @ Atl (9/26), also recorded a forced fumble when he stopped Falcons RB Warrick Dunn on the Atlanta 17-yard line ... tallied four tackles, and his first career sack against 49ers QB Tim Rattay @ SF (10/10) ... recorded his second sack of the season on Dolphins QB Jay Fiedler @ Mia (11/7); on third-and-goal from the Arizona four yard-line, sacked Fiedler for a loss of seven yards which forced the Dolphins to kick a FG; finished the game with two tackles and a QB pressure ... recorded five tackles and one QB hit @ Car (11/21) ... recorded two tackles and added a half-sack and one QB pressure vs. NYJ (11/28) ... had a career day in the 2004 season finale vs. TB (1/2), recording two tackles for loss, a sack of QB Chris Simms, an INT which he returned 20 yards, even as his helmet was pulled off by a Buccaneer; also recorded a fumble recovery of a botched snap by Chris Simms in the third quarter which set up a Cardinals FG attempt; became only

MAKING HIS CASE

As he showed with his three sack performance in Super Bowl XLIII against the Steelers, being selected to start in his second career Pro Bowl and being named second-team All-Pro in '09, Darnell Dockett is a dominant force on the Cardinals defense.

Dockett matched his Super Bowl XLIII record in Tennessee in week 12 of '09 when he collected a regular season career-high 3.0 sacks of QB Vince Young. His previous regular season best was 2.5 sacks vs. Pittsburgh on 9/30/07. Dockett finished the Titans game with six tackles, 3.0 sacks, four QB hits, and three tackles for loss.

After adding his first INT since 2006 against the 49ers on Monday Night in week 13, Dockett finished the 2009 season with 57 tackles, 7.0 sacks, an INT and a career-high 15 tackles for loss.

Dockett's 7.0 sacks were the most in the NFL among defensive tackles in '09.

Since coming into the league in 2004, there aren't many players at his position that have dominated the way Dockett has.

Dating back to 2004, no player at his position has appeared in more games (96) than Dockett. He has started every game over the last five years for Arizona and has an ongoing streak of 81 consecutive starts. Dockett has started 95 of 96 games in his six NFL seasons and has never missed a contest. The only game he did not start came in his rookie season (12/20/04 vs. Seattle) when the Cards opened the game with five DBs.

Since 2007, Dockett is among the league leaders in many categories at the defensive tackle position. Below is a look at Dockett's sack total since then compared to some of the more well-known defenders at defensive tackle.

AN UNCLE'S INSPIRATION

Faced with unspeakable tragedy at an early age, Darnell Dockett remembers a time when he thought he was more likely to end up in prison or dead than in the NFL. He credits his uncle, Kevin, as the one individual responsible for turning his life around.

At the age of 13, Darnell arrived home to find the body of his mother, Cheryl Hambrick, who had been killed by a gunshot to the head. Shortly thereafter, Darnell moved from Decatur, GA to Maryland to be with his father, Darnell Sr., who was dying of pancreatic cancer.

Only a few months after moving in with his father, Darnell Sr. passed away and Darnell became an orphan. That's when Kevin Dockett, his father's brother, took him into his Burtonsville, MD home and probably saved his life. Additional challenges would follow but he credits his uncle with providing a foundation and instilling a sense of perspective that enabled him to meet and move past each of them.

Tattooed on Darnell's right forearm is a poem of gratitude to his uncle:

*For believing in me
when no one else would.
When the odds were against me, beside me you stood.
For being my friend,
brother, confidant and father.
Because of you I know blood is thicker than water.
Words can't express my gratitude, nor any amount of money.
From the bottom of my heart,
thank you and I love you Donny*

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals third-round selection (81st overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft, has appeared in 16 regular season games and four postseason games (one start) in his first two NFL seasons.

2009: After battling injuries during training camp, came on late in the season, playing in nine games and both postseason contests ... inactive (ribs) vs. SF (9/13) ... inactive for the next six games ... with Anquan Boldin (ankle) out with an injury, saw first action of the season, registering four receptions for 31 yards @ Chi (11/8) ... hauled in a 20-yard reception to convert a 3rd-and-4 from the AZ 13-yard line with 2:47 left and Arizona up by eight points @ StL (11/22) ... recorded a career-long 29-yard reception as part of a team-high 41 yards receiving @ SF (12/14); marked the Cardinals longest play of the game ... registered a career-high two special teams tackles @ Det (12/20) ... recorded first career TD and totaled 43 yards on two receptions vs. StL (12/27) ... logged his first career start as part of a three WR set and saw increased role with Boldin injured, registering six receptions for a career-high 77 yards and two TDs in the Wild Card matchup vs. GB (1/10/10) ... returned to his home state and led the Cardinals with a career-best eight receptions for 68 yards @ NO (1/16/10); after not catching a TD pass in his first 16 games (regular and postseason) he had three in his last four games.

2008: Struggled with injuries during his rookie year playing in only nine of 20 games ... after missing most of training camp with a hamstring injury was inactive for the first four games of the season ... in first NFL game registered six receptions for 42 yards vs. Buf (10/5); first two career receptions came on third downs and resulted in first downs ... inactive (groin) @ StL (11/2) ... inactive for the next four games ... saw time in place of WR Steve Breaston who left the game near the end of the second quarter with a rib injury, but returned in the third quarter vs. StL (12/7) ... for the second straight week saw increased role due to an injury to Boldin and regis-

NOTE CARDS

- After injuries derailed most of his rookie season in 2008 and early in 2009, the Cardinals third-round pick (81st overall selection) from the 2008 NFL draft broke out as a receiver near the end of the 2009 season.
- In his last four games of the '09 season (final two regular season games and two postseason contests), totaled 20 receptions for 216 yards and three TDs after totaling 26 receptions for 229 yards and no TDs in the first 16 games (regular and postseason) of his NFL career.
- In the '09 Wild Card matchup against the Packers, receiving his first career start (regular or postseason) as the third wide receiver, totaled six receptions for 77 yards and two TDs.

tered four receptions for 29 yards including a season long 12-yard reception and first career special teams tackle vs. Sea (12/28) ... saw first career postseason action, helping to fill in for the injured Boldin (hamstring), and recorded first career playoff reception @ Car (1/10/09) ... saw action at receiver, but did not record any statistics in the NFC Championship win vs. Phi (1/19/09) ... DNP in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pit (2/1/09).

COLLEGE:

Played in 47 games (24 starts) and finished third in LSU history in career receiving TDs (20), fourth in career receptions (160), and ninth in career receiving yards (1,943) ... will go down in LSU lore as having one of the greatest catches in school history with his 39-yard TD reception from JaMarcus Russell late in the fourth quarter against Arizona State in the 2005 season opener; the catch came on a fourth-and-10 situation and sent the Tigers to the victory over the Sun Devils in what was LSU's first game after Hurricane Katrina ... as a senior, led LSU's National Championship team with 57 receptions for 525 yards and five TDs despite missing five games with a groin injury ... finished off his college career in grand fashion, leading the Tigers with seven receptions for 57 yards and a TD in the BCS title game vs. Ohio State ... played in 13 games (six starts) as a junior and finished the season ranked second on the team with 59 catches for 772 yards and eight TDs ... named to the All-SEC second team by the league coaches as a return specialist and accounted for a team-best 1,032 all-purpose yards (772 receiving, 202 kickoff returns, 59 rushing) for an average of 79.4 per game ... played in 12 games (five starts) as a sophomore and finished the season with 26 catches for 389 yards and five TDs ... appeared in all 12 games with three starts as a true freshman.

PERSONAL:

Full name Early Joseph Doucet III ... attended St. Martinville (LA) High School where he was regarded as the best WR in the country and top prospect in Louisiana by College Football News as a senior ... finished his high school career with 7,104 all-purpose yards and 79 TDs, including running for 3,592 yards on 470 carries and 52 TDs ... earned All-American first-team honors from Parade Magazine as senior after rushing for 850 yards and passing for over 750 yards while accounting for 30 TDs, despite suffering from a hamstring injury ... was also a standout basketball player, helping the Tigers win the Class 4A State Basketball Championship as a sophomore ... ## 11 WIDE RECEIVER

NOTE CARDS

- Earned his third consecutive and fourth overall Pro Bowl selection in 2009. Became the first Cardinals player since Aeneas Williams (1994-99) to be selected to the Pro Bowl three consecutive seasons and tied Mel Gray (1974-77) for the most Pro Bowl selections by a Cardinals wide receiver. Earned MVP honors in the 2008 Pro Bowl in the NFC's 30-21 victory over the AFC.
- For the second consecutive season, set a single-season-high and tied for the NFL lead with 13 receiving TDs in 2009. Became the first player to lead the NFL in receiving TDs in back-to-back seasons since Terrell Owens accomplished the feat in 2001-02.
- With 13 TD receptions in 2009, became the first player in franchise history to record 10+ TDs in three consecutive seasons. Recorded 12 TD receptions in 2009 and 10 in '07. Now has 59 TD receptions for his career, the third-highest total in franchise history, trailing only Roy Green (66) and Sonny Randle (60).
- With 1,092 receiving yards in 2009, recorded his fourth career 1,000-yard season and third in a row, becoming the first player in franchise history to record 1,000+ yards in three consecutive campaigns. He also joined Randy Moss, Torry Holt, Chad Ochocinco and Anquan Boldin as the only active players to reach 1,000+ receiving yards four times in their first six seasons.
- Against the Lions in Week 15 of the '09 season, reached 7,000 receiving yards for his career. At 26 years, 111 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone, surpassing the previous record held by Randy Moss (26 years, 220 days old).
- With 159 receiving yards in the 2009 postseason, Fitzgerald has 705 receiving yards in his first six postseason games, second in NFL history behind Carolina's Steve Smith (706).
- With his two TD receptions in the Wild Card contest vs. Green Bay in 2009, recorded at least one TD reception in his first five consecutive postseason games, tying the third-longest streak in NFL postseason history. Only John Stallworth (8) and David Givens (7) had longer streaks. The two receiving TDs against Green Bay gave him multiple TD receptions in three consecutive postseason games, joining Ernest Givens (1989-91) as the only players in history to accomplish that feat.
- Has nine TD receptions in six career postseason games, an NFL record for a player in his first six postseason games.
- Had one of the best postseasons of any player in NFL history during the Cardinals run to Super Bowl XLIII in 2008, shattering the NFL single postseason record for receptions (30), receiving yards (546), and receiving TDs (7). His 30 receptions surpassed the previous record of 27, shared by Carolina's Steve Smith (2005) and New England's Wes Welker (2007). His 546 receiving yards surpassed Jerry Rice's 1988 total of 409 yards and his seven TD receptions topped Rice's 1988 total of six.
- With 100 yards receiving in each of the team's four postseason games in '08, set the NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with 100 yards receiving.
- Has started all 92 games in which he has appeared since being selected by Arizona with the third overall pick in the 2004 Draft. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (#1 to San Diego) and OT Robert Gallery (#2 to Oakland).
- Led the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards in 2007 and 2008, hauling in 96 receptions for a career-high 1,431 yards in '08, also tying Detroit's Calvin Johnson for the NFL lead with 12 TD receptions. In 2007, totaled 100 receptions for 1,409 yards and 10 TDs.
- With 1,431 receiving yards in 2008, joined Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison and Randy Moss as the only receivers in NFL history to record at least 1,400 yards receiving in three or more seasons.
- With 96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, joined wide receivers Boldin (89-1,038) and Steve Breaston (77-1,006) to mark the fifth time in NFL history that a team had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.
- His 103 receptions in 2005 set a franchise single-season mark, breaking Boldin's previous mark of 101 set in 2003.
- In 2005, Fitzgerald and Boldin became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- At 22 years, 123 days became the youngest receiver in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the milestone @ Indy on 1/1/06.
- Signed a four-year contract on 3/11/08 that will keep him in a Cardinals uniform through the 2011 season.

PRO CAREER:

PICKING UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF

During the 2008 postseason, Larry Fitzgerald was unstoppable, breaking virtually every postseason receiving record imaginable. He shattered the NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

Fitzgerald added to his status as a force in the playoffs with his performance in the team's two postseason matchups in 2009. With 159 receiving yards in the '09 postseason, Fitzgerald has 705 receiving yards in his first six postseason games, second in NFL history behind Steve Smith (706).

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowl wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald's impact on the Arizona community was evident again this past year as he participated at various community events and appearances while also supporting the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial fund. The fund was established in honor of his late mother who passed away from breast cancer in 2003. It helps support causes that his mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues. In 2004, Fitzgerald also established the "Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund" to support children and their families. The Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund has given money for computer equipment, vision care, and other activities to support youth.

Fitzgerald served as the national spokesperson for the NFL's "Crucial Catch" screening campaign to support Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October. He wore pink gloves, cleats and wristbands that were auctioned off with proceeds benefitting the American Cancer Society to help draw attention to the cause. This past spring, Larry, along with numerous other celebrity guests hosted the sixth annual "Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund Community Weekend." A silent auction and benefit were held to help raise money for each of the highlighted causes.

Last August, Fitzgerald and Cardinals teammates partnered for the "Morton's Celebrity Waiter Night" at Morton's Steakhouse in Scottsdale. Fitzgerald and his friends served dinner to guests and also hosted a silent auction to help raise money for the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund. Along with teammates Beanie Wells and Tim Hightower, Fitzgerald was a guest at the Muhammad Ali Celebrity Fight Night in Phoenix this past March. The event helps to raise money for multiple charities.

Fitzgerald has previously taken part in the annual "Take a Player to School" program presented by JC Penney. In 2008, Fitzgerald visited second grade student Jacob Galindo and took him to Gateway Elementary School where the pair visited the principal's office and spoke to students about the importance of good health. Fitzgerald also led the kids in fitness activities as part of the NFL's PLAY 60 program helping to promote 60 minutes of exercise a day.

The four-time Pro Bowler's "Merry Fitzgerald Christmas" allowed him to host 200 kids from the Phoenix area in coordination with Black Family and Child Services to a dinner, and an autograph session while distributing holiday gifts.

2007: Started all 15 games played and was selected as a starter for second career Pro Bowl (2005) after finishing the season atop the NFC in receptions (100) and receiving yards (1,409); receiving yards in 2007 tied his own career best set in 2005 for the fourth-most in franchise history; along with Anquan Boldin became the first teammates in NFL history to record performances of 11+ catches and 160+ receiving yards in consecutive weeks (Boldin, 13 for 162 and 2 TDs vs. Atl 12/23; Fitzgerald 11 for 171 and 2 TDs vs. StL 12/30) ... recorded first 100-yard receiving game of the season and 10th of his career catching a game-high 10 passes for 120 yards and recovering a Jeff Reed onside kick vs. Pit (9/30) ... for the eighth straight week led team in receptions with nine for a season-high 156 yards and two TDs including a 48-yard hail mary to end the first half vs. SF (11/25); surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season for the second time in his career (1,409 in 2005); by doing it in 11 games became the second-fastest Cardinal receiver to reach the mark; passed Larry Centers (29, 1990-98) to record the most TDs by a Cardinal (30) since the team moved to Arizona in 1988 ... after being limited in practice for second straight week recorded an 18-yard TD reception @ NO (12/16) to give him at least one in each of the last five games ... set franchise record with 136 receiving yards in the first half and went on to register a season-best 11 receptions for 171 yards (13th career 100+ yard game, fourth of 2007) and two TDs vs. StL (12/30); teamed

FRANCHISE RECEIVING LEADERS

Larry Fitzgerald is on the verge of taking the top spot in the record books in a number of receiving categories.

Over the last five seasons, Fitzgerald averaged 93 receptions, for 1,257 yards and 10 TDs a year. If he continues that trend during the 2010 season, he will become the franchise all-time leader in receptions and receiving TDs. Fitzgerald needs 1,431 yards to become the franchise all-time receiving yardage leader, the exact yardage total he posted during the 2008 season.

NOTE CARDS

- In 2009, tied the NFL single season record with 42 punts landed inside the 20-yard line. He now shares the record with San Francisco's Andy Lee (42, 2007).
- Established a franchise record by averaging 47.0 yards per punt in 2009.
- Tied the franchise single-game record with five punts landed inside the 20-yard line against the Titans in week 12 of '09. Three of those five punts were downed inside the 5-yard line.
- Earned first-ever NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award after punting seven times for 352 yards (50.3 gross avg.) with three punts landing inside the 20-yard line in week 15 at Detroit in '09. Had a long punt of 64 yards and had four of seven punts travel at least 50 yards (64, 52, 57 and 57).
- Finished the 2009 regular season with a streak of 72 consecutive punts without allowing a touchback over a span of 13 games dating back to the week four contest vs. Houston. In that same span, landed 37 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line.
- A former star in Australian Rules Football before coming to the NFL in 2005, Graham played 12 years for his hometown team of Geelong before signing with the Jets in 2005.
- At 31 years and 13 days old, became the second oldest player to make his debut in an NFL game since the NFL-AFL merger. Only fellow Australian punter Sav Rocca was older when he made his NFL debut with Philadelphia (33 years, 293 days).
- With his appearance for the Cardinals in week 14 of the '08 season, became the third player in NFL history to punt for three different teams in the same season (Steve Weatherford-NO, KC, Jax-2008; Tom Rouen-Den, NYG, Pit-2002). Had previously punted for the New York Jets and New Orleans Saints before signing with the Cardinals on 12/1/08.
- Became the first Australian to ever appear in the Super Bowl when he handled the punting duties for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.
- This past offseason, was recognized as an "Ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary" for the city of Geelong, becoming just the third person ever awarded the honor.

AUSSIE RAIDS THE RECORD BOOKS

P Ben Graham capped off his remarkable 2009 regular season by downing three of his four punts inside the 20-yard line in the season finale, tying the NFL record with 42 punts downed inside the 20-yard line for the year.

MOST PUNTS INSIDE THE 20-YARD LINE—NFL RECORD

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals third-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft (70th overall), Hayes' involvement in the defense rose dramatically towards the conclusion of the 2004 season. He was poised to be the Cardinals starter at MLB before a knee injury suffered in the preseason opener sidelined him for the entire 2005 season. A restricted free agent, he signed a one-year qualifying offer with the Cardinals on 4/18/06. Came back to lead the team in tackles (111) in '06 despite missing the final two games. Signed a five-year extension on 11/6/06 that will keep him under contract with the team through 2011.

2009: Despite battling through numerous injuries, started 13 of 14 regular season games and one postseason game ... in 75th career game registered a team-high three tackles for loss and tied for the team lead with seven total tackles vs. SF (9/13); had two tackles for loss on the opening drive to help force a three-and-out; part of defense that held the 49ers to 21 rushing yards on 25 carries, marking the third lowest rushing total in SF's history ... recorded one forced fumble @ Jax (9/20) ... led LBs with eight tackles vs. Hou (10/11); helped prevent Houston from scoring from the one-yard line on three consecutive plays with under two minutes to play ... played in 80th career game @ NYG (10/25) and was part of defense that did not allow a 100-yard rusher for the 12th consecutive game (including playoffs) ... inactive (back) @ Chi (11/8), ending consecutive games played streak at 39, the longest of his career ... inactive (back) vs. Sea (11/15) ... returned from back injury to record three tackles @ StL (11/22) ... did not start as the Cardinals opened the game with six DBs but recorded four tackles vs. Min (12/6); part of defense that held the Vikings to 62 yards rushing, 67.2 yards below their season average heading into the game (129.2) and held Adrian Peterson to 19 yards on 13 carries, the second lowest yardage output of his career ... made fifth postseason start and recorded four tackles in the Wild Card matchup vs. GB (1/10/10) ... inactive (ankle) for the Divisional game @ NO (1/16/10).

2008: Started 14 of 16 games and all four postseason contests, recording his third straight 100+ tackle season ... finished third on the team with 107 tackles during the regular season and set a career-high with four forced fumbles ... led team and tied career-high with 14 tackles (11 solo) and one tackle for loss @ Was (9/21) ... did not start as the Cardinals opened up with six DBs but still recorded seven tackles and one QB hit @ NYJ (9/28) ... registered five tackles, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery

- Started all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests in his second NFL season and has now appeared in all 38 (regular and postseason) games for the Cardinals in his first two campaigns.
- Including the postseason, has 23 total TDs (21 rushing, 2 receiving) in 38 career games played.
- With a team-high eight rushing TDs in 2009, his 18 rushing TDs in his first two seasons tied Ottis Anderson (1980-81) and Ernie Nevers (1929-30) for the franchise record for most rushing TDs in consecutive seasons.
- Rushed for 598 yards on 143 carries in 2009, with his 4.2 average marking a drastic improvement over the 2.8 average from his rookie season of 2008.
- Finished second in the NFL among RBs with 63 receptions during the 2009 season (Ray Rice, 78). His 428 receiving yards were the highest total by a Cardinals running back since Michael Pittman had 579 receiving yards in 2000.
- With 12 receptions for 121 yards in week 1 against San Francisco in '09, became the first Cardinals running back with 100+ yards receiving in a game since Larry Centers totaled 108 yards on 11 receptions at Indianapolis on 9/1/96. His 12 receptions tied for the second-highest single-game total by a running back in franchise history, matching Larry Centers (12, vs.

Dal, 12/25/95) and Ottis Anderson (12, at Was, 12/16/84).

- His 70-yard TD run on the first play of the Divisional game vs. New Orleans in 2009 tied for the second-longest run in franchise postseason history and the longest run for a Cardinals player since Adrian Murrell's 74-yard run against the Cowboys during the 1998 postseason.
- Led team and tied for the lead among NFL rookies with a franchise rookie record 10 rushing TDs in 2008.
- In the '08 postseason, became the first NFL rookie to register a TD in each of his first three playoff games since 49ers FB William Floyd in 1994.
- With rushing TDs in each of his first two games as a rookie in '08, became the first Cardinals player with rushing TDs in each of his first two games.
- Along with WRs Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin, scored at least 10 TDs in 2008, marking the first time three Cardinals players each surpassed 10 TDs in a season. It marked just the seventh time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that three players on the same team registered 10 TDs in the same season.

PRO CAREER:

Drafted by the Cardinals in the fifth round (149th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. Was not among the 333 players invited to the 2008 combine but Hightower has appeared in every game, regular and postseason, during his first two NFL campaigns.

2009: Started all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests for the Cardinals ... in the season opener led team with a career-high 12 receptions for 121 yards vs. SF (9/13); became the first Cardinals RB with 100+ receiving yards since Larry Centers had 11 receptions for 108 yards @ Ind, 9/1/96 ... had one rushing TD and nine yards on four carries and two receptions for 11 yards @ NYG (10/25); with RBs Jason Wright and Beanie Wells also scoring TDs, it marked the first time since 10/3/04 vs. New Orleans that Arizona had three RBs score TDs in the same game; in just six games, registered 239 yards receiving to surpass rookie mark of 237 yards, set in 16 games ... recorded a team-high eight receptions for 57 yards while averaging 4.9 yards per carry on eight attempts (39 yards) with one rushing TD vs. Car (11/1); set a new career-high with 39 receptions in seven games, eclipsing the total from his rookie season of 2008 (34) ... led team with 77 yards rushing on 15 carries @ Chi (11/8); part of a rushing attack that totaled 131 yards in the first half and 182 yards for the game ... recorded a career-high 110 yards on 14 carries with a regular season career-long 50-yard run and a 7.9 yards per carry average @ StL (11/22); marked second career 100-yard rushing game (109 yards on 22 carries, 11/2/08 @ StL); 50-yard run was the longest by a Cardinal since Troy Hambrick's 62-yard run @ Mia on 11/7/04 ... registered second longest regular season run of his career

(32 yards) as part of 50 yards rushing on six carries vs. Min (12/6); marked first time in his career he averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry in three consecutive games ... recorded a team-high six receptions for 34 yards while also registering a one-yard rushing TD @ Det (12/20) ... two-yard rushing TD vs. StL (12/27) gave him 18 rushing TDs over the last two seasons, tying Ottis Anderson (1980-81) and Ernie Nevers (1929-30) for the franchise record for the most rushing TDs in consecutive seasons ... totaled seven carries for 19 yards and a TD and caught three passes for 21 yards in the Wild Card matchup vs. GB (1/10/10) ... totaled 87 yards on six carries, including a post-season career-long 70-yard TD on the Cardinals first play from scrimmage in the Divisional matchup @ NO (1/16/10); 70-yard TD tied Elmer Angsman (vs. Phi, 12/28/47) for the longest rushing TD in Cardinals postseason history.

2008: Started seven of 16 games played during the regular season and appeared in all four postseason games as a rookie ... made NFL debut @ SF (9/7) in season opener and scored first career TD

on two-yard carry on 4th-and-goal; first Cardinals RB to score a TD in his debut since Ottis Anderson rushed for a 76-yard TD vs. Dal on 9/2/79 ... rushed for 24 yards and a TD vs. Mia (9/14) to become the first Cardinals player with rushing TDs in each of his first two games ... registered a career-high two TDs vs. Buf (10/5); converted a 4th-and-one on the Buffalo 10 yard-line and then scored from two yards out to make it 41-17 in the fourth quarter; teamed with Edgerlin James to record three rushing TDs in back-to-back weeks (@ NYJ, vs. Buf) marking the first time the Cards have had three rushing TDs in back-to-back weeks since 1979 ... on two separate TD drives in the second half, converted two third-and-ones and moved the chains on third-and-17 with a 17-yard reception vs. Dal (10/12) ... in first career start, registered 109 yards on 22 carries

DUAL THREAT

RB Tim Hightower totaled 63 receptions during the 2009 season, the second-highest total in the NFL among running backs. Hightower nearly doubled his reception total from his rookie season, when he caught 34 passes.

MOST RECEPTIONS BY RB—NFL (2009)

7 QUARTERBACK

NOTE CARDS

- The second quarterback taken in the 2006 NFL Draft (Titans, Vince Young, 3rd overall), selected by the Cardinals with the 10th overall pick. In four NFL seasons, has made a total of 17 starts.
- Took over the Cards starting QB spot in week 5 of his rookie campaign and started the next 11 games; missed the season finale at San Diego after injuring his left shoulder in game 15.
- In his second NFL season in 2007, started the first five games before suffering a season-ending collarbone injury at St. Louis (10/7).
- Only start in the last two seasons came on 11/29/09 @ Tennessee when he found out the morning of the game that Kurt Warner (head) could not go. In a hostile environment against a hot Titans team, Leinart passed for 220 yards in a mistake-free game and had AZ in the lead before a 99-yard drive and last second TD lost it.
- Named the "Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year," which recognizes a player's off-the-field community service.
- In 2006, became the first Cardinals QB since Jake Plummer in 2001 to have three games in a season with a 100+ QB rating (all were in his final six starts of '06).
- Became the first rookie in NFL history to throw for over 400 yards in a game when he passed for 405 at Minnesota on 11/26/06. The previous league record belonged to Plummer who threw for 388 yards against the New York Giants on 11/16/97. Leinart's record has since been surpassed by Detroit's Matthew Stafford (422 yards).
- Leinart's 2,547 yards passing in 2006 also broke Plummer's franchise rookie record of 2,203 yards, set in 1997.
- Became first QB in NFL history to throw two TD passes in the first quarter of each of his first two games when he did it in 2006 vs. Kansas City and Chicago.
- Recorded a 37-2 record as a starter at USC, a 94.8% winning percentage.
- Led USC to National Championships in 2003 and 2004, becoming only the third quarterback in the last 30 years to lead his team to back-to-back National Championships.
- Holds the USC and Pac-10 record for career TD passes with 99, shattering the previous school record of 72 set by Carson Palmer and the conference record of 77 set by Stanford's John Elway.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals first pick in the 2006 NFL Draft (10th overall), Leinart took over as the starter in week five of his rookie season, starting in 11 of the 12 games in which he appeared and only missed the final game of the season after being deactivated with a left shoulder injury. Suffered a fractured collarbone in game five in 2007 at St. Louis that forced him onto injured reserve for the remainder of the season. Served as the backup to Pro Bowler Kurt Warner in 2008 and '09, seeing action in 12 regular season games and one postseason contest.

2009: Served primarily as Warner's backup, starting one game and seeing limited action in seven others as well as one postseason game ... named the "Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year," which recognizes a player's off-the-field community service ... with Arizona up 31-3 near the end of the third quarter relieved Warner @ Jax (9/20) ... saw action in the final minute of the game vs. Ind (9/27) ... with the Cardinals up 27-3 in the fourth quarter, relieved Warner for the final 5:36 @ Sea (10/18) ... saw action in the fourth quarter, throwing an INT on only pass attempt @ Chi (11/8) ... came in late in the second quarter for an

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Established in 2006, the “Matt Leinart Foundation” contributes to communities in Arizona and his home state of California. The foundation’s efforts help children facing severe economic, physical and emotional hardships which limit the achievement of their dreams. It is committed to granting funds and opportunities to support disadvantaged young people through creating/building new activity and learning centers that will provide an uplifting outlet to foster development and build character. The “Matt Leinart Foundation” seeks to open the doors of opportunity and advancement for children who need a helping hand guiding them to a better tomorrow.

The foundation pledged $500,000 to help open the Cardon Children’s Center at Banner Children’s Hospital in Phoenix. The oncology unit is named after Leinart and he makes countless visits throughout the year to host ice cream parties as well deliver toys and visit children during the holidays. The foundation also created the LA Urban Youth Football League (UYFL). Now in its fourth year, the UYFL was created in April of 2007 and is a full contact football league targeting 8th grade students who were either too large to participate in Pop Warner football and/or lacked the financial resources to participate. The UYFL-Santa Ana was created in Leinart’s hometown this past April.

One of the groups Leinart is most passionate about is Best Buddies, an organization which strives to enhance the lives of individuals with intellectual disabilities by providing opportunities for one-to-one friendship. In addition to regular visits throughout the season, Leinart hosted a group of 25 kids from the Best Buddies organization for a day of bowling in Phoenix last spring.

The Cardinals 2009 Walter Payton Man of the Year, Leinart joined some teammates and participated at the annual NFL and United Way Hometown Huddle event this past fall to assist with a beautification project at the Academia Del Pueblo Charter School in Phoenix while also hosting a Kids Camp for 100 children. He also presented a jersey to a breast cancer survivor at Marcos De Niza High School last October as part of the Cardinals recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Leinart takes 16 underprivileged kids from Phoenix to every Cardinals home game as well as four troops returning home from overseas.

Leinart’s Foundation hosted the second annual Christmas Party and toy giveaway for 400 families through the “Save the Families” organization last December. Leinart, along with Cardinals teammates and celebrities, hosted the toy giveaway and BBQ for the families involved in the program. Leinart was also honored with the President’s Volunteer Service Award in 2008 for his foundation’s work in helping kids understand the value of health, wellness, and exercise.

Last April, Leinart hosted the second Celebrity Golf Classic at the Raven in Arizona. All of the funds raised benefited his foundation and Banner Children’s Hospital. He currently serves as an ambassador for the American Red Cross as well as the United Way and as a national spokesperson for the Children’s Eye Foundation.

This past June, he hosted the fourth annual Matt Leinart Football Camp on the campus of Cal State-Long Beach. The camp was open to boys and girls ages 7-14, with each participant receiving 20-30 hours of on-field instruction, classroom review of workout sessions and weight training classes as well as individual evaluation from coaches.

In 2007, Matt took part in the JC Penney’s “Take a Player to School” program for the second consecutive year. Leinart joined fourth grade student Riley Graham at school in Glendale to read announcements, take part in gym class and speak to the students about the value of education. Leinart has also served as the Cardinals spokesman for the NFL’s “What Moves U” campaign to promote a healthy lifestyle in today’s youth. He also helped spread the NFL’s “Play 60” campaign message throughout the year and at Super Bowl XLII to encourage kids around Arizona to get at least 60 minutes of exercise a day.

At Super Bowl XLII, Leinart hosted a welcome to Arizona party for his NFL friends and Hollywood celebrities at Olive & Ivy in Scottsdale with all of the money raised going towards his foundation. He also joined rapper Snoop Dogg to face off in Snoop Bowl VI in Chandler with all of the money raised through ticket sales being donated to the foundation as well.

COLLEGE:

A three-time All-American and one of the most decorated QBs in college football history, Leinart compiled the highest winning percentage of any USC QB and the second highest in NCAA history with a 37-2 record as a starter (94.9%). Only Toledo's Chuck Ealey (35-0, 1969-71) had a higher winning percentage among QBs with at least 25 starts. Completed 807 of 1,245 passes (64.8%) for 10,693 yards and 99 TDs with only 23 INTs in four seasons at USC ... as a senior started all 13 games completing 283 of 431 passes (65.7%) for 3,815 yards and 28 TDs with only eight INTs ... passed for 365 yards while completing 29 of 40 passes for one TD and one INT against Texas in the Rose Bowl ... completions, passing yardage, passing efficiency rating and rushing TDs in 2005 were better than his 2004 Heisman Trophy season ... completed 66.8% of his passes (129-of-193) for 1,493 yards, 15 TDs and just two INTs ... completed 269 of 412 passes (65.3%) for 3,332 yards, 33 TDs and only six INTs in 13 games as a junior en route to a Heisman Trophy and National Championship ... completed 24 of 34 passes for 242 yards and five TDs vs. Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl ... 33 TD passes were second on the USC season record list, 269 completions were third, and 3,322 passing yards and 3,278 yards of total offense were fourth ... 33 TD passes also tied for third on the Pac-10 season-record list ... after winning the starting job in a preseason battle, went on to complete 255 of 402 passes (63.4%) for 3,556 yards, 38 TDs and only nine INTs while winning a National Championship as a sophomore ... completed 23-of-34 passes for 327 yards and three TDs against Michigan in the Rose Bowl ... ranked third nationally in passing efficiency (164.5, first in Pac-10) ... set a Pac-10 season record with 212 consecutive passes without an INT, stretching over eight games and fell just four passes short of the Pac-10 career record ...

164.5 passing efficiency rating was the best season in USC history ... 38 TD passes was a Pac-10 season record and the second most by any sophomore in NCAA history (Chad Pennington, 39, 1997) ... became the first USC sophomore to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games and the first USC sophomore to have thrown for 3,000 yards in a season ... the third-string QB as a redshirt freshman ... appeared briefly late in three games, taking two snaps at Colorado, directing three series at Oregon and taking a snap at UCLA, but did not throw a pass.

PERSONAL:

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Guard Deuce Lutui, a Mesa, AZ native, always told himself that when he became a professional football player in the NFL he would give back to the community in which he was raised. Entering his fifth season as a professional, Lutui is one of the most active Cardinals players in giving back their time in the community. Aside from being a regular visitor at Gatorade Junior Training Camps, school visits as part of the "SRP Milk and Cookies" program and sponsored Kids Camps, Lutui has taken part in numerous community visits through a variety of programs.

Lutui, along with Cardinals teammates, took part in the second annual "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes" program at the Cardinals training facility this past fall. The players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He also took part in the dedication of the Cardinals Academy building this past season and spoke to the students at the academy. This past summer, Lutui hosted the third annual "Deuce Lutui Kids Camp" in Flagstaff. Lutui instructed 100 kids from Lindbergh Elementary, the school Lutui attended as a child. Each participant received on-field football instruction while also getting lunch following the camp.

In past years, Lutui has been just as active in the community. In 2008, he joined Neil Rackers and 200 local kids to watch the movie "The Express." The pair of players spoke with the kids about the values and positive messages that could be learned from the movie. Lutui also participated in an annual Gatorade Jr. Training Camp with 200 special needs students from Gilbert, AZ.

In the 2008 offseason, Lutui stayed busy by joining teammates Ben Patrick and Neil Rackers to visit children at Phoenix Children's Hospital for "Child Life Week." The Cardinals 2007 "Walter Payton Man of the Year" spoke to a group of rehab patients at "Inspiration Day" at HealthSouth in Glendale about the importance of being mentally strong while facing challenges as well as hosting a kids camp at the team's facility for a group of children from Mexico as part of the "Hands Across the Border" Foundation. He also signed autographs at the 14th annual "Phoenix American Heart Walk and One Mile Stroke" walk in Tempe. During that summer, Lutui took part in "Operation Backpack" to pass out 2,500 backpacks to benefit less fortunate kids in the Valley.

During the 2007 season, Lutui joined teammates in the annual NFL and United Way "Hometown Huddle" event to host 100 students and 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona for a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility.

offense since 1949 (Chicago Cardinals, 572 yards, 11/13) ... started vs. Cle (12/2) and helped not allow a sack for the third time this season while helping James to his second 100+ yard rushing performance of the year ... helped James eclipse 1,000-yards on the season @ NO (12/16) becoming only the second Cardinal running back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (Otis Anderson 1983 and 1984) ... before leaving in the second quarter with a left knee injury, contributed to a line that did not allow a sack for the fourth time this season (only happened once in 2006) vs. Atl (12/23) ... inactive (knee) vs. StL (12/30).

2006: Appeared in 15 games with starts in the final nine contests of his rookie campaign ... made his NFL debut on special teams in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... inactive @ Atl (10/1) ... saw his first career action on the offensive line when he replaced the injured Milford Brown vs. KC (10/8) ... logged the first start of his NFL career at RG @ GB (10/29) ... started his third NFL game just hours after his wife gave birth to a baby girl vs. Det (11/19) ... helped lead James to his second straight 115-yard performance and was part of a line that did not allow a sack vs. Sea (12/10) ... started at RG and was part of an offensive line that led James to 105 yards rushing; James became the first Cardinals RB to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since Adrian Murrell in 1998 ... finished the season with his ninth consecutive start at RG @ SD (12/31).

COLLEGE:

NOTE CARDS

- Signed a three-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/19/10 as a free agent.
- A four-time Pro Bowl selection (2002, '04, '05, '08) and four-time All-Pro, Porter has appeared in 168 games (151 starts) in his 11 NFL seasons.
- Was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000s as a linebacker.
- With 92.0 sacks in his career, trails only Jason Taylor (127.5) in sacks among active players and his 90.0 sacks over the last 10 seasons (2000-'09) trail only Taylor's 111.0.
- Enters the 2010 season needing eight sacks to become just the 25th player to record 100+ sacks in a career (since sacks became an official statistic in 1982).
- When he recorded his 70th career sack on Oct. 2, 2008 at New England, he became the first NFL player with 10 career INTs and 70 career sacks.
- Is the only NFL player to have recorded at least 5.0 sacks in each season between 2000-09. Has recorded at least 9.0 sacks six times.
- Established a career-high with 17.5 sacks in his most recent Pro Bowl season of 2008, the highest total in the AFC and second-highest total in the NFL that year (20.0, DeMarcus Ware). His 17.5 sacks established a Dolphins franchise record for sacks by a linebacker and ranked third all-time in franchise history behind Bill Stanfill (18.5, 1973) and Jason Taylor (18.5, 2002).
- In 2002, became the first player in the NFL since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to record eight sacks and four INTs in a season.
- Has recorded at least 2.0 sacks in a game 20 times during his career, including six games with at least 3.0 sacks and two games with 4.0 sacks.

PRO CAREER:

Originally a third-round draft choice (73rd overall) of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1999 NFL Draft, spent eight seasons in Pittsburgh before being released by the Steelers on 3/1/07. Signed a five-year contract with the Dolphins as a free agent on 3/7/07 and played three seasons with Miami. Released by the Dolphins on 3/5/10 and signed a three-year contract with the Cardinals as a free agent on 3/19/10.

2009: Started all 14 games in which he appeared in his final season with Miami and finished with 41 tackles, a team-high 9.0 sacks and one forced fumble ... inactive vs. Buf (10/4) due to a hamstring injury, and was inactive (coaches decision) vs. TB (11/15) ... posted an eight-yard sack of Peyton Manning vs. Ind (9/21) ... recorded two tackles and a sack of Philip Rivers, forcing a fumble on the play, which was recovered by Miami @ SD (9/27); suffered a hamstring injury in second half and did not return to action ... notched four tackles and a half-sack of Drew Brees vs. NO (10/25) ... led the team with eight tackles, adding two sacks of Jake Delhomme @ Car (11/19) ... recorded five tackles and 2.5 sacks of Ryan Fitzpatrick @ Buf (11/29); marked his second multi-sack game of the season (and his second in two games) and the 22nd multi-sack games in his career (including eight as a member of the Dolphins) ... recorded three tackles and a sack of David Garrard @ Jax (12/13) ... recorded two tackles and a sack of Ben Roethlisberger vs. Pit (1/3/10); also added a fumble recovery, covering up a Roethlisberger fumble on Pittsburgh's 13-yard line following a Nate Jones sack.

2008: Started all 16 games in his second season with the Dolphins, also starting the team's lone playoff contest ... had a career-year on his way to his fourth Pro Bowl selection, posting 47 tackles, a career-high 17.5 sacks, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery ... his 17.5 sacks were the most by a Dolphin LB in team history, surpassing Bryan Cox's previous mark of 14.0 in 1992 ... ranked first in the AFC and second in the NFL in sacks ... had six tackles and a sack vs. NYJ (9/7), taking down Jets QB Brett Favre for a six-yard loss ... recorded six tackles with four sacks for a total of 15 yards in losses @ NE (9/21), sacking Matt Cassel three times for 13 yards in losses and Kevin O'Connell once for a two-yard loss; added a forced fumble on the last of the three Cassel sacks; marked the sixth time he had three or more sacks in a game; four sacks tied for the fourth highest single-game total in team history and were the most since E.J. Junior recorded four sacks on 10/6/91 at New England; also gave him 70.5 sacks for his career, making him the only player in NFL history to record 10 career INTs and 70 career sacks ... totaled two tackles and a half-sack of Philip Rivers vs. SD (10/5) ... recorded three tackles and a sack of Matt Schaub @ Hou (10/12); added five QB hurries and one pass defended ... recorded four tackles and two sacks vs. Bal (10/19), taking down Joe Flacco both times for a total of 14 yards in losses ... notched four tackles, two sacks of Trent Edwards and two forced fumbles vs. Buf (10/26); one forced fumble resulted in a turnover and the other a safety; also added a fumble recovery; safety came from his second sack and forced fumble of the game, sacking Edwards in the end zone and forcing him to fumble; recovered by Buffalo in the end zone; marked his second straight multi-sack game ... had 14 tackles,

5.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in October, earning AFC Defensive Player of the Month honors, the second Player of the Month Award of his career ... had three tackles and a sack of Jay Cutler @ Den (11/2) ... posted five tackles and 1.5 sacks of JaMarcus Russell vs. Oak (11/16) ... posted a four-yard sack of Matt Cassel vs. NE (11/23) ... recorded two sacks of J.P. Losman @ Buf (12/7); also had a forced fumble when he tackled Losman on the second of his two sacks, resulting in a turnover; marked fourth multi-sack game of the season and the 17th multi-sack game of his career ... made game-clinching play vs. SF (12/14), when he sacked Shaun Hill for a seven-yard loss on a fourth-and-10 play on the Dolphins 21-yard line with 1:07 left to preserve Miami's 14-9 win ... started in Wild Card game vs. Bal (1/4) and had three tackles.

2007: In his first season with the Dolphins, started 15 of the 16 games in which he appeared and finished with 65 tackles, 5.5 sacks, two INTs, five passes defended and a forced fumble ... sack total was the highest by a Dolphins LB since 1995

PORTER BRINGS PRESSURE

When the Cardinals signed linebacker Joey Porter during the offseason, they gave opposing quarterbacks something to worry about. Porter is known as a sack specialist and his 92.0 career sacks over 11 seasons bear that out. Among active NFL players, only former Dolphins teammate Jason Taylor (127.5) has more sacks than Porter.

MOST SACKS AMONG ACTIVE PLAYERS

SACKS	PLAYER	YEARS	TEAM(S)
127.5	Jason Taylor	1997-'09	Miami, Washington
92.0	Joey Porter	1999-'09	Pittsburgh, Miami

89.5	John Abraham	2000-'09	NY Jets, Atlanta
87.5	Leonard Little	1998-'09	St. Louis

Although he is entering his 12th NFL season, Porter's play over the last two seasons are proof that he is still among the elite in terms of getting to the quarterback. Since 2008, only Dallas LB DeMarcus Ware (31.0) and Minnesota DE Jared Allen (29.0) have more sacks than Porter (26.5).

Foundation, the Reaffirming Hopes Of Dream Endearing Scholars Foundation, which launched in July of 2006 at Jay-Z's 40/40 Club in New York City ... majored in Communications at Louisville.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Kerry R.H.O.D.E.S. Foundation (Reaffirming Hopes of Dream Endearing Scholars Foundation) was created in 2006 to encourage today's youth to reach for their dreams while also providing young ambitious men and women with the tools to conquer adversity.

The foundation's focus is to provide resources that enable young minds to pursue goals through well equipped educational facilities which provide their students with choices, opportunities and inspiration. One of the primary missions of the foundation is to provide high schools located in financially depressed areas with resources, equipment, programs and activities that will assist with the academic, athletic, and social development of their students. The other primary mission of the foundation is to provide financial assistance to these high schools to enable them to furnish scholarships to certain talented young men and women for the continuation of their academic careers beyond high school.

He established an annual charity basketball game at Lanier High School (Bessemer, AL) that takes place each offseason to help raise money for the foundation. He hosted the 3rd annual Kentucky Derby youth football camp and celebrity all-star basketball game at his alma mater (University of Louisville) this past February in addition to partnering with his former Jets teammate Jericho Cotchery for a Skills and Drills Football Clinic at Legions Field in Birmingham, AL each June. One of the foundation's biggest events is the annual "R.H.O.D.E.S. Foundation Fundraiser" which takes place each fall. Last year was the third annual fundraiser and kicked off with a VIP black-tie dinner and silent auction in New York City.

In addition to Rhodes' work with his foundation, he is an active participant with the NFL's Play 60 campaign to promote 60 minutes of daily exercise for children. He partnered with the NBC Show "The Biggest Loser" and spoke to a group about the importance of working out and proper health and nutrition this past May in Arizona.

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2008 draft and the 16th overall pick; was the second cornerback taken in the draft after Troy's Leodis McKelvin went to Buffalo with the 11th overall selection.
- In just his second NFL season and first season as a full time starter, was voted to his first career Pro Bowl in 2009 after recording six INTs, the highest total for a Cards player in a single season since 2003 (Dexter Jackson, 6). He became the first Cardinals cornerback since 1999 (Aeneas Williams) to be selected to the Pro Bowl.
- Has led the Cardinals in INTs in each of his first two seasons. In addition to his six INTs in 2009, totaled four INTs as a rookie in 2008 despite starting in just 11 games.
- Including postseason play, has 13 INT's in 30 career starts at cornerback. Three of those INTs came in his six postseason starts.
- His INT against the Packers in the '09 Wild Card matchup gave him three INTs in postseason play, tying Aeneas Williams for the franchise record for the most INTs during the postseason.
- In 2008, was named an All-Rookie selection by the Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers Association after tying for the NFL lead among rookies with four INTs. It included a 99-yard INT return for a TD against St. Louis in Week 14, tying the franchise record for longest INT return.
- Became the first Tennessee State player taken in the first round since 1974 when both DE Ed "Too Tall" Jones (Dallas, 1st overall) and LB Waymond Bryant (Bears, 4th overall) were selected.
- Is the second cousin of Jets All-Pro cornerback Antonio Cromartie.
- Last name is derived from both his mother, Melissa Rodgers, and his father, Stanley Cromartie.

PRO CAREER:

left the game in the third quarter with an ankle injury @ NYG (10/25) ... blocked second career FG and tied career-high with four passes defended @ Chi (11/8); blocked FG was a 48-yard attempt with :40 left in the second quarter and the deflection was caught by Antrel Rolle in the end zone and returned 59 yards to the Chicago 49-yard-line, setting up a FG that resulted in a 31-7 halftime lead ... returned to his college home field and led team for the fifth consecutive game with three passes defended while also recording second career forced fumble @ Ten (11/29) ... tied career-high with two INTs and registered four tackles @ Det (12/20); marked second two-INT game of his career, with the other coming @ Sea on 11/16/08 ... registered two passes defended and an INT in the fourth quarter vs. StL (12/27); marked third INT in two games ... started but then left the game with a knee contusion on the first drive of the regular season finale vs. GB (1/3/10) ... collected three tackles and one INT on the Packers first offensive play of the game vs. GB (1/10/10); marked third INT in fifth career postseason game; tied franchise record for the most INTs during the postseason (Aeneas Williams,1998) ... recorded two tackles before a left knee injury forced him to leave the Divisional game @ NO (1/16/10) in the first quarter.

2008: Had a standout rookie year, starting 11 of 16 games played during the regular season and all four postseason contests; registered two INTs at Seattle in week 11 to become the first Cardinals rookie since CB Aeneas Williams in 1991 (12/15 @ Den) to have two INTs in a game ... made his NFL debut and had two passes defended along with a special teams tackle @ SF (9/7); also had one play on offense as a receiver ... registered first two tackles of career and played one play on offense vs. Mia (9/14); stepped in for CB Rod Hood (neck) and CB Eric Green (calf), both of whom returned to the game ... started first career game with Arizona opening with six DBs and recovered a Neil Rackers onside kick that led to a Cardinals TD @ NYJ (9/28) ... recorded first two career INTs as well as four tackles @ Sea (11/16); second INT off QB Matt Hasselbeck came in final two minutes and sealed the victory ... tied SS Adrian Wilson (10/1/06 @

Atl) for the longest INT return in franchise history, going 99 yards for a TD while also registering one tackle for a loss vs. StL (12/7); tied Johnnie Johnson of the L.A. Rams (9/2/80) for the longest INT return for a TD by a rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger ... registered first career blocked FG vs. Min (12/14); marked Cardinals first blocked FG since 9/17/06 at Sea ... made first career playoff start and led team with career-high 12 tackles and one INT vs. Atl (1/3/09); saw action on two plays on offense but did not record any statistics ... recorded team-high three passes defended as well as one INT @ Car (1/10/09); dating back to the regular season it marked his sixth INT in the last nine games; registered an INT in each of the last three games; held Pro Bowl WR Steve Smith to 43 yards on two receptions and one TD which came in the final minute of the game, marked Smith's second-lowest yardage total this season; also tipped a pass intended for Smith in the third quarter that was intercepted by Antrel Rolle ... led team with two passes defended vs. Pit (2/1/09) in Super Bowl XLIII.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie Foundation (DRC Foundation) was created to provide underprivileged children with the resources and tools needed to excel in education, develop strong life skills, practice positive athleticism, and have good citizenship to pursue their dreams and become productive adults in the community.

The DRC Foundation believes strongly in giving back to the community, therefore, it teamed up with one of the largest international relief organization in the world, Feed The Children, along with Dallas Cowboys cornerback Mike Jenkins' Foundation, and the Baltimore Ravens' Fabian Washington Franchise Kids Foundation to provide over 1,600 families in need throughout the Bradenton and Palmetto, Florida communities with food and personal care packages throughout the summer and Thanksgiving holiday. In addition, the DRC Foundation has been active in tackling hunger in Arizona by providing 3,200 families in need with boxes of food.

Along with Jenkins and Washington, Rodgers-Cromartie hosted the Cornerback Connection "Celebrity Basketball Slam Jam" last June in Palmetto, FL. The event consisted of a VIP reception along with a celebrity basketball game featuring various Cardinals teammates. DRC also continued his father's 10-year legacy of helping out the local community by hosting his annual summer basketball camp last June in Palmetto. Over 150 youth from his hometown participated in the free camp.

THE PLAYMAKER

From the time he was inserted into the starting lineup in week 10 of his rookie season in 2008, Pro Bowl cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie has proved himself a playmaker on the field on both defense and special teams.

DEFENSE

- Recorded a total of 13 INTs (10 regular season; 3 postseason) in 30 career starts at cornerback, leading the team with six INTs during the regular season in '09 and four INTs during his rookie season in just 11 starts.
- Returned two INTs for TDs:
  - Picked off Rams QB Marc Bulger in week 14 of '08, returning it 99 yards for a TD and tying the franchise record for longest INT return (Adrian Wilson, 99 yards @ Atlanta, 10/1/06). It also tied for the longest INT return for a TD for a rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, tying Johnnie Johnson, who had a 99-yard INT return for TD on 9/2/80 for the L.A. Rams.
  - In week five of '09 against the Texans, playing with a bulky cast on his hand due to a broken finger, stepped in front of a Matt Schaub pass and returned it 49 yards for a TD that proved to be the game-winning points in the Cards 28-21 victory.
- Has two multi-INT games, picking off two passes against the Seahawks on 11/16/08 in just in his second career start at cornerback and swiping two passes against the Lions on 12/20/09.
- In addition to his 13 career INTs, has totaled 64 passes defended (56 regular season; 8 postseason) in 38 career games.
- Led the Cardinals with three forced fumbles in 2009.

LONGEST PLAYS IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Run from Scrimmage	83 yards, John David Crow vs. Washington, 10/4/58
Interception Return	99 yards, twice: Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie vs. St. Louis, 12/7/08 Adrian Wilson at Atlanta, 10/1/06
Punt Return	95 yards, Frank Bernardi at Washington, 10/14/56
Kickoff Return	106 yards, Roy Green at Dallas, 10/21/79
Fumble Return	*104 yards, Aeneas Williams vs. Washington, 11/5/00 (*Tied for NFL record)

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Blocked two field goal attempts in his first two seasons, both leading directly to points for the Cardinals:
  - Against the Vikings in week 15 of the '08 season, blocked a 34-yard FG attempt by Ryan Longwell that was scooped up by Rod Hood and returned 68 yards for a TD.
  - In week nine of the '09 season at Chicago, blocked a 48-yard FG attempt by Robbie Gould in the second quarter that was recovered by Antrel Rolle and returned 59 yards to the Bears 49-yard line. The Cardinals ended up with a FG on the ensuing drive that led to a 31-7 halftime lead.

CAN'T SPELL INTERCEPTED WITHOUT D-R-C

CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie started his first game at cornerback on 11/10/08 vs. San Francisco. Since then, only Baltimore S Ed Reed and Packers CB Charles Woodson have more INTs than Rodgers-Cromartie during the regular season.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Scottsdale native Lyle Sendlein returned to his home state of Arizona in 2007 and since then, has been very visible in the Valley community. The fourth-year player was one of the most active participants in the Cardinals and SRP "Milk and Cookies" program throughout the entire 2009 season. Sendlein made sure that on Tuesday's, he was spending his time reading to children in the community.

Sendlein has become a fixture at the annual "Making the Cut" event to benefit Cardinals Charities. He joined teammates to participate in "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes" as the players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He also joined teammate Mike Leach to take part in the team's Christmas Angels program. The team adopted 70 families from the Friendly House to help ensure a happy holiday season. Sendlein joined teammates to visit the Wellness Community Center to help support teenagers that are struggling with cancer, a program that is funded by Cardinals Charities. The teenagers gather once a month to play video games and take part in other activities.

Those numerous community activities follow up his past work as he helped out at the Cardinals and United Way "Hometown Huddle," coaching 100 students as well as 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona at a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility in 2007. In the spring of 2008, Sendlein also volunteered for the "Read Across America" program at the Cardinals Preparatory Academy to help promote reading.

2009: Played in all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests ... after missing part of training camp and the preseason with an ankle injury, carried the ball seven times for 29 yards in first NFL game vs. SF (9/13) ... recorded first career TD and finished with a career-high three receptions @ NYG (10/25); with RBs Tim Hightower and Jason Wright also scoring TDs it marked the first time since 10/3/04 vs. New Orleans that Arizona had three RBs score TDs in the same game ... totaled 117 yards from scrimmage, an average of 6.5 yards per touch and established career-highs in TDs (2), and receiving yards (32) vs. Sea (11/15) ... recorded 74 yards on 14 carries with one TD and 11 yards on two receptions @ STL (11/22); marked fourth consecutive game averaging over five yards per carry; part of rushing attack that registered 487 yards in three-game stretch, the highest three-game total in a season since the Cardinals rushed for 494 yards in games 10-12 in 1990 (161, 201, 132 yards) ... registered a 24-yard reception and a team-high 79 yards rushing on 15 carries with one TD @ SF (12/14); scored on 4th-and-goal from the one-yard line to pull Arizona to within eight points early in the fourth quarter ... registered first career 100-yard game with 110 yards on a career-high 17 attempts, including a 33-yard run and one TD @ Det (12/20); added 13 yards on one reception to total a career-high 123 all-purpose yards; 33-yard run brought the Cards to the Detroit 11-yard line with 2:48 to play, setting up Arizona's game winning TD; became 12th rookie in franchise history to run for 100 yards in a game and it marked the 25th 100-yard game by a Cards rookie RB ... led team with 68 yards on 17 carries and one TD as well as a season long reception of 25 yards vs. STL (12/27) ... in first career playoff game registered a team-high 91 yards on 14 carries with a career long 42-yard run in the Wild Card matchup vs. GB (1/10/10); marked the third highest rushing total in a postseason game in franchise history (Adrian Murrell, 95 yards-1999, Elmer Angsman, 159 yards-1947) ... registered first career-postseason TD on a four-yard carry in the Divisional matchup @ NO (1/16/10).

NOTE CARDS

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2009 draft and the 31st overall pick; was the third running back taken in the draft after Georgia's Knowshon Moreno (14th overall) went to Denver and Connecticut's Donald Brown (27th overall) went to Indianapolis.
- Led Arizona with 793 rushing yards on 176 carries (4.5 avg.) during the regular season, the fourth-best rushing total in franchise history among rookie RBs and the best total since Ronald Moore rushed for 1,018 yards in 1993.
- His 793 rushing yards ranked second among NFL rookie RBs (Broncos Knowshon Moreno, 947) and he tied for the lead amongst rookie RBs with seven rushing TDs.
- Named to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team.
- Comes from family of 11 children—six boys and five girls. It was his older brother Ray who gave Wells the nickname Beanie, a reference to his smaller frame as a child that his brother said reminded him of a string bean.

COLLEGE:

BEANIE TIME

Rookie RB Beanie Wells had an impressive inaugural campaign with the Cardinals, hitting stride in the second half of the season and helping to fuel a rushing attack that averaged over 115 yards per game in the final nine contests.

For the season, Wells rushed for a team-high 793 yards and seven TDs on 176 carries (4.5 avg.). Wells' 793 yards ranked as the fourth-best total in franchise history among rookie RBs and the best total since Ronald Moore rushed for 1,018 yards as a rookie in 1993.

Wells rushed for 110 yards against the Lions in week 15, his first career 100-yard game. Combined with Tim Hightower's 100-yard game in St. Louis on 11/2/08, it marked the first time in franchise history that the Cardinals have had rookie RBs rush for 100 yards in a game in back-to-back seasons.

Against the Lions, Wells totaled career-highs in rushing attempts (17), yards (110) and his 33-yard run in the fourth quarter was his longest run of the season as well.

Wells had 28 "big play" runs (defined as runs of 10+ yards) on the season on 176 carries. His 15.9 "big play" percentage was the fourth-best in the NFL among running backs with a minimum of 100 carries.

PERSONAL:

Full name Chris "Beanie" Wells ... attended Garfield (Akron, OH) High School where he earned Parade All-American honors ... named the nation's top RB as a senior and was named the 2005 National Player of the Year by several publications after rushing for 2,134 yards and 27 TDs on 223 carries (9.6 avg.) ... was named the Most Valuable Player of the U.S. Army All-America Bowl ... rushed for 1,939 yards and scored 20 TDs as a junior ... one of 11 children, was given the nickname "Beanie" by an older brother ... majored in African-American Studies at Ohio State.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2009, running back Beanie Wells established his "Beanie's Babies Foundation" to create and support afterschool programs and extend learning opportunities for all kids. The inspiration for the foundation came from Wells' involvement in afterschool programs as a child. He credits these experiences for helping shape the type of player and person he is today.

Wells had two main events this past year to help support the foundation's efforts. In April of 2010, he hosted his first free football camp for over 300 kids, ages 7-14. The players were taught the basic fundamentals of football from Wells, a few of his teammates and a team of coaches. The program was made possible through corporate sponsorship with the proceeds benefiting the foundation and the Boys and Girls Clubs of the East Valley.

Later that month, Wells joined over 20 former college teammates and the OSU coaching staff, including Coach Jim Tressel, and 320 participants for the first "Bowling with Beanie" event in Columbus, OH. In addition to bowling, the event featured a memorabilia signing, VIP Reception, silent auction and raffles.

NOTE CARDS

- Arizona's sixth-round selection in the 2003 NFL Draft, Wells has appeared in 104 games over seven seasons and has started 90 straight games dating back to the final game of the 2003 season.
- Drafted in '03; joins LB Gerald Hayes (2003) and Adrian Wilson (2001) as the longest tenured players on the Cardinals roster.
- Joined DT Darnell Dockett as the only Cardinals to start every game for Arizona in each of the last four seasons (2006-09).
- His 90 career starts have come at three different

- Part of an offensive line that blocked for 1,494 rushing yards in 2009, the most by a Cardinals team since 2004 (1,668), and averaged 4.1 yards per carry, the highest by Arizona since 2002 (4.4).
- Scored the first TD of his NFL career when he recovered a fumble in the endzone @ St. Louis on 10/7/07. It was his first TD since his senior year of high school when, as a defensive end, he picked up a fumble that was forced on a sack by his brother Ryan, and returned it for a TD.

PRO CAREER:

Arizona's first selection in the sixth round (177th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft, Wells started every game for the Cardinals in 2004 after making his first career start in the dramatic 2003 season finale vs. Min (12/28). Started nine games for the Cardinals at LG in 2005 before suffering a broken ankle @ Det (11/13) and was placed on the injured reserve on 11/15. A restricted free agent following the 2005 season, he remained a Cardinal when the club matched Buffalo's offer sheet, keeping him under contract through 2010.

2009: Started all 16 games and both postseason contests at LG for the third straight year ... one of four offensive linemen that started 38 straight games as a group, including the regular and postseason ... member of a line that allowed 26 sacks, the second lowest regular season total by a Cardinals o-line (24-2007) since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 ... made 75th career start in season opener vs. SF (9/13) ... part of line that did not allow a sack for first time in '09 @ Jax (9/20) ... made 80th career start @ NYG (10/25) ... helped clear the way for 182 yards rushing @ Chi (11/8) ... was part of line that, despite 38 pass attempts, did not allow a sack for the second time in '09 and sixth time including the 2008 regular and postseason vs. Sea (11/15) ... helped clear the way for 183 rushing yards on 30 carries @ StL (11/22); marked the most rushing yards by the Cardinals since 10/3/04 vs. NO (211 yards); 487 rushing yards over three games was the highest three-game total in a season since the Cardinals rushed for 494 yards in games 10-12 in 1990 (161, 201, 132 yards) ... in 100th career game was part of line that didn't allow a sack and blocked for 113 rushing yards vs. Min (12/6); Vikings entered the game with an NFL-best 40 sacks in 11 games ... part of line that cleared the way for 110 rushing yards vs. StL (12/27); marked the sixth time in eight games that Arizona recorded 100+ yards on the ground ... started 90th career game and was part of line that did not allow a sack for the fourth time this season in the regular season finale vs. GB (1/3) ... cleared the way for 156 rushing yards against the NFL's number one ranked rush defense during the regular season vs. GB (1/10/10); marked the highest rushing total against a GB defense that only gave up 83.3 yards per game ... for the second straight week helped o-line give up only one sack and block for over 100 yards rushing (101) @ NO (1/16/10).

2008: Started all 16 regular season and all four postseason games, playing every offensive snap at LG ... blocked for RB Edgerrin James' seventh 100-yard rushing game as a member of the Cardinals @ SF (9/7) in season opener ... part of line that did not allow a sack vs. Buf (10/5) ... helped offense post a season-high 510 yards of total offense and 177 yards rushing @ StL (11/2) ... for the second time of the season was part of line that did not allow a sack despite 42 pass attempts vs. SF (11/10) ... made 70th start of career @ Phi (11/27) and was part of a line that didn't give up a sack for the second time in four games ... helped clear the way for James to register his 57th career 100-yard game and eighth as a Cardinal in the season finale vs. Sea (12/28) ... started first career playoff game and was part of an offensive line that allowed zero sacks vs. Atl (1/3/09) ... helped the Cardinals run the ball a season-high 43 times for 145 yards @ Car (1/10/09) ... started Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pit (2/1/09).

2007: Started all 16 games at LG and joined Mike Gandy as the only offensive lineman to start every game in 2007 ... was the only Cardinal offensive player to play every snap in '07 ... helped Arizona gain 161 yards on 38 carries in the season opener @ SF (9/10) ... part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack and helped James run for 128 yards on 24 attempts in the home opener vs.

Sea (9/16) ... showed flexibility by starting at LG and moving to RT when starter Elton Brown got injured in the second quarter @ StL (10/7); recovered a James fumble in the endzone to tie the game at 10 in the second quarter; it was his first TD since his senior year of high school ... led the way for the offense to rack up 552 total yards vs. SF (11/25), the most by a Cardinals offense since 1949 (Chicago Cardinals, 572 yards, 11/13) ... started vs. Cle (12/2) and helped not allow a sack for the third time in '07 while helping James to his second 100+ yard rushing performance of the year ... helped James eclipse 1,000-yards on the season @ NO (12/16) ... line allowed zero sacks in the final two games of 2 0 0 7 (vs. Atl 12/23, vs. StL 12/30) and a total of five times in which the Cardinals went 4-1.

2006: Started all 16 games and played every offensive snap while switching between LG and RT throughout the season ... part of an offensive line that allowed just 24 sacks in '07, the lowest total since 1978 (22) ... started at LG in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... switched to his second position on the offensive line in as many weeks, starting at RT @ Sea (9/17) ... switched back to LG vs. StL (9/24) where he stayed through the game @ Oak (10/22) ... switched to RT for the start @ GB (10/29) and would stay there for the remainder of the season ... helped James to his first 100-yard rushing game as a Cardinal and led the way for Marcel Shipp to run for a career-high three TDs @ StL (12/3) ... played an inspired game after waking up with the flu and having to take intravenous fluids to play vs. Sea (12/24); led James to his second consecutive 115-yard performance and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack; for his efforts was given the game ball following the contest ... @ SF (12/24), helped lead James to 105 yard rushing, becoming the first Cardinals RB since Adrian Murrell in 1998 to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

2005: Continued his streak of consecutive starts for the Cardinals in 2005, starting the first nine games of the season before a broken ankle suffered @ Det (11/13) landed him on the injured reserve list on 11/15 ... started the first two games of the season at LG and snapped in shotgun formations in the home opener vs. StL (9/18) and @ Sea (9/25).

2004: Started at LG in each of the first 15 games of the season ... shifted to LT for the final game of 2004 due to an injury to Leonard Davis and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack vs. TB (1/2).

2003: Appeared in 15 games (one start), primarily on special teams ... recorded first NFL start at LT in place of L.J. Shelton (ankle) vs. Min (12/28) in dramatic season ending 18-17 win ... prior to game-winning TD pass from QB Josh McCown to WR Nate Poole, recovered a McCown fumble on previous play when Vikings defensive lineman Chris Hovan batted the ball away from McCown.

24 STRONG SAFETY

NOTE CARDS

- The longest-tenured Cardinal, the 2010 season will be his 10th with the team. Opted not to become an unrestricted free agent following the 2004 season and instead signed a five-year extension on 12/22/04. Signed his second extension on 6/4/09, another five-year deal that will keep him with the Cardinals through the 2013 season.
- In 2009, was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter and third overall appearance, becoming the first Cardinals safety to be selected in consecutive years since Hall of Famer Larry Wilson in 1969-70.
- Earned first-team All-Pro honors in '09, the first time he has received first-team honors. Earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2006 and '08.
- Recorded two sacks and five INTs in 2009, giving him 20.5 career sacks and 23 career INTs and making him just the 10th player in NFL history with 20 sacks and 20 INTs in their career.
- His five INTs in '09 marked a new career-high and with 23 career INTs, moved into seventh place on the franchise career list, one shy of Kwamie Lassiter (24) who is in sixth place.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his week 7 performance against the NY Giants in '09. It was his third Player of the Week award, also earning the honor in week 4 of the 2004 season and week 7 of the 2002 season.
- In 134 career games with the Cardinals, has recorded 731 tackles, 20.5 sacks, 23 INTs and scored four TDs.
- In 2006, returned both an INT and a fumble 99 yards for TDs, becoming the first defensive player in NFL history with two TDs of 99+ yards in the same season; also only NFL player ever with multiple 99-yarders without the benefit of a kickoff return.
- His 8.0 sacks in 2005 were the most in NFL history by a defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 and also led the team. The previous record belonged to Chicago's Dave Duerson (7.0 in 1986).

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals third-round draft choice in 2001 (64th overall), Wilson, the longest tenured player on the Arizona roster, emerged as a defensive leader and signed a five-year contract extension on 12/22/04. Signed his second five-year extension on 6/4/09 that will keep him in a Cards uniform through the 2013 season.

2009: Selected as a team captain for the second consecutive year and started all 18 games played, marking the first time he played in all 16 regular season games since 2006 ... part of defense that held the 49ers to 21 yards on 25 carries in the season opener vs. SF (9/13); marked the third lowest rushing total in SF's history ... registered a team-high nine tackles, two tackles for loss, half a sack and fumble recovery @ Jax (9/20); marked first fumble recovery since 12/10/06 vs. Seattle ... totaled three tackles @ Sea (10/18) and helped limit the Seahawks to 128 total net yards, the lowest yardage output by an opponent since 1990 (100-Dallas, 10/14) ... led team with two tackles for loss, hauled in a third quarter INT that set the Cardinals up at the NY 20-yard line and led to the game-winning TD, and recovered a fumble at the AZ

42-yard-line in the fourth quarter to preserve the Cardinals seven point lead @ NYG (10/25); named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for the third time in his career, becoming the third Cardinals defensive player to win the award three times, joining S Antrel Rolle and CB Aeneas Williams; registered 500th solo tackle of his career ... with two minutes remaining collected an INT at the AZ five-yard-line vs. Sea (11/15) ... registered one INT and six tackles @ StL (11/22); marked just the second time in his career he had INTs in back-to-back games (2007); reached 700 career tackles ... tied for the team lead with eight tackles while recording a career-high four passes defended and one INT @ SF (12/14) ... for the fourth time in his career recorded one sack and one INT, as well as four tackles vs. StL (12/27); both the INT and sack came in the final four minutes of the game and gave him 23 INTs and 20.5 sacks for his career, making him the 10th player in NFL history with 20 sacks and 20 INTs in their career; marked first game with a sack and INT since recording two sacks and one INT on 9/17/06 at Seattle ... totaled three tackles and one pass defended in the Wild Card contest vs. GB (1/10/10) ... started sixth career

WILSON JOINS THE 20-20 CLUB

Adrian Wilson entered the 2009 season on the verge of joining an elite club among NFL defenders. The Pro Bowl safety was working to join the 20/20 club and become just the 10th player in NFL history with at least 20 sacks and 20 interceptions.

In week 16 against the Rams, Wilson made it happen. His fourth quarter sack of Rams QB Keith Null gave him 20.5 career sacks. Coupled with his 23 career INTs, Wilson reached the 20/20 club.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Established in 2008, the "Adrian Wilson Foundation" is dedicated to giving back and giving children a chance. The Foundation's goal is to tackle the adversities facing children and Wilson has helped try to achieve that goal throughout the past year with a variety of activities.

During the 2009 season, Wilson partnered with local Papa John's stores for the "AZ Anyway Combo." A portion of each pizza ordered during the season was donated to the foundation and approximately $20,000 was raised.

Through Wilson's "High Points Shoes," he donated over $50,000 worth of footwear and clothing to the needy over the holiday season.

This past January, Wilson and the foundation helped raise $10,000 as part of "Team Wilson" at the PF Chang's Rock and Roll Marathon benefitting the Make a Wish Foundation which helped send a young girl and her family on a vacation to Disney Land. He also partnered with the W Hotel in Scottsdale for the "Suits and Sneakers" event to donate 500 pairs of shoes to sports teams in Phoenix that didn't have proper footwear.

Last April, Wilson hosted the "Shave-Off For Jack" event to raise money for two-year old Jack Morton, a close family friend. Wilson joined teammate Steve Breaston to shave the head of any willing participant for a donation. All of the money raised at the event went to offset Morton's medical costs.

100th career game vs. Sea (12/28) ... started first career playoff game and registered five tackles, one forced fumble and one QB hit vs. Atl (1/3/09); part of defense that held the Falcons, the second best rushing team in the NFL during the regular season with 152.7 yards per game average, to just 60 yards on 24 carries (2.5 avg.) ... registered two sacks and forced a fumble on one that was recovered by DE Bertrand Berry vs. Phi (1/18/09); marked the fourth multi-sack game of his career and first since 9/17/06 vs. Sea ... led team with seven solo tackles vs. Pit (2/1/09) in Super Bowl XLIII.

2007: Started first nine games, registering 54 tackles with two INTs before suffering season ending heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... second on the team with season-high 10 total tackles and eight unassisted tackles as well as one tackle for loss @ Bal (9/23) ... registered five total tackles (three solos) and two tackles for loss while intercepting Ben Roethlisberger in end zone in a critical play following a Cardinals fumble that gave the Steelers the ball at the AZ 4-yard line with the score tied in the third quarter vs. Pit (9/30) ... recorded five tackles, an INT and one pass defended @ StL (10/7); marked the first time in his career with an INT in consecutive games ... registered six tackles @ Was (10/21) as part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards, the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards on 9/4/94 ... recorded one tackle for loss and one quarterback pressure that resulted in a Karlos Dansby interception before leaving the game in the third quarter due to a heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... had made 59 consecutive starts while appearing in 73 straight games before being inactive with a right heel injury @ Cin (11/18) ... inactive vs. SF (11/25) and placed on injured reserve on 12/1/07.

2006: Selected to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games, returning both an INT and fumble 99 yards for TDs ... had a solid all around game with seven tackles, two sacks and an INT of QB Matt Hasselbeck @ Sea (9/17); the two sacks gave Wilson, who set an NFL record for DBs with eight sacks in 2005, eight sacks in his last nine games ... intercepted a Michael Vick pass near the Cardinals endzone and returned it a franchise

AGENT 99

Entering 2006, Pro Bowl safety Adrian Wilson had two TDs in his previous five NFL seasons – a 61-yard INT return at Washington on 1/6/02 and a 35-yard fumble return vs. New Orleans on 10/3/04.

He not only matched that figure in 2006, but nearly went the length of the field on each.

The second of those two TDs came at Minnesota on 11/26 when he scooped up a fourth quarter fumble by Chester Taylor and raced 99 yards for a TD. Wilson also had a franchise record 99-yard INT return for a TD off Michael Vick in Arizona's game at Atlanta on 10/1/06.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson was the first player in NFL history to record two TDs of 99+ yards in the same season without the benefit of a kickoff return TD.

Wilson became just the fifth player since the 1970 NFL merger to record two 99+ yard scores of any kind in the same season. The four others all scored on kickoff returns.

PLAYERS WITH TWO 99+ YARD TDS IN ONE SEASON (SINCE 1970 MERGER)

		2006	INT return (99) & fumble return (99)
Adrian Wilson, Ariz.	2006		Both kickoff returns (103 & 99)
Justin Miller, NYJ	2006		Both kickoff returns (105 & 101)
Terry Fair, Det.	1998		Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)
Roell Preston, G.B.	1998		Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)
Raymond Clayburn, N.E.	1977		Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)

Wilson's 99-yard fumble return at Minnesota also ranked among the longest in NFL history.

LONGEST FUMBLE RETURNS IN NFL HISTORY

99	Don Griffin	S.F. vs. Chi.	12/23/91
	Adrian Wilson	Ariz. vs. Min.	11/26/06

The Vikings game began when J.J. Arrington returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a TD. When Wilson later scored on his 99-yard fumble return, it marked just the second time in NFL history that teammates scored TDs of 99+ yards. According to Elias, the other time was a Cowboys-Eagles game on 10/14/62 when Dallas' Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter had a 100-yard INT return.

record 99 yards for a TD in the second quarter to help temporarily give the Cardinals the lead @ Atl (10/1); also recorded five tackles ... on Monday Night Football vs. Chi (10/16) recorded six tackles, a sack of Rex Grossman, one pass defended and a forced fumble ... totaled nine tackles and recovered a fourth quarter Chester Taylor fumble at the Cardinals one-yard line and ran in back 99 yards for a TD @ Min (11/26) ... came up with another big game, tying for the team-high with nine tackles while adding an INT, two passes defended and a forced fumble @ StL (12/3); the INT, his fourth of the season which tied his career-high, came as the Rams were driving in Arizona territory minutes before halftime helping to set up a Neil Rackers 23-yard FG ... continued his push for the Pro Bowl with six tackles and a fumble recovery vs. Sea (12/10); fumble recovery came after Robert Griffith knocked the ball loose from Seattle RB Shawn Alexander and led to a Cardinals TD on the ensuing possession; also made the key tackle on fourth down that stopped Seattle's potential game winning drive.

2005: Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate ... recorded eight sacks, a team-high and the most by a DB in the NFL since sacks became official in 1982 ... recorded 11 tackles, the second highest total on the team @ Sea (9/25) and broke up one pass ... recorded a career-high 17 tackles @ Det (11/13) and defended one pass ... had a career game @ StL (11/20) sacking the Rams QBs three times and forcing Marc Bulger out of the game with a shoulder injury; recorded eight stops, also recorded a forced fumble and recovered a fumble ... had another outstanding day as he notched seven tackles, two for a loss, a sack on Alex Smith, a forced fumble, recovered a fumble and deflected a pass @ SF (12/4) ... recorded five tackles, three for a loss, and sacked Mike McMahon twice while defending two passes vs. Phi (12/24) in one of the strongest days of his career.

2004: Started every contest for the Cardinals in 2004 ... finished the season second on the team in tackles, and one shy of his second career 100-tackle season ... recorded four tackles, one fumble recovery and a pass breakup in the season opener @ StL (9/12); recovered a fumble on the first St. Louis drive of the game after Quentin Harris forced a Steven Jackson fumble on the Arizona 26-yard line ... intercepted Michael Vick at the Atl 29 and returned it to the Atl 18 to set up a Neil Rackers FG, which gave the Cardinals their only points of the game; tied for a team-high seven tackles and had a team-high two passes defended @ Atl (9/26) ... recovered a fumbled reverse handoff between Dante Stallworth and Aaron Stecker and returned it 35 yards for a TD to give the Cardinals a 7-0 lead with 4:16 left in the first quarter vs. NO (10/3); recorded five tackles; named NFC Defensive Player of the Week following his five tackles and fumble recovery for a TD; the Cards defense held their opponent without a TD for the second consecutive game for the first time since November, 1970; ... recorded his first sack of the season in addition to two tackles and a forced fumble vs. StL (12/19) ... notched six tackles, one pass defended and intercepted a Chris Simms pass with 1:06 remaining which sealed the win for the Cardinals in the season finale vs. TB (1/2).

2003: Started all but one contest ... produced the Cards' first blocked punt since 1997 ... recorded eight stops and a pass deflection vs. Bal (10/12) ... had three tackles from scrimmage vs. SF (10/26) and blocked punt in the third quarter which rolled out of bounds at the 49er 11-yard line; Cards converted the possession into a FG in eventual 18-17 victory; whistled for two personal fouls in fourth quarter and ejected from the game ... did not start vs. Car (12/14) due to an illness but came off bench to provide three tackles.

2002: Vaulted over 100-total tackle plateau in first season as a starter ... recorded three INTs in 9-6 win vs. Dal (10/20); earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors, most by a Cardinal since Kwamie Lassiter made four INTs in 1998 season finale vs. SD ... game-day inactive for season-opener @ Was (9/8) while still on mend from preseason right-shoulder dislocation vs. Den (8/24) ... dismantled the Cowboys with three INTs plus thundering sack of Quincy Carter on opening play of game vs. Dal (10/20) ... season-best 12 combined tackles vs. StL (11/3) ... set the table for both Cardinal TDs

@ Phi (11/17); on first, knocked the ball loose from Eagle QB Donovan McNabb on third play of game to set up 12-yard TD pass; McNabb suffered a fractured ankle on the play; on second pick, Wilson intercepted McNabb in the second quarter and returned the ball 35 yards to Philadelphia's two-yard line; Arizona scored on its ensuing play from scrimmage to knot game at 14-14; finished contest with 10 tackles, a half-sack, an INT, and a forced fumble ... inactive with hamstring injury for season finale @ Den (12/29).

2001: Playing time from scrimmage increased as season progressed ... active game in win vs. KC (10/21) with three tackles, one QB hurry on a corner blitz and two deflected passes; also got a hand on a Corey Chavous INT in the end zone to stymie last-second Chiefs' rally from their own one-yard line to the Cards' two-yard line with five seconds remaining ... recorded first NFL INT @ Dal (10/28) which he returned 36 yards to give Arizona the ball near midfield with four minutes left ... gave Cards an early 7-0 lead in first quarter @ Was (1/6) when he stepped in front of Redskin WR Michael Westbrook on a slant route and returned the INT 61 yards for his first NFL TD at the 10-minute mark of the opening period.

COLLEGE:

ARIZONA CARDINALS RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF TOP 5 NFL TEAMS FOR DESIGNATED-DRIVER PROGRAM

Cardinals fans set a franchise record in 2009 as over 7,800 fans pledged to be designated drivers at home games at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Last season the Arizona Cardinals, University of Phoenix Stadium, Centerplate, Coca-Cola, Hensley Beverage Company, Anheuser-Busch, Arizona Governors Office of Highway Safety and TEAM Coalition came together to educate fans about the importance of using a designated driver, buckling up and demonstrating positive fan behavior. The message was simple: "Be a Good Sport, Be a Designated Driver." The response from Cardinals fans was massive.

Cardinals fans who pledged to be designated drivers and demonstrated responsible behavior at any Cardinals game throughout the season received a complimentary soft drink and a chance to be selected as the Designated Driver for the Season. The randomly-selected Cardinals Designated Driver for the Season was Ginny Bargmann of Peoria, AZ.

Eric Mitzel, the Cardinals 2008 Designated Driver for the season, won the grand prize and watched the Cardinals take on the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII, played on Sunday February 1, 2009 at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL.

The 2009 Top 5 NFL teams for designated drivers:

Baltimore Ravens with 14,963 designated drivers
 New England Patriots with 13,040 designated drivers
 San Diego Chargers with 11,743 designated drivers
 Atlanta Falcons with 8,042 designated drivers
Arizona Cardinals with 7,826 designated drivers

The designated-driver program is just one component of the fan behavior initiatives offered by the Arizona Cardinals at University of Phoenix Stadium. Other components include: A Fan Code of Conduct posted in and around University of Phoenix Stadium. Text messaging (text keyword "CARDS" followed by a <space> then issue and location to 41513) and phone hotline (623-433-7156) that empower fans to report disruptive behavior to security, certification of nearly 1,300 employees across every organization operating in University of Phoenix Stadium in effective alcohol management training, alcohol service policies including ID checks for all fans who look to be 35 and younger, no more than two alcoholic beverages per person per transaction, and alcohol cut-off at the end of the third quarter.

CARDINALS AND VALLEY OF THE SUN UNITED WAY PARTICIPATE IN HOMETOWN HUDDLE

In late October 2009, the Arizona Cardinals Football Club teamed with Valley of the Sun United Way for the 11th annual NFL & United Way Hometown Huddle at the Academia Del Pueblo Charter School (201 E. Durango, Phoenix).

Cardinals QB Matt Leinart, RB Beanie Wells, P Ben Graham, LS Mike Leach, and CB Rashad Barksdale joined members from the Cardinals Women's Club, team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders at the school and assisted with a beautification project as well as hosted a kids camp featuring 100 children for fitness activities and drills.

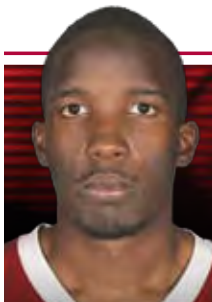

The Cardinals players, wives and cheerleaders joined students from Academia Del Pueblo to help finish the installation of the school's life lab by completing the outside garden. The life lab is an outdoor courtyard which was transformed into an open air classroom that will assist the students with cooperation skills and leadership roles while also teaching them about respect for nature and their environment.

The Academia Del Pueblo is a K-8 public charter school serving nearly 250 students from central and south Phoenix. The school serves low-income children, 73% of who are English Language learners.

The NFL's Hometown Huddle program focuses on volunteerism and volunteer recruitment. Each year the Cardinals and the NFL take part in an event to give back to the community and underprivileged children. Whether it is an interactive mini-training camp or a community reading day with players and coaches, the Hometown Huddle event provides the organization an opportunity to help children from high risk communities throughout the Valley.

The NFL/United Way "Hometown Huddle" is a NFL-wide day of service that provides NFL players and coaches from each team the opportunity to take part in a variety of community-service activities, including building homes for low-income families and visiting local military bases. Started in 1999 by the NFL and United Way, Hometown Huddle continues to help make a difference in communities across the country.

CARDINALS HELP TO PROMOTE BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Last season, Cardinals players and staff supported October's Breast Cancer Awareness Month with participation in various events that included the Cardinals-Texans home game at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who lost his mother Carol to breast cancer, served as a national spokesperson for the league's initiative "A Crucial Catch: Annual Screening Saves Lives," which encourages annual mammograms for women over 40.

Fitzgerald and teammates wore pink gloves, cleats and wristbands during the Cardinals-Texans game. All six of the Cardinals team captains wore a pink captain's patch on their jersey as well. Other features at the game included: pink sideline caps for Cardinals coaches and sideline personnel, pink ribbon pins for coaches and team executives, pink sideline towels and quarterback towels, Cardinals Cheerleaders wore pink jerseys and used pink poms, on-field pink ribbon stencils, Crucial Catch wall banners, pink goal post padding in the end zones, k-balls with pink ribbon decals, and pink coins were used for the coin toss.

Other game day activities included the recognition of 40 breast cancer survivors forming the player introduction tunnel along with Cardinals Cheerleaders. The national anthem was sung by Laura Fial and the Soul Survivors, a group of breast cancer survivors and at halftime, the Cardinals Cheerleaders performed a special tribute to breast cancer survivors. Also pink ribbons were distributed to Cardinals fans as they entered the stadium for the game.

On the Friday night prior to the game, quarterback Matt Leinart joined team mascot Big Red at Marcos De Niza High School for a special halftime ceremony to honor Marcos De Niza staff member and breast cancer survivor Lisa Berkley. The Marcos De Niza football team played their game against Perry High School wearing pink jerseys, gloves and wristbands provided by the Cardinals and the NFL. Leinart also took part in a joint fundraising effort between both schools and the Chandler Service Club at the game to help raise money for the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

On the morning prior to the Cards-Texans game, four Cardinals Cheerleaders and three Cardinals flag runners represented the team at the Susan G. Komen Phoenix Race for the Cure.

Game-used items from the Cardinals-Texans contest were autographed and auctioned off at NFL Auction with proceeds benefitting the American Cancer Society and team charities.

2009 TEAM MILESTONES

- Arizona finished with a 10-6 record and won the NFC West in 2009, giving them back-to-back division titles for the first time since winning the NFC East in 1974 and '75.
- With a 10-6 record, the Cardinals posted their best record since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. It marked the first time since 1976 that the team has posted 10+ wins in a regular season and it also represents just the sixth time in franchise history that the Cardinals posted double-digit wins in a season.
- The team posted a 6-2 road record in '09, the most road wins in a single season since 1963 (6). The victory over the Rams in week 11 gave the Cardinals five straight road wins to start a season for the first time since 1948.
- The 2009 season marked the first time since 1975 that the Cardinals went without back-to-back losses in a single season. The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to go without losing back-to-back games in '09.
- Arizona's win over Green Bay in the Wild Card Game gave the Cardinals postseason victories in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history.
- The win against the Packers at University of Phoenix Stadium improved the Cardinals record to 4-0 all-time at home in postseason play.
- The Cardinals became just the third team (dating back to 1999) to make the postseason after finishing the previous season as the Super Bowl runner-up.

2009 INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

QB Kurt Warner

- In week two at Jacksonville, established an NFL single-game record for completion percentage (92.3%) after connecting on 24 of 26 pass attempts.
- Reached 100 passing TDs with the Cardinals, joining Fran Tarkenton (Giants and Vikings) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 100+ TDs with two teams.
- In week eight vs. Carolina, surpassed 14,000 passing yards with the Cardinals and became the first QB in NFL history to throw for 14,000+ yards for two teams.
- Threw for 3,753 yards on the season, becoming the first QB in franchise history to pass for 3,000+ yards in three consecutive seasons. Also joined Neil Lomax as the only QBs in franchise history with at least three 3,000-yard passing seasons.
- Threw 26 TD passes on the season, becoming the first QB in franchise history to throw for 20+ TDs in three consecutive seasons.
- In week five against the Texans, reached 50 career 300-yard games in just his 113th career game, becoming the fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 50 300-yard games, shattering the former record held by Dan Marino (176 games). With four 300-yard games in '09, reached 22 total 300-yard games as a member of the Cardinals, the most in team history. Neil Lomax was the previous record holder, totaling 19 career 300-yard games.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- After recording 97 receptions for 1,092 yards and an NFL-high 13 TD receptions, earned his fourth-career Pro Bowl selection. Became the first Cardinals player since Aeneas Williams (1994-99) to be selected to the Pro Bowl three consecutive seasons.
- Reached 7,000 career receiving yards in week 15 against the Lions. At 26 years, 111 days old, became the youngest person in NFL history to reach the career milestone, surpassing the previous record held by Randy Moss (26 years, 220 days old).
- Became the first player in franchise history to record 10+ TD receptions in three consecutive seasons and joined Randy Moss as the only players in the NFL who have recorded 10+ TD receptions in each of the last three seasons.
- With 1,092 receiving yards in '09, marked his fourth career 1,000-yard season and third in a row, becoming the first player in franchise history to record 1,000+ yards in three consecutive seasons.

WR Anquan Boldin

- With 84 receptions in '09, reached 586 receptions for his career, passing Larry Centers (535) to become the franchise all-time leader in receptions.
- Recorded 1,024 receiving yards on the season, making him the first player in franchise history to record five 1,000-yard receiving seasons.
- His 1,024 receiving yards give him 7,520 receiving yards for his career, moving him into third place on the franchise all-time receiving yardage list behind Roy Green (8,497) and Jackie Smith (7,918).

SS Adrian Wilson

- Recorded two sacks and five INTs in 2009, giving him 20.5 career sacks and 23 career INTs. Became just the 10th player in NFL history with 20 sacks and 20 INTs in their career.
- His five INTs in '09 marked a new career-high and with 23 career INTs, moved into seventh place on the franchise career list, one shy of Kwamie Lassiter (24) who is in sixth place.
- Voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter and third overall appearance, becoming the first safety to be selected in consecutive years since Hall of Famer Larry Wilson in 1969-70.

CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie

- In just his second season, and first as a full-time starter, recorded a career-high six INTs and 33 passes defended and became the first Cards cornerback since Aeneas Williams (1999) to be selected to the Pro Bowl. His six INTs led the team and ranked fifth in the NFL.
- Earned his first-ever NFC Defensive Player of the Week award for his performance against Houston in week five, when he stepped in front of a Matt Schaub pass and returned it 49 yards for the game winning TD in the Cards 28-21 victory over the Texans.

DT Darnell Dockett

- Led all NFL defensive tackles with 7.0 sacks in '09 and for the first time in his career, was named a starter in the Pro Bowl (second selection overall).
- Started all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests for the Cardinals, marking the fifth consecutive season he has started all 16 games in a season. Including postseason play, has now started 101 of 102 games in his six NFL seasons and has never missed a contest.
- Matched his Super Bowl XLIII record when he collected three sacks of Tennessee QB Vince Young in week 12.

P Ben Graham

- Tied the NFL record (Andy Lee, 2007) with 42 punts downed inside the 20-yard line in '09. Dating back to week four, finished off the season with a streak of 72 consecutive punts without allowing a touchback over a span of 13 games, landing 37 punts inside the 20-yard line over that span.
- Averaged 47.0 yards per punt in '09, establishing a new franchise record and ranking as the third-highest total in the NFL.

RB Beanie Wells

- With 793 yards and seven TDs on 176 carries (4.5 avg.) on the season, finished second in the NFL in rushing yards among rookies, behind only Denver's Knowshon Moreno (947). His 4.5 yards per carry average was the second-best among all rookie runners (Shonn Greene, 5.0) and his seven rushing TDs were tied with Moreno for tops among rookie RBs.

RB Tim Hightower

- Combined the regular season with a team-high eight rushing TDs. Finished with his franchise rookie record of 10 rushing TDs in 2008, his 18 rushing TDs tied Otis Anderson (1980-81) and Ernie Nevers (1929-30) for the franchise record for rushing TDs in consecutive seasons.
- Caught 63 passes during the regular season, the second-highest total in the NFL among RBs (Baltimore's Ray Rice, 78).

2009 GAME SUMMARIES

49ERS 20, CARDINALS 16
SEPTEMBER 13, 2009
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (61,981)

Arizona opened the season with a home loss to the 49ers in a game dominated by the defenses and decided late. After spotting San Fran a 13-3 lead, the Cardinals took a 16-13 lead early in the 4th quarter. The 49ers then turned in a 15-play, 80-yard drive and re-claimed the lead on a Frank Gore TD pass from Shaun Hill with 7:26 to go. The Cardinals, who enjoyed a 96-yard edge in total offense, were not able to answer. Defensively they limited SF to 21 rushing yards on 25 attempts (Gore 30 yards on 20 rushes) and forced 3-n-outs on 5 of San Fran's 6 2nd half drives. The one exception was SF's lengthy go-ahead TD drive and that was the difference.

On Arizona's second drive of the game, Kurt Warner's 3rd-18 pass to Jerheme Urban was INT'd by LB Patrick Willis setting the 49ers up at the AZ 36 and leading to a Joe Nedney FG. After a 3-n-out by the Cards offense, Nedney's 50-yard FG put the Niners up 6-0. On the first play of the next drive, Warner and Urban connected on a 40-yard pass to the SF38 setting up Neil Rackers' 44-yard FG to make it 6-3 early in the 2nd quarter. Later in the quarter, SF faced a 3rd-10 at its own 44 when a 50-yard Hill-to-Isaac Bruce pass took it to the 6. The next snap saw Gore score on a 6-yard run. On the next play from scrimmage, Warner attempted to pass while being dragged down but the pass was INT'd by Nate Clements and the 49ers took over at the AZ34 with 2:13 left in the half. A sack for minus-14 by DT Darnell Dockett backed it up to the 44 and then FS Antrel Rolle hit Hill while passing. The play was originally called an incompletion but after a booth review it was changed to a fumble and Cards recovery at the AZ40 with 1:15 left. RB Tim Hightower, who finished with 12 catches for 121 yards, caught a pair of passes for 27 yards helping AZ move into position for a Rackers FG as the half expired.

Arizona's best offensive drive of the day came midway thru the 3rd when they moved 69 yards in 7 plays and tied the game on a 5-yard Larry Fitzgerald TD pass from Warner. The Cards then took the lead on their next possession thanks to a 43-yard Rackers FG. However, SF answered with their long go-ahead drive on which they converted four 3rd downs including Gore's TD midway thru the 4th. Arizona was forced to punt on the next drive but was able to down it on the SF2. After stuffing 3 runs for minus-1, they got the ball back at the SF38 with 3:11 left but were backed up by 2 of their 12 penalties and failed to convert on 4th-n-5 from the SF33 just after the 2:00 warning.

JACKSONVILLE MUNICIPAL STADIUM - (46,520)

Needing a road win at Jacksonville to even their record at 1-1, the Cardinals got it thanks to a record-setting - and nearly perfect performance - from Kurt Warner plus another solid effort from the defense (4 sacks, 3 takeaways). The week before, the Cardinals offense struggled to find its rhythm in the season opener vs. San Francisco. On a hot and muggy afternoon in Jacksonville, they found it. Warner completed his first 15 passes to tie the club record for consecutive completions (most ever to open a game) and set the NFL's single-game record for completion percentage (92.3% on 24 of 26 passing). He threw 2 TDs and was not sacked or intercepted before exiting the game late in the 3rd with the Cards up 31-3. A pair of late TDs brought the Jags to within 2 scores but it was as close as they got.

The Cards never trailed after moving 75 yards in 11 plays on the first drive and capped it with a 1-yard Tim Hightower TD run. They caught a break on the play before the TD when TE Anthony Becht recovered a Beanie Wells fumble near the goal line. The Jags and Cards then traded field goals and it was 10-3 when a Jacksonville drive that was set-up by a muffed Cardinal punt stalled at the AZ28. But on the game's pivotal play, 6-8 DE Calais Campbell blocked the 38-yard Josh Scobee try and Antrel Rolle returned it 83 yards for a TD that made it 17-3. The Jags advanced to the AZ35 late in the 2nd but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie forced a fumble by WR Troy Williamson and SS Adrian Wilson recovered at the AZ32. Six plays later, Warner hit RB Jason Wright on a 5-yard TD that made it 24-3 at intermission, marking the largest home first-half deficit in Jaguars history.

The Cards missed a 48-yard FG in the 3rd quarter but got the ball back on a David Garrard fumble forced by Carlos Dansby and recovered by Bertrand Berry at the JAX38. That led to a 22-yard Warner-to-Larry Fitzgerald TD pass that made it 31-3. It would be Warner's last pass as he made way for Matt Leinart before the next AZ drive. Garrard connected with TE Marcedes Lewis on a 25-yard pass late in the 3rd and a 19-yarder to WR Mike Sims-Walker midway thru the 4th that made it 31-17. They had a chance to narrow the gap on the next drive but WR Nate Hughes dropped consecutive passes in the end zone and the Jags turned it over on downs. Their final drive ended when Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd Garrard to seal the victory.

COLTS 31, CARDINALS 10

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (62,692)

The Cardinals dropped to 1-2 for the season (0-2 at home) by falling to the Colts in a nationally-televised Sunday night affair. Indy QB Peyton Manning threw 4 TD passes to 4 different receivers and amassed 379 yards through the air. Arizona counterpart Kurt Warner was pressured throughout the night by a ferocious Indy pass rush that sacked him 4 times, including twice by DE Dwight Freeney. Most costly, however, was a pair of Cardinal turnovers inside the Colts 5 that topped the list of missed Arizona opportunities.

Arizona held Indy scoreless in the 1st quarter and forced them to punt on their first 3 drives (including two 3-n-outs). Up 3-0 early in the 2nd thanks to a Neil Rackers FG, the Cards seemed poised to make it 10-0 when they had the ball deep in Colt territory but RB Tim Hightower fumbled and DB Antoine Bethea recovered at the Indy 5. The Colts then scored on their next 3 drives via Manning TD passes while AZ went 3-n-out in between. The TDs to WR Reggie Wayne, TE Dallas Clark, and WR Pierre Garcon put the Colts up 21-3. The Cards were at the doorstep again in the final minute of the first half but on 1st-n-goal from the 1, Warner's pass to Larry Fitzgerald was tipped and INT'd in the end zone by Bethea.

Arizona opened the 2nd half by going no-huddle and found success. They moved 73 yards in 8 plays and capped the drive with a 10-yard Warner TD pass to Anquan Boldin that made it 21-10. The Cards caught a break when the next Indy drive reached the AZ14 but Adam Vinatieri's 32-yard FG bounced off the left upright. On the next series Fitzgerald beat his man down the left sideline but Warner slightly overthrew him, missing a prime scoring opportunity that would have made it a 4-point game. Indy then capitalized when rookie RB Donald Brown turned a short pass from Manning into a 72-yard completion that set-up a 3-yard Joseph Addai TD reception and a 28-10 lead. The Cardinals would never threaten again and a 26-yard Vinatieri FG in the 4th quarter provided the game's final points.

CARDINALS 28, TEXANS 21

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (61,819)

The Cardinals returned from their bye week and evened their record at 2-2 with a down-to-the-wire home win over the Houston Texans. While the offense provided a large early cushion, it was the defense that stepped up late. The Cards D not only produced the game-winning TD late in the 4th, but followed it with a huge goal-line stand that turned away the Texans on 3 straight plays from the 1-yard line in the game's final minute.

The first-half was dominated by Arizona. A 1-yard Tim Hightower TD run capped the team's opening drive and a pair of TD passes from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald in the final 1:44 of the 1st half gave AZ a 21-0 lead at intermission. The Cards also had huge statistical leads in almost every category, including 1st downs (18-5), total yards (297-130) and passing yards (262-92). The Cardinals missed a chance for another score in the 1st quarter when Anquan Boldin turned it over at the HOU 1 on a fumble, but Calais Campbell prevented the Texans from converting the takeaways into points when he blocked Kris Brown's 35-yard FG try.

That 21-point halftime advantage evaporated when Houston scored TDs on 3 straight possessions in the 3rd and 4th quarters. After Texans WR Andre Johnson tied the game with 6:59 to play on his second TD in as many drives, the Cardinals went 3-n-out and gave the ball back on a punt. Houston took over at its own 11 with 5:52 to play and advanced to its 42 before facing a 3rd-n-8 with 2:30 left. CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie then turned in the game's decisive play when he stepped in front of a Matt Schaub pass intended for WR Kevin Walter and raced 49 yards down the right sideline for the pick-six. However, the Texans would not go away. Andre Davis returned the ensuing kickoff 63 yards, giving Houston the ball at the AZ40 with 2:30 remaining. Five straight Schaub passes quickly moved it to the 1. But after Chris Brown was stuffed for no gain on 2nd down and Schaub overthrew his open TE in the end zone on 3rd, the game came down to a 4th-n-goal play at the 1. With 0:47 left, the Cards defense secured the win when they stuffed Brown for no gain on a ruling that replay upheld.

Individually, Warner became the fifth player with 50 career 300-yard days and also the 2nd to eclipse 13,000 yards with two different franchises (Fran Tarkenton, MIN & NYG). Also, Boldin moved past Roy Green and into second place on the club's all-time receptions list. The win gave the Cardinals their first-ever victory against Houston and left the Denver Broncos the only team against whom they have never recorded a victory.

CARDINALS 27, SEAHAWKS 3OCTOBER 18, 2009
QWEST FIELD — (67,588)

In a pivotal NFC West battle, Arizona headed to hostile Qwest Field to face a Seahawks team that shut-out two of its first three home opponents, including a 41-0 blanking of Jacksonville the week before. But the Cardinals dominated throughout in what Ken Whisenhunt called the team's most complete effort on both sides of the ball. The convincing 27-3 win moved Arizona into a first-place tie with idle San Francisco atop the NFC West. Offensively, Kurt Warner was again very sharp, completing his first 12 passes en route to a completion percentage of 78 and passer rating of 100.8. Larry Fitzgerald matched a career-best with 13 catches for 100 yards with a TD. Defensively, AZ held Seattle to a franchise-low 14 rushing yards, sacked Matt Hasselbeck 5 times, and held the Seahawks to 3 plays or fewer on 8 of its 12 drives. Of Seattle's 128 total yards, 42 came on a fake punt in the 2nd quarter that led to Seattle's only points of the afternoon.

The Cards dominated from the get-go and had a 14-0 lead before the Seattle offense took the field. On the game's opening drive, AZ went 80 yards in 15 plays and chewed 10:42 off the clock thanks to a solid rushing attack and Warner's 9-9 passing. The final completion was a 2-yard TD pass to Fitzgerald. On the following kickoff, Neil Rackers poached it perfectly between Seattle players and Greg Toler recovered it at the SEA23. Three plays later, Tim Hightower ran it in from a yard out to give the visiting Cards a 14-0 lead. On the 3rd play of the ensuing Seattle drive, Clark Haggans sacked Hasselbeck forcing a fumble that Warner Robinson recovered at the SEA23 and led to a Neil Rackers FG with 13:38 to play in the half. At that point, the Cards led 17-0 and the Seahawks offense had the ball for just 0:43. Midway thru the 2nd quarter, Seattle came up with its biggest play of the game when punter Jon Ryan executed a great fake and threw it down the middle to TE John Carlson for a 42-yard gain to the AZ20. That drive reached the AZ3 but on 3rd down Kenny Iwebema's sack forced Seattle to settle for an Orlando Mare FG that made it 17-3. The fake punt play would be the only time Seattle ventured into Arizona territory all afternoon.

The Seahawks offense found the going just as tough in the 2nd half. Steve Breaston's 36-yard punt return to the SEA41 gave the Cards great starting field position and he capped that drive with a leaping 16-yard TD that made it 24-3. On the play, Warner reached 30,000 career passing yards and by doing so in just his 114th career game matched Dan Marino as the fastest player in NFL history to hit the milestone. Late in the 4th quarter, an Antrel Rolle INT off Hasselbeck set-up a 31-yard Rackers FG that accounted for the game's final points.

GIANTS STADIUM — (78,299)

The Cardinals headed east to face the 5-1 Giants in a nationally-televised Sunday night tilt against Pro Bowl QB Eli Manning and the Giants #1 ranked defense. They came away with a huge win fueled by a defense that forced 4 takeaways and re-claimed sole possession of first place in the NFC West. The Cards improved to 3-0 on the road in '09 and upped their overall mark to 4-2.

In a scoreless first quarter, Arizona's best chance came on the game-opening drive that reached the NY27 but ended on a Tim Hightower fumble. The Cards evened the takeaway battle later in the quarter when CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie made a leaping INT of a deep Manning pass in the end zone. It was an INT by Giant CB Terrell Thomas early in the 2nd quarter that set NY up at the AZ29 and led to a 4-yard Brandon Jacobs TD run. Later in the quarter, rookie RB Beanie Wells scored his first career TD on a 13-yard jaunt that knotted the score at 7. The Giants then got a gift on the next series when Manning went deep down the middle for Mario Manningham but Rodgers-Cromartie was in perfect position and batted the ball away. Unfortunately it caromed right to WR Hakeem Nicks who snatched it out of the air and turned it into a 62-yard TD with 2:09 left in the first half. The Cards responded on the next play from scrimmage when Anquan Boldin's 44-yard catch took it to the NY19 and set-up a 30-yard Neil Rackers FG that made it 14-10 at intermission.

The tough Cardinal defense was especially so in the second half, allowing just one 1st down in the 3rd quarter and that came by penalty. Arizona's first offensive drive saw a pair of long Kurt Warner passes to Larry Fitzgerald (26 & 27 yards) set-up a 1-yard Hightower TD that gave the Cards their first lead. Later in the 3rd, DE Calais Campbell tipped a pass that SS Adrian Wilson INT'd and returned to the NY20. That led to a 6-yard Warner TD pass to RB Jason Wright that put AZ up 24-14. With 8:14 to go, the Giants reached the AZ22 and came away with a Lawrence Tynes FG that made it a 7-point game. NY would get the ball back twice more but the Cardinals defense responded to each challenge with huge plays. With 4:48 to play, RB Ahmad Bradshaw raced to the AZ44 but 5 Matt Ware forced a fumble that Wilson recovered to end the threat. With 1:15 left, the Giants had the ball at the AZ39 when S Antrel Rolle recorded the 3rd INT of the game off Manning when he stepped in front of a pass intended for Steve Smith, thereby sealing the game.

 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (62,031)

The Panthers visited Arizona looking to avenge a home loss in the previous year's Divisional Playoff. They did just that in a near reversal of that contest, forcing 6 turnovers (5 INT, a fumble) while committing none. They also racked up 270 rushing yards against a Cardinal unit that entered the game ranked #1 in the NFL in that category. The victory improved the Panthers to 3-4 and snapped a 3-game win streak for Arizona, who fell to 4-3 but remained in first in the NFC West.

The teams traded TDs to open the game. Carolina had an efficient 15-play drive that ended on Jonathan Stewart's 6-yard TD run. Arizona responded when Kurt Warner's 14-yard TD pass to RB LaRod Stephens-Howling capped an 81-yard drive that tied the game. On the next play from scrimmage, DeAngelo Williams ran 77 yards to the Cards 7 setting up another Stewart rushing TD. Midway through the 2nd quarter, the Panthers went up 21-7 when Jake Delhomme hit Steve Smith on a pump-n-go down the left sideline that was good for a 50-yard score. The play accounted for more than half of Carolina's passing total for the day. Five seconds later, DE Julius Peppers snared a 1st down pass that Warner tried to loft over him to Beanie Wells out of the backfield and Peppers returned the INT 13 yards for a TD that made it 28-7 at the half.

Arizona cut the lead to 14 on a 1-yard Warner TD pass to TE Ben Patrick with 6:13 to go in the 3rd. Delhomme left the game later in that quarter with a chest injury suffered on a hit by Darnell Dockett and Chike Okefor. Down 14 with a full quarter to play, Arizona WR Jerheme Urban hauled in a pass but was separated from the ball by CB Chris Gamble and S Sherrod Martin grabbed it out of the air for another INT. The pick led to a 35-yard John Kasay FG that made it a 17-point margin. The Cards responded with a Tim Hightower TD followed by a 3-n-out from the defense. Arizona found itself at its own 39 with 7:13 to play and down 10. However, Peppers then sacked Warner forcing a fumble that the Panthers recovered and turned into a 31-yard FG that provided the game's final points.

 NOVEMBER 8, 2009
 SOLDIER FIELD - (62,309)

On an unseasonably warm November afternoon in Chicago, Kurt Warner and the Cardinals offense were even hotter. A week after throwing 5 INTs vs. Carolina, he matched his career-high with 5 scoring strikes. Warner TD passes ended the first four AZ drives and a pair of Neil Rackers FGs gave AZ points on its first 6 straight possessions. Two of the TDs went to Larry Fitzgerald who had 123 yards on 9 catches, stepping up in the absence of fellow wideout Anquan Boldin (inactive/ankle). Behind a solid overall effort from the AZ o-line, Tim Hightower (77 yards) and Beanie Wells (72 yards) helped the Cardinal run game roll up 131 yards in the first half and 182 for the game. With the win, AZ remained a perfect 4-0 on the road in '09 and upped its overall mark to 5-3.

For the 5th time in 8 games, the Cards scored a TD on their opening drive. This one was an 11-yard Fitzgerald reception that capped an 8-play, 81-yard opening series. A key play was a 23-yard completion to Steve Breaston on 3rd-n-10, the first of 8 straight third down conversions to open the game. Also pivotal was the game's 4th play when Bears DT Tommie Harris was ejected for slugging AZ guard Deuce Lutui. Chicago did answer Arizona's opening TD drive with one of its own. A 42-yard Jay Cutler to Devin Hester pass led to the 1st of TE Greg Olson's 3 TD catches on the day. But with a mix of run and pass, the Cards built a 28-7 lead thanks to Warner TD passes on the next three drives - 6 yards to TE Ben Patrick, 17 to Fitzgerald and 15 to TE Anthony Becht. In the final minute of the first half, Bears kicker Robbie Gould lined up for a 48-yard FG try but Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie deflected it. Antrel Rolle caught the miss 8 yards deep in the end zone and returned it 59 yards to the CHI49 with 0:22 left. It was enough time for Warner to move the team into position for Neil Rackers' 43-yard FG as the half expired that gave AZ a 31-7 halftime lead.

The lead grew to 34-7 on a 30-yard Rackers FG midway thru the 3rd that provided that quarter's only points. A 3-yard Olsen TD catch made it 34-14 and on the next AZ series Matt Leinart replaced Warner. However, a pick by CB Zackary Bowman led to another Olsen TD that made it a 13-point game with 9:04 to go and Warner went back in. The Cardinal lead remained 13 when Chicago took over at its own 17 with 6:41 left but on that drive's 3rd play, S Matt Ware INT'd Cutler and returned it 18 yards to the 17. It set up the game's final score, Warner's 4-yard TD to Breaston.

CARDINALS 31, SEAHAWKS 20

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (62,278)

The Cardinals improved to 6-3 and maintained their 2-game division lead with a come-from-behind home win over the Seahawks. After trailing 14-0 in the 1st half, Arizona outscored Seattle 21-3 after intermission. Leading the way was rookie RB Beanie Wells who had 85 rushing yards and a pair of 2nd half TD runs. WR Anquan Boldin returned to the lineup and had 105 yards on 8 catches while Kurt Warner threw for 340 yards and a pair of TDs with no sacks or INTs.

The Cardinals had their first chance for points late in the 1st quarter. After a 46-yard interference call set Arizona up at the SEAB, CB Marcus Trufant had an apparent INT in the end zone. However, the Cards challenged that he did not re-establish in bounds after stepping out and referee Walt Coleman agreed. Two plays later, the Cards went for it on 4th-n-goal at the one but RB Tim Hightower was stopped short. On the next snap, Matt Hasselbeck hit T.J. Houshmandzadeh with a 53-yard pass down the right sideline. Five plays later RB Justin Forsett, who played most of the game in place of an injured Julius Jones, scored on an 11-yard rush to make it 7-0. Midway through the 2nd quarter, Seattle faced a 3rd-n-1 at the AZ31 when Hasselbeck hit TE John Carlson on a play-action pass that went for a TD. The Cards answered quickly as Warner connected with WR Steve Breaston on a 28-yard scoring strike to cut the lead in half. A 32-yard Olindo Mare FG on the next drive upped the Seattle lead to 10 with 1:09 to go in the half. After a touchback, 5 straight Warner completions covered 77 yards to the SEAB. A holding penalty wiped out a Warner-to-Breaston TD pass, but Neil Rackers' 27-yard FG as the half expired made it 17-10.

The AZ offense moved downfield quickly to open the 2nd half but after reaching the SE44 a Wells personal foul backed it up to the 19. Beanie atoned for the error when he converted a 4th-n-1 run for a 10-yard TD. Early in the 4th, an interference penalty in the end zone gave Seattle the ball at the AZ1 but an AZ defensive stand held them to just a FG. Down 20-17, the Cards responded quickly. A pair of Boldin catches covered 47 yards and led to Wells' 13-yard TD on a 4-play, 80-yard drive. After a Seattle punt, Wells had a 23-yard catch and 29-yard run that helped set-up an 18-yard Warner TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald. Down 11 with 6:11 to play, Seattle would get the ball back 3 more times but a 3-n-out was followed by INTs from FS Antrel Rolle and SS Adrian Wilson.

EDWARD JONES DOME - (59,839)

With a 21-13 win in St. Louis, the Cardinals upped their record to 7-3 and extended their division lead to 3 games after losses by the 49ers and Seahawks. The victory was Arizona's 6th straight against the Rams and gave the Cards a 5-0 road mark for the first time since 1948. Kurt Warner improved his record as a starter at the Edward Jones Dome to 26-4 and had the Cards up 21-3 before exiting late in the 2nd quarter with a head injury. RB Tim Hightower gained a career-best 110 rushing yards while Beanie Wells ran for another 74 yards and a TD. The Cards rolled up 400 yards of offense for the 3rd straight game and had a season-high 183 yards rushing. WR Anquan Boldin topped 100 receiving yards for the 2nd straight week and finished with 103 on 8 catches.

The Rams scored first when they capitalized on a Cardinal turnover. After Wells mishandled a pitch from Warner, St. Louis took over at the AZ25 but the Cards defense held them to just a FG. Arizona would score TDs on 3 straight drives to go up 21-3. A 50-yard Hightower rush set-up a 5-yard Warner TD pass to Boldin. That 87-yard scoring drive was followed by another of 90 yards that ended with an 11-yard scoring pass from Warner to Larry Fitzgerald. After stopping a 4th-n-1 Rams run, the Cards took over on downs and Wells capped a 9-play, 78-yard drive with his 1-yard TD run. Six plays before the score, Warner was injured when he hit his head on the turf after scrambling for a completion. He finished the drive but left the game after the TD. Matt Leinart came on in relief and completed 10 of 14 passes with no INTs or TDs.

The third quarter was scoreless until Rams RB Steven Jackson raced 48 yards to the AZ4 but the Cardinal D again stiffened and allowed just a FG. On the next series, Cards TE Anthony Becht fumbled after a catch and the Rams took over at the AZ44. After converting 3 straight 4th downs that included a 4th-n-11 at the AZ26, Jackson's 1-yard TD run made it 21-13 with 7:08 left. The next St. Louis drive reached the AZ7 but Marc Bulger's 4th down pass fell incomplete and the Rams again turned it over on downs. Leinart picked up a key 1st down with a 20-yard completion to Early Doucet on 3rd-n-4 at the AZ13 allowing the Cards to chew up key clock time and the Rams did not seriously threaten again.

TITANS 20, CARDINALS 17

NOVEMBER 29, 2009
LP FIELD - (69,143)

In their first-ever visit to Nashville, the Cardinals suffered a gut-wrenching defeat when Titans QB Vince Young capped an 18-play, 99-yard drive with a 10-yard TD pass to rookie WR Kenny Britt as time expired. The loss snapped a 3-game win streak for the Cards and was their first road defeat of the year after starting 5-0. Tennessee recorded its 5th straight win after opening the season 0-6. The loss overshadowed a gritty effort from QB Matt Leinart who made his first start since October of '07. Kurt Warner was inactive due to lingering effects of a head injury suffered the week before at St. Louis, ending his consecutive start streak at 41 games.

The Titans took a 6-0 lead with Rob Bironas field goals on each of their first two drives. Late in the 2nd quarter, the Cards cut it to 6-3 when Neil Rackers capped an 11-play, 55-yard drive with a 41-yard FG. Arizona withstood a Tennessee threat just before halftime when the Titans had the ball at the AZ11 with 0:08 left and one timeout. However, Young let the time tick off while scrambling in the pocket and Darnell Dockett sacked him for the 2nd time on the drive to send the Titans away with no points. Dockett would finish the game with a career-best 3 sacks. The Titans entered the game with an NFL-low 7 sacks allowed and Young had been sacked just once all season but he went down 4 times in this game.

After the teams traded punts to open the 2nd half, Titans RB Chris Johnson ran for an 85-yard TD that made it 13-3. However rookie LaRod Stephens-Howling returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a TD, making it a 3-point game again. On the next AZ drive, Leinart completed 4-5 passes for 61 yards and Tim Hightower scored on a 6-yard TD run to give the Cards a 17-13 lead. In the 2nd half, Leinart was 13-16 passing for 137 yards. With just under 5:00 to play, Young connected with Britt on a 51-yard pass to the AZ24 but Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie forced a fumble that Bryant McFadden recovered to kill the threat. A holding call hampered the next Arizona drive and on the punt Ben Graham pinned the Titans at the 1 with 2:37 left. It was Graham's 5th straight punt inside the 20 and 3rd inside the 5, all of which were downed by Stephens-Howling. On the ensuing drive, the Titans twice faced 4th-n-4 but converted each and ultimately reached the AZ9. After a 1-yard sack and a pair of incompletions, TEN faced a 4th-n-goal at the 10 with 0:06 left when Young and Britt connected on the game-winner.

CARDINALS 30, VIKINGS 17

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,121)

In a nationally-televised game that was flexed into Sunday night, the Cards faced a formidable opponent in 10-1 Minnesota. The Vikings offense featured all-pros Brett Favre and Adrian Peterson while their 5th-ranked defense led the league in sacks behind NFC sack leader Jared Allen's 12.5. Arizona more than met the challenge. Favre, who entered the game with 3 INTs all season, threw 2 in the 3rd quarter. Peterson was limited to 19 yards (13 carries) for the 2nd lowest total of his career and the Vikings were held sackless for the first time in 24 games behind inspired offensive line play, highlighted by LT Jeremy Bridges, filling in for starter Mike Gandy. Kurt Warner returned from a one-game absence (head) and was exceptional. He threw 3 first half TDs - 2 to Anquan Boldin, 1 to Larry Fitzgerald - and finished 22 of 32 for 285 yards. The win upped Arizona's record to 8-4 and extended its division lead to 3 games with 4 to play.

The game didn't start well for AZ. RB Tim Hightower lost a fumble at the AZ47 on the game's 2nd play and that ultimately led to a 3-yard Favre TD pass to TE Visanthe Shiancoe. Later in the first, Steve Breaston's 64-yard punt return to the 2 set-up to a Warner TD pass to Boldin on the next play. While the AZ defense sent the Vikings attack 3-n-out on 3 straight series, the Cards offense was clicking. Midway thru the 2nd, they went up 14-7 when Warner connected with Boldin on a 39-yard TD. Minnesota advanced deep into AZ territory on the next drive but came away with just a FG at the 1:55 mark. That left enough time for Warner to put the Cards back in the end zone. He completed all 5 passes (72 yards) and capped the drive with a 34-yard TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald.

The Vikings got the ball to start the 2nd half and advanced to the AZ45 but LB Karlos Dansby ended the drive with a pick, ending Favre's NFL-best INT-less streak at 159 attempts. That takeaway led to a 31-yard Rackers FG that put the Cards up 24-10. The defense swarmed on 3 straight plays on the next series. DT Darnell Dockett stopped Peterson for a 5-yard loss, Calais Campbell sacked Favre for a loss of 9, and nickel back Mike Adams picked him off to end the drive. That INT led to another Rackers FG and 27-10 lead. The next two MIN drives ended thanks to 3rd down sacks from DE Bertrand Berry. The Cards then chewed 5:34 off the clock with a 10-play drive that ended on Rackers' 3rd FG of the game. With 1:20 left, Favre hit Percy Harvin with a 31-yard TD pass but the game was over when the onside kick attempt went out of bounds.

CANDLESTICK PARK ~ (69,732)

Playing on Monday Night Football with a chance to clinch their 2nd straight division title, the Cardinals were done in by 7 turnovers (5 fumbles, 2 INTs), 11 penalties, and 167 rushing yards from 49er RB Frank Gore. The Niners limited the Cards passing attack to 160 net yards, sacked Kurt Warner 4 times and held a 13:30 edge in time of possession. It all added up to a 24-9 road loss that dropped Arizona to 8-5. Despite the season sweep, the Cards maintained a 2-game division lead over the 6-7 Niners with 3 to play.

The 1st half was all San Francisco, which capitalized on 5 Arizona turnovers to take a 17-0 lead at intermission. The 1st quarter was scoreless until a Tim Hightower fumble gave the 49ers the ball at the AZ 8 and they cashed in with a 5-yard TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis. On the 2nd play of the next drive, Warner found RB LaRod Stephens-Howling down the middle but the rookie fumbled and the Niners recovered at the A225. That turnover led to a 37-yard Joe Nedney FG and a 10-0 lead. Arizona's next drive went deep into SF territory but Warner threw his first INT in 130 attempts when he was picked off by Dashon Goldston at the SF9. Later in the 2nd quarter, Warner was INT'd again, this time by Tarell Brown at the SF31. On the ensuing drive, Smith tossed a 35-yard TD pass to rookie WR Michael Crabtree with 0:33 to go in the half.

On the opening drive of the 2nd half, the Cards received a scare when Larry Fitzgerald left the game with a knee injury. He was taken to the locker room for x-rays but later returned to action. The Cards got on the scoreboard with 5:46 to go in the 3rd thanks to a 48-yard Neil Rackers FG. The drive's key play was a 29-yard completion to WR Early Doucet on 3rd-n-5 from midfield. On the next drive, S Adrian Wilson INT'd a Smith pass to set the Cards up at the SF43. Seven plays later, Beanie Wells scored on a 1-yard run on 4th-n-goal. The score was 17-9 after the PAT was blocked. In a one score game, the AZ defense forced a punt on the next series and the Cards took over at their own 11 with 11:45 to play. However, on the first play from scrimmage Wells fumbled it back to the 49ers at the A211 and that led to a 2-yard Gore TD that made it 24-9. The Cardinals would not get any closer.

FORD FIELD ~ (40,577)

In week 15 at Detroit, the Cardinals jumped out to a 17-0 halftime lead but the Lions scored 17 straight points in a 5-minute stretch in the 3rd quarter to tie the game. When AZ went up 7 in the 4th, the Lions again tied it later in the quarter. However, rookie RB Beanie Wells delivered a key run in the closing minutes to set-up the game-winning TD. Wells was impressive and finished with 110 yards on 17 carries for his first career 100-yard game. The Cardinals victory combined with a 49ers loss a few hours later at Philadelphia clinched Arizona's 2nd straight NFC West title.

The teams opened the game by trading punts on the first 4 possessions before Arizona's special teams created the first takeaway. Dennis Northcutt muffed Ben Graham's punt and LaRod Stephens-Howling recovered at the DET13. Three plays later, Larry Fitzgerald hauled in a tipped pass from Kurt Warner for a 1-yard TD. Detroit's next drive ended when Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd Daunte Culpepper and returned it to DET49. That takeaway led to a 48-yard FG from Mike Nugent, who joined the team earlier in the week while Neil Rackers nursed a groin injury. When Jason Hanson missed a 54-yard FG on the next Lions drive, AZ took over at its own 44. Six plays later, Tim Hightower punched it into the end zone on a 1-yard run that made it 17-0.

Midway thru the 3rd Rodgers-Cromartie noticed his 2nd INT of the day and set the Cards up at the DET20 when he picked off Drew Stanton, who had relieved Culpepper at the start of the 2nd half. However, on the next snap Lions S Louis Delmas INT'd Warner in the end zone and returned it 101 yards for a TD. After the Cards went 3-n-out on their next series, RB Maurice Morris ran for a 64-yard TD on the next play from scrimmage to make it 17-14. Another 3-n-out from AZ followed and the Lions took over at their 33. Consecutive personal fouls on DT Bryan Robinson contributed 30 yards to the drive and Jason Hanson's 37-yard FG tied the score at 17 with 2:04 to play in the 3rd. Arizona's offense answered with a 75-yard drive that Wells capped with a tackle-breaking 18-yard TD run early in the 4th. The Lions would not go away. Stanton led them on a 58-yard drive that he capped with a 1-yard TD run to tie the game with 3:48 to play. Stephens-Howling then returned the ensuing kickoff 39 yards to the AZ 42-yard line, where the Cards took over with 3:39 to go. A 33-yard Wells run took it to the DET11 and 2 plays later, Warner hit Boldin with a quick toss that he turned into a 5-yard TD run that made it 31-24 with 1:54 left. When the next Lions drive failed to pick up a 1st down, the Cardinals clinched the game and ultimately the division crown.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (62,624)

A week after clinching their 2nd straight NFC West title, the Cardinals hosted a 1-13 Rams team that was missing several key players, most notably All-Pro RB Steven Jackson (back). Former Ram Kurt Warner, thrust for 196 of his 313 yards in the 2nd quarter to help the Cards build a 17-0 halftime lead on their way to an eventual 21-point victory. The win was Arizona's 7th straight over St. Louis and gave the Cards 10 in a regular season for the first time since 1976. Anquan Boldin caught 8 passes for 116 yards (7-100 in the first half) while Warner's 2 TD passes gave him 100 as a Cardinal and made him the 2nd player in NFL history to throw 100 with two different teams (Fran Tarkenton). SS Adrian Wilson had both an INT and sack of QB Keith Null and became just the 10th player ever to reach 20+ career sacks (20.5) and 20+ INTs (23).

The game was scoreless after one quarter, but early in the 2nd Warner hit Steve Breaston down the left sideline for Arizona's longest pass play of the year, a 45-yarder to the Rams 14. Two plays later a 10-yard Warner to Larry Fitzgerald TD pass made it 7-0. The next AZ drive covered 83 yards and Warner capped it with his 100th TD pass as a Cardinal, an 18-yarder to Early Doucet. Just before the half, the Cards reached the STL before settling for a 19-yard FG from Mike Nugent who played his 2nd straight game in place of Neil Rackers (groin).

The first series of the 2nd half ended when Warner turned it over to the Rams on a sack/fumble at the AZ35. St. Louis converted the takeaway when Null hit Brandon Gibson in the back of the end zone with a 21-yard TD pass (the play was originally ruled incomplete but overturned after a Rams challenge). The Rams had a chance to further change momentum when they forced a 3-n-out but punter Ben Graham caused a Danny Amendola fumble on the ensuing return and Reggie Walker recovered at the AZ43. On the subsequent 9-play drive, Tim Hightower scored on a 2-yard run to put the Cards up 24-7. It was Hightower's 8th rushing TD of the year and combined with his 10 the year before tied him with Otis Anderson and Ernie Nevers for the best two-season total in team history. Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie's 6th INT of the year ended the ensuing Rams drive but Josh Brown's 33-yard FG on the next one made it 24-10 with 8:36 left. With about 3 minutes remaining, Wilson picked Null and returned it to the STL12 and two plays later Benjie Wells scored on a 3-yard run that provided the final margin of victory.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (67,597)

The Cardinals and Packers faced off in the regular season finale that matched two playoff-bound 10-5 football teams. However, any potential impact the game's outcome may have had on the NFC postseason picture disappeared when the Vikings defeated the Giants earlier in the day. That not only ended Arizona's chances of capturing the #2 seed, but also guaranteed that the Packers and Cardinals would meet again in a Wild Card game the following weekend in AZ. As a result, many Cardinals first-stringers saw very little action. That included QB Kurt Warner - who exited after just two drives - and many starting defenders. The Packers handled it differently, with many of their starters going deep into the 2nd half. QB Aaron Rodgers completed 21 of 26 passes for 235 yards before leaving the game with 13:00 remaining in the 4th quarter. Despite their attempts to the contrary, the Cardinals did not escape without injuries. Starting CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie left with a knee injury suffered on the 3rd snap of the game while WR Anquan Boldin injured his ankle on the opening drive of the 2nd half. DE Calais Campbell injured his thumb.

As for the game itself, Green Bay produced TDs on each of its first two drives, both ending with 1-yard runs. The first one by Ryan Grant capped a 14-play game opening drive. On the 2nd, Rodgers scored from a yard out one play after his 51-yard pass to Jordy Nelson moved it to the 1. A holding penalty in the end zone gave Green Bay a safety early in the 2nd and a 26-yard Mason Crosby field goal on the next series made it 19-0. Packers CB Charles Woodson then intercepted Matt Leinart on the next series and returned it 45 yards for a TD that made it 26-0 at intermission.

On Green Bay's first drive of the 3rd quarter, Rodgers capped a 14-play, 94-yard drive with his 5-yard TD pass to TE Jermichael Finley. By the end of the quarter it was mostly back-ups in the game. With 3:18 to play and the Packers at the AZ18, back-up QB Matt Flynn was INT'd by Ralph Brown who returned it 80 yards to the GB 3. On the next play, Brian St. Pierre hit Larry Fitzgerald for a TD that made it 33-7.

As for individual milestones, Boldin eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards on the season and became the first player in team history with five 1,000-yard campaigns. Fitzgerald's TD was his career-best 13th of the year and he also moved into 3rd place on the franchise's all-time receptions list passing Roy Green. With 3 punts downed inside the 20, punter Ben Graham tied the NFL's single-season mark of 42 (Andy Lee, 2007).

CARDINALS 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

NFC WILD CARD GAME

It was the highest-scoring playoff game in NFL history and will rank among the best ever. The Cards and Packers combined for 96 points, 13 TDs and 62 first downs - all NFL records. While the offenses were explosive it was the AZ defense that came up with the game-winning score on the first series of OT. CB Michael Adams sacked Aaron Rodgers, forcing a fumble that bounced off Rodgers' foot to LB Karlos Dansby who returned it for a TD. It was one of three huge plays by Dansby. The Cards jumped out to a 17-0 early lead and led 31-17 early in the 3rd quarter. Green Bay then stormed back behind an inspired effort from Rodgers, tying the game at 38 and again at 45. But while the Pack QB was incredibly good, Kurt Warner was even better and cemented his place among the league's best postseason passers. He threw for 379 yards and amazingly had more TD passes (5) than interceptions (4). Starting in place of Anquan Boldin (ankle), Steve Breaston had 7 catches for 125 yards and a TD while #3 WR Early Doucet was 6-77-2TDs.

Green Bay entered the game with an NFL-best 24 takeaway ratio but the Cards converted two early Packers turnovers. On the game's first snap, Dansby deflected a Rodgers pass that Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd. After Tim Hightower turned it into a TD, Dansby ended the next GB drive with a forced fumble of Donald Driver that Alan Branch recovered. Doucet cashed in on that takeaway with the first of his 2 TD receptions that helped the Cards build a 24-10 lead. A Warner-to-Fitzgerald TD on the opening drive of the 2nd half made it 31-10 but the Pack scored quickly with two Rodgers TD passes and a successful on-side kick in between. A 42-yard Benie Wells run led to another Fitzgerald TD catch but the Pack answered with a Rodgers scoring pass to James Jones that capped 5 straight TD drives to open the 2nd half. After Arizona's only punt the day, GB tied it at 38 on a 1-yard run by FB John Kuhn early in the 4th. Warner responded with an 80-yard drive and put the Cards back ahead with a TD pass to Breaston. With 1:52 left though the Pack tied it again on Rodgers' 11-yard TD to Spencer Havner. At the end of regulation, Warner marched the Cards into position to win but Neil Rackers was wide left on a 34-yard FG attempt in the closing seconds. GB won the toss and got the ball first in OT. On the first snap, Rodgers had Greg Jennings open down the middle but overthrew him. Shortly thereafter, they had a 3rd-n-6 play at their own 24 when Adams and Dansby combined on the game-winning play.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Six days after out-dueling the Packers in an explosive Wild Card game, the Cardinals saw their season end in New Orleans against the #1 seeded Saints. RB Tim Hightower raced 70 yards for a TD on the game's first play from scrimmage but after that the Cards faced an uphill battle most of the day. The Saints scored TDs on 5 of their first 6 offensive drives, twice capitalizing on AZ turnovers that gave them short fields. They also took advantage of a depleted Arizona defense that began the game without starting MLB Gerald Hayes (ankle) and in the first quarter lost two more starters - CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (knee) and FS Antrel Rolle (head).

After Hightower's TD run gave the Cards the early lead, the Saints responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Lydell Hamilton's 1-yard run. On the next snap, Kurt Warner hit Jerheme Urban on a 28-yard pass down the middle but Urban fumbled it over to the Saints at the AZ37. Drew Brees made the Cards pay 4 plays later when he connected with Jeremy Shockey on a 17-yard scoring pass. The next NO drive saw the Cards lose Rolle & Rodgers-Cromartie and it ended when Reggie Bush reversed field on a 46-yard TD run that made it 21-7. Arizona then made it a one-score game when Warner led a 9-play, 80-yard drive and Benie Wells scored from 4 yards out. However, the Saints kept their foot on the accelerator. One play after a 26-yard completion to Marques Colston, Brees connected on a 44-yard flea-flicker to Devery Henderson that made it 28-14. On the 2nd play of the ensuing AZ drive, Warner was INT'd by DE Will Smith at the line of scrimmage and then leveled on the return by a clean block from DE Bobby McCray. When Warner headed to the locker room to have his chest examined, Matt Leinart led the Cards into position for a FG but Neil Rackers missed from 51 yards out as the first half expired.

Warner returned to start the 2nd half but the Cards were never able to cut into the Saints lead. A 43-yard Garrett Hartley FG made it 38-14 and later in the 3rd, Bush's 83-yard punt return TD provided the final dagger.

2010 ARIZONA CARDINALS MEDIA GUIDE

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31-7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles to face the Rams. There they incurred their first loss of the season, 27-7 and afterwards tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett. He missed the game as well as the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7-3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7-3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45-21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice and did not rejoin the team until the day before the game. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a TD. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30-21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line before racing 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28-21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7-0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7-4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20-7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2nd, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell-out every game played in the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald gave the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

RETIRED JERSEYS

PAT TILLMAN SAFETY 40

Professional—Fierce competitor defied odds as seventh-round draft choice in 1998 to become three-year starting safety and establish franchise single-season record with 224 tackles in 2000 ... successfully converted from college linebacker to pro defensive back ... named All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 2000 ... in 1998 became first rookie starting safety for Cardinals since team relocated to Arizona in 1988 ... left the Cardinals prior to 2002 season to enlist in U.S. Army and become member of elite Army Ranger unit, as did his brother, Kevin, who tabled a professional baseball career in the Cleveland Indians organization ... admirably declined all media attention throughout tour of duty ... killed April 22, 2004 in Afghanistan.

College—Local favorite during college career at Arizona State University ... Pac-10 Conference defensive player-of-the-year in 1997 ... key member of Sun Devils' 1996 Rose Bowl squad ... three-year starting linebacker ... selected by Cardinals in seventh round (226th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft.

Etc.—Born Nov. 6, 1976 in Fremont, Calif. ... graduated summa cum laude in three and one-half years with marketing degree from ASU with 3.84 grade-point-average with academic all-America honors ... outdoors enthusiast also competed in triathlons as part of training regimen.

LARRY WILSON SAFETY

Professional—One of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history ... enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978 ... named to the all-time NFL team in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary ... played entire career as a Cardinal in St. Louis (1960-72) ... played in eight Pro Bowls ... all-NFL six times ... 52 career interceptions ... cat-like defender and exceptional team leader ... interceptions in seven consecutive games in 1966 ... NFL's top free safety during 13-year career ... made the safety blitz famous.

College—Utah ... 6-0, 190 ... two-way star for Utes from 1957-60 ... seventh-round draft pick by St. Louis Cardinals in 1960.

Etc.—Born March 24, 1938 in Rigby, Idaho. ... regarded as one of the toughest players in NFL history ... once intercepted a pass for a go-ahead touchdown with two broken wrists ... retired from the team's front office in 2003, ending 43-year NFL career, all as a Cardinal.

STAN MAULDIN TACKLE

Professional—Tackle for the Chicago Cardinals (1946-48) ... opened holes in the line with hard-hitting bulk for the Cardinals' "Million-Dollar Backfield" ... member of the Cards' 1947 NFL championship team ... died of a heart attack after opening-day victory over the Eagles in 1948.

College—Texas ... 6-2, 215 ... all-America tackle for the Longhorns ... winner of the Outstanding Athlete Trophy in 1942 ... one of Texas' "13 Immortals" in 1940.

Etc.—Born December 27, 1920 in Amarillo, Texas ... flew bombing missions with the 15th Air Force Division over Italy during World War II.

J.V. CAIN TIGHT END

condition at training camp in 1979.

NOTES

NFL approves Cards' move from Chicago to St. Louis on March 13 ... team plays in 34,000-seat Sportsman's Park ... with no regular practice site, the team practices at an open field at a city park ... running back John David Crow breaks Ollie Matson's single-season rushing mark with 1,071 yards ... Crow sets franchise single-game mark that stood for 35 years with 203 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18 ... Cards lead NFL in rushing with 2,356 yards (196.3 yards per game) and in rushing defense, allowing 1,212 yards (101 yards per game) ... defense also leads league, allowing 252.4 yards per game, 158 first downs, and just 56 first downs rushing ... wide receiver Sonny Randle leads NFL with club-record 15 touchdowns receiving on 62 receptions ... little-known Utah halfback Larry Wilson, selected in seventh round of draft, converts to safety due to injuries.

NOTES

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7-7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Wilsey assume coaching reins ... during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4-9-1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51-42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

William V. Bidwell gains full ownership of the franchise ... assistant coach Chuck Drulis collapses of a heart attack on the team charter airplane returning from a preseason game at Houston ... he is pronounced dead following an emergency landing in Little Rock, Ark. ... safety Larry Wilson doubles as player and assistant coach, then two weeks before the end of the season he announces his retirement after 13 seasons ... quarterback Jim Hart connects with Ahmad Rashad (nee Bobby Moore) for a 98-yard pass play vs. L.A. Rams Dec. 10, the longest non-scoring pass play in NFL history.

NOTES

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach ... he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Haniff as offensive line coach ... running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round ... Jim Hart is named starting quarterback ... despite 4-9-1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards ... Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32-10 win.

NOTES

Led by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, and Tom Banks, Cards win a second consecutive NFC Eastern Division title with an 11-3 mark, a franchise best since an 11-1 record by the 1948 team ... fullback Jim Otis leads the NFC in rushing with 1,076 yards, running back/kick returner Terry Metcalf—a consensus NFL most valuable player—sets league record with 2,462 combined yards, and quarterback Jim Hart performs behind an offensive line that ties an NFL record by allowing just eight quarterback sacks ... wide receiver Mel Gray catches controversial touchdown pass from Hart with 25 seconds left in regulation, known as the "Phantom Catch," to send game into overtime as Cards win 20-17 over Washington ... Cards travel to Los Angeles to face Rams in playoff contest and lose 35-23 after trailing 28-9 at halftime ... seven offensive players go to the Pro Bowl (Dierdorf, Dobler, Banks, Hart, Metcalf, Gray, and Otis).

NOTES

Despite 10-4 record (6-1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs ... Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27-24 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10-4 and not gain a post-season berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

Though saddled with a 1-3 start, Head Coach Don Coryell rallies his troops to six consecutive victories and a 7-3 record entering the final stretch of the season ... four losses, however, drop the Cards to 7-7 and Coryell abandons the Midwest to join the San Diego Chargers ... QB Jim Hart sets club mark with 12 consecutive pass completions vs. Chicago Sept. 25 ... FB Wayne Morris rushes for 182 yards on 27 carries on Nov. 6 at Minnesota, the fourth-highest single-game effort in team history ... Cards deal 8-0 Dallas its first defeat of the season, a 24-17 decision in Texas Stadium before a "Monday Night Football" audience Nov. 14 ... Miami quarterback Bob Griese ties Card opponent mark with six touchdown passes in 55-14 Dolphin win Nov. 24.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7-9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

A second consecutive jackpot draft class of UCLA T Luis Sharpe (first round), Florida DT David Galloway (second round), Alabama S Benny Perrin (third round), and East Tennessee State FB Earl Ferrell (fifth round) will average over eight years per player, all four earning near-immediate starting roles ... Cards become youngest team in NFL to qualify for the Super Bowl tournament in strike-shortened season with 5-4 record ... NFL players walk out Sept. 19 after second game of the season due to labor strike ... play does not resume until Nov. 21 ... Cards lose 41-16 at Green Bay in first-round action as Card QB Neil Lomax sets league post-season record with 385 yards passing.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team post-season Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23-7 halftime deficit to take a 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29-27 win and the division crown ... In the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stenhouse named Cards' head coach ... injury-riddled squad manages 4-11 ... mark ... rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl ... Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards), vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 ... WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions ... just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43-17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

NOTES

After 18 seasons in St. Louis (1960-87), Cards relocate to Arizona to play in Sun Devil Stadium at Arizona State University ... Hall of Famer Larry Wilson named vice president and general manager ... victories over three most recent Super Bowl champions—N.Y. Giants, Washington, and San Francisco—and 7-4 start (best since 1976) overshadowed by five consecutive losses to end season ... signature victory by overcoming 23-0 third-quarter deficit to down San Francisco 24-23 on a touchdown pass from QB Neil Lomax to WR Roy Green with three seconds left ... a national "Monday Night Football" audience and capacity Sun Devil Stadium crowd witness the Cards' inaugural regular-season game in Arizona, a 17-14 Dallas victory ... Cards gain first home victory in new venue with 30-21 upset of defending Super Bowl champion Washington Sept. 25.

NOTES

Encouragement for 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history ... QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburgh (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4-12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years ... FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4-12 to 7-9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlighting Vince Tobin's first season as head coach. ... RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37-34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10. ... O-N-Y! Jets secure the only victory of their 1-15 season with 31-21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Cards join NFC Western Division after 32 seasons in the NFC East ... first 3-2 start since 1991, first 4-2 getaway since 1988 precedes injury ... 95 starter and replacement starter games lost to season ... on offense ... 41 players start games ... Freddie Jones first tight end to lead team in receptions since 1973 ... RB Marcel Shipp rushing leader (834 yards) in only six starts plus 80-yard touchdown reception at St. Louis, Cards' longest play from scrimmage since 1988 ... MLB Ronald McKinnon leads Arizona in tackles for fourth consecutive season ... FS Adrian Wilson intercepts three passes against Dallas to share NFL single-game high ... Arizona beats Dallas 9-6 without a touchdown, a franchise first in 123 games ... the Cards' 49-0 loss at Kansas City the most one-sided setback in franchise history, their first shutout in 105 games, and the largest margin in the NFL since 1989 ... final political hurdles cleared to begin construction of new stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County ... S Pat Tillman declines new multi-year contract offer to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training.

NOTES

Second-round draft choice Anquan Boldin becomes most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history with 101 receptions, while his 1,377 receiving yards most by NFL rookie in 43 years ... 217 receiving yards in season opener at Detroit most by player in first NFL game ... Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time rushing leader, signs two-year contract with Cardinals but a shoulder injury limits him to just six starting roles ... Super Bowl MVP Dexter Jackson lured from Tampa Bay as free agent and leads team with six interceptions ... Cards forge 4-4 mark at home, but 0-8 road record results in 4-12 finish and dismissal of third-year Head Coach Dave McGinnis ... Josh McCown handed quarterback duties late in season and guides Arizona to 18-17 victory in season finale vs. Minnesota with 28-yard touchdown pass to Nate Poole, knocking Vikings out of playoffs ... construction begins on new stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity...team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes...Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998...strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth...an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlus Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich...defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others...the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games...in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs...the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs...S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The Cardinals capped 2008 season with a memorable playoff run, winning the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia and playing in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pittsburgh ... won their first division title since 1975, winning the NFC West with a perfect 6-0 division record and finishing the regular season 9-7 overall ... under second-year head coach Ken Whisenhunt, Cardinals made first playoff appearance since 1998 in Wild Card game vs. Falcons, and earned second round playoff win in franchise history with victory at Carolina ... became first #4 seed to host a conference championship game and first #4 seed to advance to Super Bowl ... Cardinals recorded 12 wins on the season, the most in a single-season in franchise history and they won more playoff games in 2008 (3) than they had in their total playoff history (2) ... finished the regular season with an 8-0 home record and improved record at University of Phoenix Stadium to 14-4 under Whisenhunt ... Kurt Warner sets franchise record with 30 TD passes while also earning his fourth Pro Bowl selection ... Warner also sets team marks for attempts, completions, completion percentage, passing rating and finished second in passing yards ... Larry Fitzgerald earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and third overall after once again leading the NFC in both receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,431) while also collecting a career high 12 touchdowns ... Fitzgerald set single postseason records for receptions (30), yards (546), and receiving touchdowns (7) while also collecting over 100 receiving yards in all four postseason games ... Anquan Boldin earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl after becoming the first receiver in team history to have four 1,000 yard receiving seasons to go along with a career high 11 TDs ... reached 500 receptions in 80th game, reaching the milestone in fewer games than any other receiver in NFL history ... also set franchise mark with 24 100-yard receiving games ... Tim Hightower's 10 rushing TDs during the regular season set a franchise record for rookie ... Rookie Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie led the team with four INTs during the regular season including tying the franchise record for longest INT return with a 99-yard return for a touchdown against St. Louis ... for the third season in a row, the team sold out every home game including both playoff contests.

NOTES

The Cardinals earned their first back-to-back division titles since 1974-75 with a 10-6 regular season record, their best record since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978 ... hosted a playoff game for the second straight season and beat the Green Bay Packers 51-45 an overtime thriller that was the highest scoring game in NFL postseason history ... improved the Cardinals record to 4-0 all-time in home postseason games and gave the team postseason wins in back-to-back seasons for first time ever ... avoided the Super Bowl curse by becoming just the third team since 1999 to return to the postseason after finishing as Super Bowl runner-up ... third-year head coach Ken Whisenhunt led the Cardinals to their second straight division title ... first time since 1976 that the Cardinals have posted 10+ wins in a regular season ... the Cardinals were 6-2 on the road, the most road wins in a single season since 1963 (6) ... for the first time since 1975, the Cardinals went without back-to-back losses in a single season; they were the only NFL team in 2009 to accomplish the feat ... Kurt Warner became first quarterback in team history to throw for 3,000+ yards and 20+ touchdowns in three consecutive seasons ... Larry Fitzgerald earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection and fourth overall after leading the NFL for a second consecutive season with a career-high 13 touchdown receptions ... Anquan Boldin reached 586 receptions for his career and passed Larry Centers (535) to become the franchise's all-time leader in receptions ... Adrian Wilson had two sacks and five interceptions in their career while also earning third Pro Bowl selection and All-Pro first team honors ... Ben Graham tied NFL record with 42 punts inside the 20-yard line ... Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, Antrel Rolle and Darnell Dockett selected to Pro Bowl along with Wilson and Fitzgerald ... for the fourth season in a row, the team sold out every home game including the Wild Card Playoff contest.

CARDS SEASON GETS HIGH TV RATINGS

The Arizona Cardinals followed up a historical 2008 season that saw them play in the most watched Super Bowl of all time, gathering the largest television audience in US history with 151.6 million viewers, by breaking more ratings records last year.

The Cardinals defeat of the Green Bay Packers in the Wild Card round of the 2009 Playoffs drew 34.4 million viewers, ranking as the NFL's most-watched Wild Card game in over a decade (Packers-49ers 1/3/99, 35.6 million viewers) and was the most-watched show of the TV season at the time.

During the 2009 regular season, the Cardinals played in four prime-time games, including two in back-to-back weeks for the first time in franchise history. The week 13 contest vs. Minnesota, which was flexed onto prime time on NBC, delivered record local television ratings. Nationally it was network TV's most-watched prime-time program of the week.

In the Phoenix market, the Cardinals victory over the Vikings garnered a 31.9 rating and 46 share on KPNX-TV (Ch. 12) while reaching 598,000 homes. According to Nielsen records, that rating, share and total audience represented local market records for a Cardinals regular season game.

Cardinals game broadcasts ranked as the week's most-watched TV program in Phoenix every week they played in 2009.

Safety 5-11, 202 (Arizona State)

1998-2001 Arizona Cardinals

Patrick Daniel Tillman ... Seventh round selection (226th overall) in 1998 NFL Draft out of Arizona State ... Former college linebacker converted to safety ... Was a fierce competitor who defied odds to become a three-year starting safety that set a franchise single-season record with 224 tackles in 2000 ... Finished four-year career with 478 tackles (247 solos) ... Tillman turned down a three-year contract and left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season to enlist in the U.S. Army and become a member of the elite Army Ranger unit ... He was killed in action on April 22, 2004 in Afghanistan ... His jersey #40 became the fifth retired number in team history ... Born November 6, 1976 in Fremont, California.

LARRY WILSON*Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 1978*Free Safety 6-0, 190 (Utah)*1960-1972 St. Louis Football Cardinals

Lawrence Frank Wilson ... Two-way star at Utah, No. 7 draft pick, 1960 ... Cat-like defender, exceptional team leader ... Became NFL's top free safety, made "safety blitz" famous ... All-NFL six times, played in eight Pro Bowls ... Interceptions in seven straight games, led NFL with 10 thefts, 1966 ... In 1965 vs. Pittsburgh, with casts on two broken hands, intercepted a pass to set up go-ahead touchdown in 21-17 victory ... 52 career interceptions, 800 return yards, five touchdowns ... Career as Cardinal stretched from 1960 rookie season through retirement as team vice president in 2003 ... Born May 24, 1938, in Rigby, Idaho.

ROGER WEHRLI*Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007*Cornerback 6-0, 190 (Missouri)*1969-1982 St. Louis Football Cardinals

Roger Russel Wehrli ... Missouri all-America and Cardinals' first-round draft choice in 1969 ... Day-one starter as a rookie ... Flawless technician in pass coverage ... Appeared in 193 games and amassed 40 career interceptions, franchise record-tying 19 fumble recoveries ... Named to NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1970s ... Selected to seven Pro Bowls, named All-Pro five times ... Defensive cornerstone for the exciting Cardinals teams of the mid-70s that forged a three-year record of 31-11 (10-4, 11-3, 10-4) from 1974-76 ... Born November 26, 1947 in New Point, Missouri.

AENEAS WILLIAMS*Cornerback 5-11, 200 (Southern)*1991-2000 Arizona Cardinals

Aeneas Demetrius Williams ... Third round selection (59th overall) in the 1991 NFL Draft out of Southern University ... Played in every game as a Cardinal, starting all but one including 157 consecutive starts ... Named to NFL team of the 1990's ... Was a six-time pro-bowler (1994-99), including the first four as a starter ... Led or shared the NFC interception lead among cornerbacks three-times (1991-4, 1994-9, 1997-4) ... Seven-time Cardinal interceptions leader or co-leader 1991, '94-97, '99-00) ... Second in Cards all-time interception list with 46 career interceptions ... Holds franchise record with six career interception returns for touchdowns.

CARDINALS AND GILA RIVER HOST HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

Last season the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and Gila River joined forces for a holiday food drive benefiting St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance prior to the Cardinals-Seattle Seahawks game at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Wives and girlfriends of players and front office personnel teamed with volunteers from St. Mary's Food Bank and Cardinals Cheerleaders at collection points outside of all five stadium gates and the Great Lawn.

St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance, the world's first food bank, is a non-sectarian, nonprofit organization that alleviates hunger by efficiently gathering and distributing food to 675 sites that serve the hungry. Serving 13 of Arizona's 15 counties, the organization is committed to volunteerism, building community relationships, and improving the quality of life for Arizonans in need. In 2007, the Food Bank distributed approximately 51 million pounds of food to families and individuals, provided enough food for 200,000 meals every day, and garnered 235,000 service hours from nearly 60,000 volunteers.

Sunday, January 30	AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, Honolulu, HI (ESPN)

FLEX SCHEDULING

In 2010 the NFL will play its fifth season under its flexible scheduling format, which provides the best match-ups to fans across the nation for the final seven Sunday night games on NBC.

Twelve days before each game – or as few as six days in Week 17 – the league will announce its Sunday night games. For the Cardinals, this means that every game after the November 14 contest vs. Seattle (with the exception of the Monday Night game vs. San Francisco on November 29 and the Saturday night game on December 25 vs. Dallas) has the potential of being moved to an NBC Sunday night game.

Stay tuned to www.azcardinals.com for the latest updates regarding game time changes.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee.

The policy dictates that the home team will decide the status of the roof (open or closed) 90 minutes before kickoff. If the game begins with the roof open, it will be closed only if 1) hazardous conditions develop or are anticipated; or 2) it begins to rain.

The roof will not be closed for rain any time after the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter (including overtime). The roof can be closed at any time to address hazardous situations and if the roof is closed, it will not be re-opened.

Below is the excerpt from the 2010 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, Vol. II detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and Cowboys Stadium in Dallas are the only four venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

General Policy

One and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home team will have the authority to determine if the roof should be open or closed for the game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others. In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, or if the game starts with the roof in the closed position, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

Pre-game Procedures

- 1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
- 2) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than the time that the teams take the field for pre-game warm-ups. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.

- 3) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

In-Game Procedures

- 4) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
- 5) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
- 6) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 4 above.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities mission is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in Arizona.

Cardinals Charities grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

Cardinals Charities also continued its involvement with a wide range of organizations focused on women's issues in Arizona. Cardinals Charities has supported programs for victims of domestic violence through grants awarded to the Sojourner Center, Chrysalis Shelter, the American Red Cross Grand Canyon Chapter, the Jewish Family and Children's Services in Maricopa County, BOTHANDS in Flagstaff and to The Brewster Center in Tucson.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed more than $5 million to over 350 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and the National Football League.

In 2009, Cardinals Charities distributed over $500,000 to 82 worthy Arizona charitable organizations. Included in that number were Boys & Girls Clubs across the state, domestic violence shelters, and various educational programs.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR BENEFICIARIES

- Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organizations may reapply each year. Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Deadline for submission of application is June 1. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

Cardinals Charities hosts four signature annual events during the course of each year – the Kickoff Luncheon, Celebrity Golf Classic, the Dinner and Auction, and the Cardinals Cup (previously known as the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge). As a substitute for the Dinner and Auction, the Cardinals hosted the second annual Kingpin Challenge in 2009 at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

- Entering its 13th consecutive season.
- The Kickoff Luncheon is a chance for fans and business partners to enjoy lunch and meet the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff prior to the start of each season.
- In 2009, 445 attendees attended the luncheon on the field level at University of Phoenix Stadium in a talk-show style event emceed by FOX Sports personality Chris Rose.

DINNER AND AUCTION— KINGPIN CHALLENGE

- Entering 17th consecutive season.
- The annual dinner and auction format was once again put to the side in 2009 as the second annual Kingpin Challenge was held at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.
- In 2009, 40 teams of four guests each were paired with a current Cardinals player or coach for the bowling tournament. In addition, 50 single bowlers had the chance to participate as extra guests.

CARDINALS CUP

- Entering 6th consecutive season after previously being called the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge.
- A celebrity golf tournament partnering the Arizona Chapter of NFL Alumni with fans, local celebrities and business partners.
- In its fifth year in 2009, the Cardinals Cup had 45 NFL alumni (Larry Wilson, Rob Moore, Dave Krieg, Ron Wolfley) pair up with other Valley sports celebrities and 200 other golfers to raise money through Albertsons to benefit the Ronald McDonald House.

CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

- Entering 22nd consecutive season.
- The longest running Cardinals Charities event, the Golf Classic is held each offseason with participants donating money for the opportunity to play with Cardinals players and coaches.
- Each year, participants play a round of golf with various celebrities and have the opportunity to win various luxury items while also bidding on memorabilia and travel packages through an auction.
- In 2010, over 300 attendees played golf with current and former Cardinals players and coaches at the Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2009 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red, and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2009 season, 66 different players took part in 134 different community events and appearances that impacted over 70,000 adults and children throughout Arizona. The Cardinals also donated more than 40,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year. During the 2010 offseason, the Cardinals stayed busy by hosting 62 community events involving 53 different players that impacted over 20,000 children and adults.

The Cardinals three signature community programs during the season - the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies Program, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and the NFL Flag Football program - all continued to grow in popularity and attendance last year and should continue to develop in 2010.

SRP/SAFEWAY MILK AND COOKIES PROGRAM

- Entering its 9th consecutive season.
- Each Tuesday, a different Cardinals player along with team mascot Big Red reads to students at various Valley elementary schools and distributes book covers and milk and cookies provided by Safeway.
- Seven players visited nine different schools and read to over 500 students in 2009.

GATORADE JR. TRAINING CAMPS

- Entering 13th consecutive season. During the 2009 season, the Cardinals put on clinics using Gatorade Jr. Training stations and interactive zones.
- Cardinals players and Big Red provided football instruction and guidance for students while hosting the kids camps at Valley elementary schools or at the Cardinals training facility in Tempe. The players and Big Red helped promote the NFL's Play 60 message to encourage kids to receive 60 minutes of daily exercise.
- Ten players participated in 11 Gatorade camps impacting 1,100 students during the 2009 season.
- During the 2010 offseason, the Cardinals hosted 18 kids camps for over 2,000 children.

NFL FLAG FOOTBALL PROGRAM

- Entering 8th consecutive season and presented by University of Phoenix and Catholic Healthcare West.
- 5-on-5 non-contact flag football league for boys and girls to provide basic fundamentals of football throughout the state of Arizona and in Nevada.
- The program grew from 8,000 participants in 2004 to 12,400 in 2005 to now having over 15,000 players.
- For the fifth consecutive season, the Cardinals hosted a NFL Flag regional tournament at University of Phoenix Stadium. In 2009, the tournament hosted over 450 athletes participating throughout the weekend.

The Cardinals also continued their involvement with Arizona high school football with the weekly US Army "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award and Wells Fargo "High School Player-of-the-Week" award during the 2009 season. Both programs will be back for the 2010 season.

"HIGH SCHOOL COACH-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 16th consecutive season and third presented by US Army.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school coach of the week, awards him with a certificate from Cardinals President William V. Bidwill and a $2,000 check to the coach's school on behalf of Cardinals Charities and the US Army.
- In 2009, 10 coaches were selected and a total of $20,000 was awarded to Arizona high school football programs.
- A "Coach-of-the-Year" was selected following the 2009 high school season and Norris Vaughn from Mountain Pointe H.S. was awarded an additional $4,000 for his school.

"HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 8th consecutive season and fifth presented by Wells Fargo.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school player of the week who receives a football trophy acknowledging the award at the players' school during an awards ceremony.
- In 2009, 10 players were selected and each was awarded at their school in front of their peers with team mascot Big Red and an alumni player.
- A "Player-of-the-Year" was selected following the high school season and running back Ka'deem Casey of Tucson Canyon del Oro H.S. was given a Cardinals jersey with his name on it and a football trophy engraved with his season stats.

The Cardinals also remained busy during the holidays giving back to those less fortunate. Along with hosting a game day toy drive that benefits Chicanos Por La Causa and a game day canned food drive that benefits St. Mary's Food Bank, two of the marquee programs that the Cardinals participate in each season during that time of year are the "Help Feed the Hungry" program and the "Teddy Bear Express."

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY

- Last year, ten players and their families along with front office personnel, cheerleaders and Big Red helped serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for more than 100 people.
- The 2009 season marked the 8th consecutive year of working with the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving.

TEDDY BEAR EXPRESS

- Each year, a Cardinals caravan with players, wives, front office personnel, Big Red and cheerleaders visit hospitals to deliver uniformed personalized teddy bears to children spending the holidays away from home.

- Last year 10 players visited 200 children at Phoenix Children's Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital, passing out teddy bears while signing autographs, taking pictures and spreading holiday joy.
- The 2009 season was the 10th consecutive year of program.

The 2010 offseason once again allowed the Cardinals to focus on hosting bigger and more in-depth kids camps. In May, the Cardinals hosted the annual "Football Skills and Education Camp" presented by SRP as well as the "Cardinals Kicking, Punting and Long Snapping Camp" presented by SRP.

"FOOTBALL SKILLS AND EDUCATION CAMP"

- 8th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by SRP.
- 750 high school football players from Arizona had the opportunity to receive a full day of classroom and on-field instruction from professionals at University of Phoenix Stadium.
- Current Cardinals players and coaches, NFL alumni and junior colleges coaches helped coach and instruct each individual participant.

ARIZONA CARDINALS KICKING CAMP

- 5th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by SRP
- 200 kickers, punters, and long-snappers from Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah had the opportunity to gain instruction from Director of Community Relations Luis Zendejas, punter Ben Graham, long snapper Mike Leach, former Cardinals punter Rich Camarillo, former long snapper Mark Walczak, and current college kickers.

In addition to being active throughout the community with various player appearances and events, the Cardinals also gave back to the people of Arizona with donations of merchandise and memorabilia.

CARDINALS DONATIONS

- The Cardinals donated 20,000 items of signed merchandise (signed footballs, jerseys and hats) to non-profit organizations in 2009 raising over $125,000 for local charities.
- Finally, during a sold out season at University of Phoenix Stadium last year, 2,600 game tickets were distributed to worthwhile organizations throughout the Valley.

Community service is never out of season for the Cardinals. For more information on the community programs, contact Luis Zendejas (602/379-0101).

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

From the outset, Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill along with son and team President Michael embarked upon the task of building a new stadium for the team with a very clear focus. They were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006 on a 165-acre site in Glendale, just west of Phoenix. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it was also the site of Super Bowl XLII and hosts the annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Bowl Championship Series title game on a rotating basis.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE

FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique roll-out natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: Thanks to a successful partnership between the Cardinals, Tempe, AZ-based Insight and Cisco Systems the stadium boasts a variety of head-turning technology and innovations that are changing the way fans experience the game. An advanced Internet Protocol (IP) network from Cisco handles all data, voice and video communication traffic pulsing through the stadium, which 1) enables every fan in the stadium to enjoy fantasy football and surf the Internet from their wireless-enabled devices such as PDAs. 2) supports cell phone service for every seat in the house and enables fans to watch instant replay on the stadium's 70 jumbo plasma screens. 3) during a game allows fans in the stadium's luxury lofts to access statistics, scores, and monitor fantasy football activity using Cisco\IP phones with touch-screen displays.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted a Super Bowl, the Rolling Stones, U2, high school proms, the first-ever BCS national championship game (Florida-Ohio State), monster truck shows, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, the West Regionals of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and numerous other events. In a given year, Global Spectrum (the buildings operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art video-board/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas. It is also aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority.

SI.COM NAMED UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM “BEST NEW VENUE” OF THE 2000’S

In its series at the end of 2009, ranking the best in sports over the last decade, Sports Illustrated named University of Phoenix Stadium as the Best New Venue.

In selecting the facility #1, Sports Illustrated said: “Named for a college without a football team, this 1.7-million-square-foot stadium has quickly become one of the central venues in the sports world. It’s home to the Arizona Cardinals and the Fiesta Bowl and hosted Super Bowl XLII in 2008. The award-winning design features a roof covered by a translucent fabric and exterior walls made of metallic panels to help with cooling inside. The field can be moved outside on rollers, enabling optimal grass growth in the desert setting.”

The recognition is the latest in a string of honors for the venue that opened in 2006. The Cardinals have sold out every game they have played in four seasons at the stadium.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses University of Phoenix Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre region includes car parks, grass areas and other open space available to the public.

Sportsman's Park features over 20 acres of turf, including an eight-acre public area called the Great Lawn, as well as on-site car parks which will handle over 14,000 vehicles, and an abundance of trees and other landscape appointments native to the area.

A tree-lined expanse of grass covering eight acres, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Steve worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

CARDINALS PRIMARY HOME STADIUMS

Since the NFL was founded in 1920, the following venues have served as the primary site for Cardinals home games:

1920-1921...Normal Park, Chicago *	1959...Soldier Field, Chicago
1922-1925...Comiskey Park, Chicago	1960-1965...Busch Stadium, St. Louis ***
1926-1928...Normal Park, Chicago *	1966-1987...Busch Memorial Stadium, St. Louis
1929-1930...Comiskey Park, Chicago	1988-2005...Sun Devil Stadium, Tempe
1931-1938...Wrigley Field, Chicago	2006 - ....UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM, GLENDALE
1939-1958...Comiskey Park, Chicago **

* Normal Park was also known as Normal Field

** In 1944, the Cardinals and Steelers merged during WWII and home games were split between Comiskey Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field

*** Busch Stadium was known as Sportsman's Park from 1909-1952; the Cardinals moved to the newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium in 1966

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

NFL AND PAT TILLMAN FOUNDATION CREATE NFL-TILLMAN SCHOLARSHIP

In June 2010, the NFL and the Pat Tillman Foundation created the NFL-Tillman Scholarship.

The Tillman Foundation supports educational opportunities for veterans and their families. The foundation's Tillman Military Scholars program covers not only direct study related expenses such as tuition, fees, and books, but also other needs such as room and board and child care. There are currently 52 Tillman Military Scholars pursuing their education at every level, from college freshmen undergraduates to doctoral candidates. All 52 of the Tillman Scholars are connected by their desire to improve their own lives while continuing to serve others.

With the creation of the NFL-Tillman Scholarship, each year the NFL will honor an individual who exemplifies Pat Tillman's enduring legacy of service.

The NFL has supported the Tillman Foundation since its inception in 2004, donating $700,000 to the foundation. In 2004, the NFL donated $250,000 to the United Service Organizations to build a USO Center in memory of Tillman. The Pat Tillman USO Center, the first USO center in Afghanistan, opened on Bagram Air Base on April 1, 2005 and now serves 135,000 troops annually. The Arizona Cardinals and owner Bill Bidwill also have been extremely generous in their support, and team president Michael Bidwill sits on the Tillman Foundation's board.

"We are pleased to honor Pat Tillman through the creation of the NFL-Tillman Scholarship," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "He will always be a member of the NFL family and we are proud to honor him by assisting those who seek to continue his legacy of service."

"Veterans, active service members and their dependents exemplify the very nature of leadership that the foundation seeks to inspire in young people across the country," said Marie Tillman. "With the Tillman Military Scholars program, we ensure these leaders receive every opportunity to pursue their broader educational goals and to continue to serve their country in or out of uniform."

Tillman Military Scholarships are available to veteran and active service members from all branches of the U.S. military who wish to start, finish, or further their education and to dependents and survivors of service members. ## UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community, according to Brian Mueller, president of Apollo Group, the University's parent company.

University of Phoenix was founded over 30 years ago, and serves students both on-line and with 191 campuses and learning centers in 39 states and four foreign nations.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM GOES GREEN

University of Phoenix teamed up with hometown energy provider Salt River Project (SRP) to power every Arizona Cardinals home game during the 2009 season with 100 percent renewable energy.

The Arizona Cardinals were one of only a few NFL teams to play in a green-powered facility last year. During all 11 pre-season, regular season and playoff games, 95,000 kilowatt-hours of renewable energy purchased by University of Phoenix offset electricity used in the stadium — from the concession stands to the parking lot lighting to the scoreboards. This amount of electricity is comparable to what 60 average homes in Phoenix will use in one month.

"University of Phoenix has a long-term commitment to sustainability and the environment," said Dr. William Pepicello, president of University of Phoenix. "Offsetting the electricity use with clean, renewable energy at University of Phoenix Stadium will have a lasting impact on the environment."

University of Phoenix Stadium's green efforts started in early 2008, with the electricity needed to power Super Bowl XLII and the NFL Experience generated from 100 percent renewable energy resources through SRP's EarthWise Program. Additionally, University of Phoenix purchased renewable energy credits to power the Cardinals home game versus the San Francisco 49ers on November 11, 2008.

"SRP commends the University of Phoenix for their commitment to renewable energy," said Richard Hayslip, associate general manager of SRP. "Providing green energy to offset the electricity used to power the games is an excellent opportunity to educate the public about the importance of renewable energy."

Additionally, stadium operator Global Spectrum, in partnership with Sierra Waste, Gorilla Equipment, the Arizona Cardinals and Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ), implemented a recycling program at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006, consisting of placing containers to collect products for recycling on every level in the stadium, in club lounges and corporate lofts, and even provides recycling plastic bags for tailgaters.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM BOASTS NFL'S BEST PLAYING SURFACE

University of Phoenix Stadium continues to rank as one of the NFL's best stadiums. The NFLPA has conducted two playing surface rankings since University of Phoenix Stadium opened in 2006 and the Cardinals have finished in the top three in both (third in 2006 and first in 2008).

The Cardinals also ranked number one in Sports Illustrated's poll of NFL players on what the best playing surface was in 2008.

NFLPA PLAYING SURFACE RANKINGS (2008)

1. Arizona
2. Tampa Bay
3. San Diego
4. Carolina
5. Indianapolis

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED POLL OF BEST NFL PLAYING SURFACE (2008)

16%	Arizona
13%	Tampa Bay
8%	Seattle
7%	Miami
7%	Houston

CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

Last season the Cardinals sellout streak at University Phoenix Stadium continued, selling out all 11 games (including preseason and postseason). Entering the 2010 season, the team has now sold out all 43 games played at the stadium. Arizona averaged 62,773 fans per game in 2009, totaling 505,143 fans, the fourth-highest regular season total in franchise history.

The sellout crowds helped the Cardinals win four of their last five games at home including a 51-45 overtime victory vs. Green Bay in the Wild Card Playoffs to improve to 3-0 in the postseason at University of Phoenix Stadium. A 16-8 record at home over the last three regular seasons is the best in the NFC West and 16 home victories ties for the fifth most in the NFL during that span. Since 1926, the only other time the Cardinals registered at least 16 regular season wins at home in three consecutive years was from 1974-76 (17).

Prior to the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006, there were only 12 games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

CARDINALS EXPAND SPANISH BROADCASTS

Over the last 10 years, the Arizona Cardinals Football Club has reached out to its Spanish language speaking fans by becoming the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games on Spanish radio (2000) and by launching a Spanish language version of the team's web site www.azcardinals.com/espanol (2007).

In addition to broadcasting the games locally on 710 ESPN Deportes Radio in Phoenix, the Cardinals expanded the audience of the game broadcasts in 2008 by reaching an agreement with Grupo Acir, a radio network in Mexico with over 175 affiliates in 71 cities throughout the country. In 2008, the Cardinals became the first team in the National Football League to broadcast its games in Mexico after being heard in 12 major cities. For the 2010 season the Cardinals have expanded their network in Mexico to a total of 17 stations including Mexico City.

Also in 2008, the Cardinals expanded the content of their game broadcasts with a one-hour Spanish language pre-game show hosted by Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play) and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantu (analyst). Spanish speaking Cardinals fans can tune into Primera Y Diez (First and Ten) every Wednesday on 710 ESPN Deportes. This two hour Spanish language program features a recap of the previous week's game, insight into the next opponent and touches on the hot topics of the week.

CARDINALS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

In November of 2009, representatives from the Arizona Cardinals Football Club, Washington Elementary School District, Cardinals Charities, Communities in Schools of Arizona and University of Phoenix came together to dedicate the newly constructed facilities and campus of the Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy (8520 N. 19th Avenue, Phoenix).

Guard Deuce Lutui joined Alice Whisenhunt and team mascot Big Red to represent the Cardinals at the campus dedication.

The Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy, in partnership with the Washington Elementary School District, Cardinals Charities, Communities in Schools Arizona and founding partner University of Phoenix, was established in 2007 as a small public middle school (fifth through eighth grades) whose aim is to create a learning environment that will receive all the successful programs, services and resources each organization has to offer.

The academy opened its doors in August 2007 with its first class of 40+ fifth and sixth grade students. Grades seven and eight were added over the next two years. The Cardinals Academy offers a small-school environment with high parental involvement and a community service focus.

Accelerated instruction is provided to focus students on their education and service learning to help them achieve success. The academy promotes small class size with adult mentors, quality teachers, and community resources delivered in an accessible way to reduce or eliminate non-scholastic barriers to staying in school.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

CARDINALS ON THE RADIO

The Cardinals are pleased to continue their partnership with Bonneville/KTAR in 2010. KTAR has been the flagship radio station for the Cardinals since 2005.

GAME-DAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

Cardinals games will be simulcast on Sports 620 KTAR (AM) and News Talk 92.3 KTAR (FM). Sports 620 KTAR will also air pre-game and postgame programming for every contest as well as non-game day programming that includes the Big Red Rage.

If there is a scheduling conflict with the Suns or Diamondbacks, all of the Cardinals game day programming will air on News Radio 92.3 KTAR while the baseball or basketball game will be carried on Sports 620 KTAR.

Calling the play-by-play for his ninth straight season with the Cardinals is Dave Pasch. He joined the Cardinals in 2002 after three seasons as the football and basketball voice of Syracuse University. In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling NBA, college football and basketball.

Joining Pasch for his sixth year as the radio analyst is Ron Wolfley, former player and four-time Pro Bowl selection and special teams standout with the Cardinals, who selected him in the fourth round of the 1985 draft. One-half of the "Doug and Wolf Show" on Sports 620 KTAR, the Buffalo, NY native played collegiately at West Virginia before enjoying a 10-year NFL career with the Cardinals (1985-91), Browns (1992-93) and Rams (1995).

Sports 620 KTAR Radio personality and Cardinals Reporter Paul Calvisi returns to offer sideline commentary on the game broadcasts.

Game-day programming begins three hours prior to kickoff on Sports 620 KTAR (AM) and News Talk 92.3 KTAR (FM) with "The NFL Kickoff Show." Mike Goldberg, who also serves as the team's preseason

Dave Pasch

Ron Wolfley

Paul Calvisi

TV play-by-play voice, will join former NFL center Bill Lewis (Raiders 1986-88, Cardinals 1990-92, and Patriots 1993) and azcardinals.com writer Darren Urban to discuss the upcoming Cardinals matchup and the latest news from around the NFL. In addition to his game day duties, Lewis is also the Cardinals Manager of Alumni Relations.

Two hours prior to kickoff, Calvisi will be joined by former Cardinals linebacker Rob Fredrickson and former NFL offensive lineman Glenn Parker for the "Pre-Game Huddle." Fredrickson was with the Cardinals from 1999-2002 while Parker, a former University of Arizona standout, spent 11 years in the NFL, playing for the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New York Giants.

"Cardinal Talk," a post-game call-in show hosted by Lewis, can be heard immediately following each contest on Sports 620 KTAR. Cardinal Talk allows fans to give their opinion on each game and hear expert analysis from Fredrickson and Parker.

WEEKDAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

Returning to the airwaves in 2010 is "The Big Red Rage." Live from Majerle's in Chandler for the third consecutive season, "The Big Red Rage" is co-hosted by Paul Calvisi and Ron Wolfley, who will be joined by Pro Bowl safety Adrian Wilson and another Cardinals player for each program. The show typically airs from 6:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings throughout the season on Sports 620 KTAR. If there is a scheduling conflict with a Diamondbacks or Suns game, check azcardinals.com for date and time changes.

SPANISH RADIO

In 2000, the Cardinals became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games – pre-season and regular season, home and away – on Spanish radio. For the fifth season, those broadcasts can again be heard on 710 ESPN Deportes Radio in Phoenix. In addition to 710 ESPN Deportes, the broadcast will be simulcast on Jose 106.9/107.1 FM.

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play), and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantu (analyst) will be back again in 2010.

Trujillo returns for his 11th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantu played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties,

Gabriel Trujillo

Rolando Cantu

Cantu is also the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

In addition to the game action, a pre-game show and a weekly talk show, "Primera Y Diez" ("First and Ten") can be heard in Spanish on 710 ESPN Deportes. The pre-game show begins one hour prior to kickoff for each game and "Primera Y Diez" airs live from 4:00-6:00 p.m. on Wednesday's throughout the season.

CARDINALS ON TELEVISION

PRE-SEASON TV

The Cardinals are back again on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV) for the 2010 pre-season in High Definition.

TEAM SHOWS

The team will produce three TV programs throughout the 2010 season: "Maximum Cardinals," "The Ken Whisenhunt Show," and "Cardinals Headquarters." The programs can be found on 12 News (KPNX-TV) and Fox Sports Arizona.

"Maximum Cardinals" is a weekly half-hour program dedicated to providing an inside look into the team, on and off the field. Each week, segments such as the popular "Wired," as well as "Building the Gameplan" get Cardinals fans ready for the upcoming game. The show features reports from Jody Jackson, Ron Wolfley and Paul Calvisi. "Maximum Cardinals" will typically air at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon's (or following NBC college football) on 12 News and will re-air Sunday morning's on FSAZ.

"The Ken Whisenhunt Show" is the official TV program of Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt. Hosted by Wolfley, the show will feature an in-depth look at the pivotal play from the previous week's game with an eye on the upcoming opponent and a fan-email segment in which Whisenhunt will answer questions. "The Ken Whisenhunt Show" will air at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday's following "Saturday Night Live" on 12 News and re-air Sunday morning's on FSAZ.

"Cardinals Headquarters," airing exclusively on Fox Sports Arizona, will be shown on Wednesday evenings throughout the season and will re-air throughout the week prior to game-day. "HQ" will focus on any mid-week news surrounding the team including Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt's weekly press conference.

TRAINING FACILITY

While the Cardinals home games moved from the East Valley to the West Valley in 2006, the team continues to train and maintain its corporate headquarters at the South Tempe facility that opened in 1990.

Covering 14.7 acres of land that was formerly a cotton field, the Cardinals facility opened in September of 1990. The 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sports desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Sonoran desert landscaping.

In the spring of 1996, it served as a location for the filming of "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the media relations department.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used at University of Phoenix Stadium, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields.

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

TRAINING CAMP

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, Northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations. The excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) provide the team's preseason training camp home.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the world. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as an unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 15,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

2010 TRAINING CAMP SCHEDULE

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club will return to Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff in late July to begin their 2010 training camp.

The team will report to NAU the night of Friday, July 30 and begin practice the following day on Saturday, July 31. The Cardinals will break camp on Saturday, August 21.

In all, the team will conduct a total of 25 practices during their three-week stay in Flagstaff.

On Saturday, August 7 the Cardinals will host a special "Red & White" outdoor practice from 9:15-11:15 AM. The practice will be preceded by a full-team autograph session (8:45-9:10 AM) and conclude with a live goal-line session.

The Cardinals will also have a pair of night practices on Wednesday, August 4 and Wednesday, August 18 from 7:05-9:15 PM. Due to renovations at Lumberjack Stadium on NAU's campus, those sessions are scheduled to take place at nearby Coconino High School.

All other practices in Flagstaff will be held on the grass fields adjacent to the Walkup Skydome. In the event of inclement weather, they will be moved inside to the Skydome.

Practice times are subject to change and fans are encouraged to check the team's official website www.azcardinals.com for the most up-to-date practice info.

In addition, Cardinals players and coaches will be available following each practice to sign autographs as they come off the field.

All practices at NAU are open to the public. Admission and parking are both free.

The team's tentative training camp schedule is listed below.
